

H. H. BEAN GETS CRACK ON HIS BEAN

Circuit Judge Bagley Fines Him $1,000 and a Year in Jail

GUILTY OF LIQUOR SALE

Sold Whiskey to Harry Hill, at Celebration Grounds, in July

H. H. Bean, of Portland, was given a neat little crack on his bean last Friday in circuit court, when Judge Geo. R. Bagley fined him a total of $1,000 and a jail sentence of a year for violation of the liquor laws of the State of Oregon. Last July Bean sold liquor to Harry Hill, and Officer Larson and Oscar Jacobs caught Hill with the goods just as he was trying to slip the bottle in his pockets. Hill was pinched and soon came through and admitted that Bean was the seller. Bean fought the case and a jury was drawn to try the case last Thursday afternoon. After Deputy Weckert and Chief Larsen went on the stand and told what they knew of the case, there was an adjournment until the next morning when Bean withdrew his plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to the two indictments. Judge Bagley sentenced him to a fine of $500 and a six months' jail sentence on each indictment, and paroled him conditionally that he pay $500 and the court costs within ten days. Bean will probably come through with the coin of the realm.

The jury drawn to try the case—C. D. Staley, Nels Nelson, C. W. Spiering, Herbert Sahnov, G. A. Tibbitts, S. C. Inkley, Geo. Wilcox, L. J. Rushlow, Aug. Kahle, E. M. Banks, Wm. Mierjergen and Hugh Lilly.

The case of R. H. Johnson was called in court three times, and there being no response, his bail of $50 was declared forfeited to the county.

The gambling case against J. C. Swain, W. Swain, Clarence Lightner, R. George and C. B. Oliver, charged with gambling at Timber, were called and defendants being absent, their bail of $50 each was declared forfeited.

The same order was made against Geo. B. Lightner, whose bail of $100 was forfeited to the state.

Hunter versus Hunter, decree for plaintiff—divorce.

The jury will return tomorrow morning.

M'MINNVILLE HAS BIG CELEBRATION

Holds Exercises on Completion of Loop Highway Last Week

MANY GO FROM HILLSBORO

Big Parade in Afternoon, Followed With Exercises, City Park

Fully fifteen thousand people attended the M'Minnville celebration last Friday, commemorating the opening of the Memorial Highway, comprising the loop from Portland through Hillsboro, Forest Grove, Gaston, North Yamhill, Carlton, to M'Minnville, and thence back to Portland via Dayton and Newberg and the Capital Highway in over the Terwilliger. The M'Minnville band came down to Beaverton Friday morning and furnished music for the auto parade. On reaching Hillsboro the line of machines received a considerable addition. Mayor Shute, Dr. L. W. Hyde and Glenn F. Bell, president and secretary of the Hillsboro Club, officially represented Hillsboro and joined the big demonstration. Many Hillsboro and Forest Grove machines were in the big street parade which disbanded at the city park after a two-mile demonstration had been staged.

Dr. L. W. Hyde, representing the Spanish War Veterans, led the speaking, his subject being "Americanism." Dr. Hyde paid a tribute to the American Legion boys, who had charge of the celebration, and held that the service men of the world war, the Spanish War Veterans and the Grand Army of the Republic were fitting sons of the revolutionary fathers who fought for and built the greatest republic the world has witnessed. His speech was impressive and worthy of profound consideration.

R. A. Booth, chairman of the highway commission, followed, and in a characteristic address told of what had been accomplished in the past four years by those in charge of permanent highway building. He said that this was the age of gasoline transportation and he dwelt on the fact that Oregon has made the greatest progress of any state in the union, considering her scant population. He drew parallels on the old methods of travel and the new, and told how it formerly took ten days to traverse the state when now it could be accomplished in as many hours.

Frank Branch Riley represented Mayor Baker, and in an eloquent address told of Oregon's glories and how the East was becoming interested. After traveling all over the United States extolling Oregon's beauties, Mr. Riley said that he had found no place like Oregon. He contended that Oregon, with its Mt. Hood, its Columbia River highway, its beautiful Crater Lake, had all the rest of America beaten for scenic grandeur, and that we should do more to let the world know our blessings.

Judge J. W. Goodin and Commissioners Wismer and John Ireland were present at the celebration.

Aside from a few little detours, all of which can be negotiated in any kind of weather, the highway is now open clear to M'Minnville.
