M. E. CONFERENCE PLACES MINISTERS

Rev. W. E. Ingalls, of Lebanon, Comes to Hillsboro's Pulpit

SKIPWORTH TO PORTLAND

Rev. R. N. Avison, of Spokane, Assigned to Forest Grove

The Methodist Episcopal Conference for the Year 1921 closed at Forest Grove the first of the week. W. E. Ingalls, of Lebanon, will occupy the pulpit at Hillsboro for the coming conference year, and Rev. Avison, of Spokane, has been assigned to the Forest Grove church.

Appointments of interest to the Methodists and laymen of Washington county are:

Banks, supplied by Rev. J. H. Bennett.

Cornelius, Rev. J. H. Warrell, Dilley, Rev. C. O. McCulloch, Forest Grove, Rev. R. N. Avison, from Spokane.

Hillsboro, Rev. W. E. Ingalls, from Lebanon.

Scholls and Farmington, Rev. J. F. Coleman.

Sherwood, Rev. P. M. Blinkinsop.

Garden Home, Rev. F. M. Jasper.

Metzger and Tigard, Rev. W. J. Warren, from Nehalem and Wheeler.

Tualatin and Wilsonville, Rev. A. P. Bates.

Rev. Walton Skipworth, who has had charge of the Hillsboro field for several years, has been appointed to the charge at Woodstock, one of Portland's largest suburban churches.

STATE FAIR PRIZES

The Washington County Industrial Club boys and girls took the following prizes at the state fair: 1st prize, rabbit project—Geo. Troffiter, Tigard. 2nd prize, turkey project—Geo. Troffiter, Tigard. 2nd prize, cooking—Calvin Powell, Garden Home. 3rd prize, sewing, Div. 2—Edith Hansen, Dilley. 3rd prize—County Club Poultry Exhibit.

5th prize, home making—Alice Munger, Tigard.

5th prize, calf raising—Elmer Koenig, Greener School.

Washington County Stock Judging team ranked 7th in a field of 13 competing teams. Eleven counties maintained regular club exhibits and scores of individuals from other counties made entries. Five counties employ club leaders who devote their entire time to promoting that branch of the school work.

Taking all into consideration, we should all be proud of the boys and girls of Washington County.

N. A. Frost, Co. Supt.

LOST OVER NIGHT

Geo. Harms, Dick Handley, Arthur Gutleb and Creigh Long left Hillsboro Sunday morning for a hunting trip up in the Devil's Lake country, near the Wilson river road. When Handley, Gutleb and Long returned to their camp late in the afternoon and Harms had put in no appearance there was no anxiety, but when darkness came and George failed to make camp there was more or less fear in the hearts of his fellow hunters. They fired off their guns and received no response and then went down several old trails with the same result—no answering shot. Hillsboro friends were notified and the next morning just as a number of the boys were going out to hunt for Harms a telephone came in from Gale's Creek that Harms had made it into the Soda Springs country. He had lost his bearings and camped all night in the woods. Harms built a fire for comfort but says it kept him turning around too much for a decent rest. When daylight broke Geo. found that he was within 200 yards of a forest ranger's cabin, with all kinds of a good bed and plenty to eat with no one to guard couch or provisions—and there he had laid all night shivering. He soon made the Williams ranch and was directed down the trail via the Soda Springs route. Harms says he was worried just as much as we were down in Hillsboro—only his worry was because of an empty stomach and no warm place to sleep.

FRESHMEN RECEPTION

The Freshmen reception at the Hillsboro High building last week was a big affair. The initiates into High were given a cordial and rousing sendoff and refreshments were served. Many of the elders attended the function and the "freshies" appeared to enjoy it as well as the students who prepared the entertainment.

AMERICAN LEGION

Department Adjutant E. J. Eivers sends out a circular to Oregon Posts saying that in case rifles are wanted for Armistic Day celebrations orders should be sent in at once.

An Ohio court has decided that $115,000 raised in that state for the benefit of Ohio divisions, un-called for during the war, shall be turned over to the American Legion and accordingly the money has been turned over to three trustees who will expend it for disabled soldiers and sailors, and their families, for a period of ten years. The court held that the Legion was strictly an "all-service" organization and as such was entitled to the funds.

