

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long

In all humility the Argus suggests to all concerned that Mr. Henry Ford might be paged. He will work out the railway situation to a nicety without cutting wages, and at the same time reduce freights—for Henry is a great little tyke when it comes to knowing how.

Editor Brodie is going to Siam, where he will be far away from possible rail strikes and where passengers are carried in little houses all their own. Some class.

Congregational Church—Bible School at 10 a. m. Worship and sermon at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Topics, "The Blight of Ignorance" and "The Cheap Use of Sacred Things." Special music at both services. Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:45 p. m.—H. A. Deck, minister.

For Sale—S. C. White Leghorn pullets; 5 and 6 months old; $1.25 and $1.50 a piece. Also a few extra good White Rock cockerels. On highway, 1/2 mile east of Reedville, Ore.—J. E. McGuire. 33-35

The Roll-Call meeting of the Pythian Sisters, Friday night, was well attended, and a general good time enjoyed by all present. At this time the Pythian Sisters honored Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Koehler, faithful members of the order, who recently moved to Portland by presenting them with a silver bon-bon dish. After the business session a short musical program was rendered as follows: Singing of "America," by assembly; several piano selections by Miss Florence Taylor, and several vocal selections by Ray Sigler. The remainder of the evening was enjoyed with cards and dancing, and refreshments were served.

A reception was given the members of the Reedville baseball club last Saturday evening, and the boys were presented with their trophies for winning the county championship. Each trophy is a miniature baseball watch for, inscribed "W. C. B. L." The evening was enjoyed with music, cards and dancing as features and closed with a fine spread.

C. C. Nelson, who was injured at the Jackson Falls rock crusher some weeks back, is still in St. Vincent's Hospital, Portland, and will be there for some time to come. His many friends in Bascom and Washington county wish him a speedy recovery. His right leg was badly splintered between the knee and ankle.

For Sale or Rent—Small furnished home. Hot and cold water; gas, and electric lights.—Call at 1336 Jackson or telephone 2836. 32-33

The China pheasant season opened Saturday, and to the surprise of hunters the birds were much more plentiful than expected. Many got the limit.
