PRE-NUPTIAL AFFAIR

Mrs. George Messman, of Albany, recently complimented Miss Pearl Pearch to a party in honor of Miss Pearch's approaching marriage on Thanksgiving Day to R. Lee Sears, of Hillsboro. Fancy work and conversation were the features and delightful luncheon was served at the close. The house was attractively decorated with Autumn foliage and jack-o-lanterns.

The bride-to-be is one of Albany's popular young ladies, and the groom is well known in Albany and at Hillsboro. He has been with John Simpson, the sawmill man, for some years. After their marriage they will reside in Hillsboro.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Evelyn Wall reports that the senior pins of the 1922 class will be here the 30th of this month.

The English classes under Miss Waite are studying the Arms Conference speeches both for the perfect English and the historical value.

The committee on athletics report over one hundred dollars to the school's credit and no debts. This condition is very seldom found as near the end of the football season as this, and gives promise of a successful basketball season.

From hearing the Forest Grove boosters who witnessed the Hillsboro-Franklin game it seems they are a little worried as to the outcome of next Friday's game at Forest Grove. Last year was the first time Hilli had beaten Forest Grove for many years. It is said that we buried the "jinx." This season we intend to bury it deeper. The big football game of the year will be played at Forest Grove on Friday, Nov. 18, at 3 p. m.