An endeavor to enroll an additional 10,000 of membership in the 104 posts in Oregon is under way. If you are a service man and do not belong join your nearest post at once. You can help the post and it can help you. —Hillsboro Post No. 6.

JOS. M. BRANDENBERG

Joseph M. Brandenburg, of Oreno, died Oct. 12, 1921, after an illness of a few weeks. He was born in Canton Zug, Switzerland, Jan. 10, 1858, and came to the United States at the age of 20 years. He settled first at Yuma, Arizona, where he homesteaded. He moved to Oregon in 1903 and first settled at Shady Brook. Later he lived at Mountaineer, Shady Brook, Hillsboro and Laurel, and then moved to Oreno some years ago.

He is survived by his widow and the following children: Mrs. Robt. Schneider, Oreno; Mrs. Jas. Rogers, Chicago, Ill.; Mrs. J. A. Carr, Oak Grove, Ore.; F. J. Brandenburg, an ex-service man of the U. S. Navy; Margaret, Arnold, Joseph and Bertha, all at home.

The funeral takes place Friday afternoon at the Oreno Presbyterian church, Rev. H. F. Gelvin conducting the service and interment will be at Hillsboro, direction of Geo. J. Limber, undertaker.

Mr. Brandenburg was widely known over the county and had many friends. He was well read and a good conversationalist.

ARMISTICE DAY

With the entire nation paused at noon in two minutes of silent prayer, American Legion service men of the world war from each state and territory will do homage to the unknown American soldier at Arlington national cemetery on Armistic Day, November 11. Medal of Honor men also have been designated by the government as official mourners. Honorary pallbearers will be eight generals of the army and four admirals of the navy, with non-commissioned and petty officers as body bearers. President Harding will deliver the funeral oration.

Mr. Whitney, of Haines Station, near Forest Grove, Monday of this week found a mail bag in a strawshed, containing a lot of postage stamps of larger denomination and 108 cents in pennies. The sack is supposed to have been taken from the Forest Grove post office on the night of Feb. 11, 1916, when it was looted by burglars. Chickens scratched up the deposit. Many of the stamps were still in good shape. The office was robbed at a time when Dutch Pete and two or three yeggs were tapping Uncle Sam's places in the valley with regularity about one each week. Bob Wirtz, the postmaster, lost an improvement bond at the time of the robbery, and this was found in the cache, as well as the torn end of a $20 bill. This last find will mean $18 to Bob, as the end left by the robbers when they robbed the office had the figure 2 on it, and the government paid Wirtz two bucks for the piece. When he puts in the other end of the bill Uncle Sam will doubtless give him $18 more.

O. Phelps, owner of the Liberty Theatre Building, is tearing out the front of the structure and in a short time there will be a neat pressed brick front facing the street line. There has been a door-looking sag in the upper front for some time and the improvement will be appreciated—even by a cross-eyed man, as Phelps says.

Chas. Pierce, of the Portland Fire Department, was in the city Tuesday afternoon, talking over old times with his oldtime friend DeWitt Smith.

TWO KILLED NEAR SCOFIELD SAWMILL

George Atwood and Frank Ritenour Struck by Locomotive

TRIED TO CROSS RAILROAD

Both Men Leave Families—Ritenour Buried at Oregon City

George Atwood, owner of a small shingle mill near Scofield, and Frank Ritenour, of near Buxton, were instantly killed last Wednesday when Atwood tried to drive his car across the railway track of the Standard Box & Lumber Company, near the Scofield yard.

Brakesman O'Donnell, who was with the engine saw the men approaching the railway and signalled them to stop. Instead of stopping they increased their speed and just as the car crossed the rails it was struck by the engine almost amidship.

Atwood was aged about 55 years, and Ritenour was aged 35. Each of the dead men left a family and children.

Coroner Limber investigated the tragedy the last of the week. Ritenour's remains were sent to Oregon City for interment, he having been a former resident of that place.

The engine is used by the Standard Box for logging purposes, and no blame is attached to the train crew.
