

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY AND CHEMAMA PLAY

At Forest Grove, on McCready Field

THANKSGIVING DAY GAME Badgers Expect Strong Defense by the Indians

Thanksgiving Day, on McCready field, the biggest football demonstration that Washington county has ever seen will take place when the Pacific University Badgers, the non-conference champions of the Northwest, will try to cinch their title in the final game of the season, with the doughty Chemama Indians.

Spirit is running high, and one of the biggest crowds that the University has seen is expected to come to the annual classic. The Portland alumni of the school say that they will be there in force. The yell leader has prepared some feature stunts for the mid halves and will himself appear in the costume of a Cannibal King, as the hero of one of the school's most famous football songs.

Coach Leo J. Frank, who has had the husky Badger aggregation in charge since the first of the season, has developed a machine that has swept everything before them except the University of Oregon. Oregon won the game with the Badgers only by sheer force of weight, and Coach Frank has been hailed as the wonder coach of the state for the remarkable showing his men have made.

Four straight wins is the record of the Badgers, and they expect to add another today. The game will be called at 2:30. It will be close and fast, and anyone who wants to see real football of conference type should not miss the fracas up on the University Field.

"DO YOU REMEMBER"

The following editorial is taken from the Army of Occupation paper of a recent date. If the soldiers are subscribing 100 per cent to the Red Cross Membership Roll Call, should we do less?

"These soldiers who traveled the world over and see so much distress, pestilence, famine, wretchedness—do we remember who it was who first appeared on the scene always and began the work of feeding, nursing and caring for the sick and needy? Do we remember? We do! We all do. Let us then remember to join in this Roll Call.

"This opportunity which is offered to us is a privilege. It is not obligatory. We are under no command to give, but we shall all give."

CLUB MEETS

The Hillsboro Club met last night and adopted a new constitution and by-laws. Associate members were made eligible, and the cost of joining was placed at $2.50. This holds to employees of firms or men who are not in active business. This was incorporated because of the fact that it was not deemed advisable to ask more for this class of membership, as it would bar many. Associate members will pay the same monthly dues, however, as regular voting members.

The Girl Reserves of the High School made $7.60 by selling candy at the Liberty Theatre Tuesday night. The money will be sent to the Albertina Kerr Nursery.

The land directly north of the High School is being surveyed in to acre units, preparatory to being placed upon the market. By this method a person can obtain a tract of desired size. This is a valuable addition to the locality as the property is close in, being only six blocks from post office and court house, and only two blocks from High School. The property is particularly adapted to small suburban home tracts, and adapts itself to small fruit and chicken raising, etc. Roads are being continued on First and Third streets. In a few years this will all be developed and will support many families. It is close enough in that persons can work in town and live on the property. The land lying between the railroad and the county road has all been sold and some tracts on First street. The owners have faith in this property and are selling on very liberal terms.

Messrs. Martin Driscoll and H. L. Gardner, of Portland, have bought the H. G. Mercantile stock, on South First St., and have put in a larger stock of fancy and staple groceries. They will carry nothing but the best and sell at prices that will be money savers to you. You are invited to call and try us. Our store will be headquarters for real bargains in groceries. Telephone 2671.

The National Grange convention will close in Portland Friday. Many from Washington county attended the session, and the following were recipients of the highest degree in grandness: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harrow and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wheeler, Mrs. Wm. Hughes, Mrs. Chester Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schulmerich, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Burkhalter, Mrs. J. B. Stewart, Mrs. Alfred Morgan, A. W. Stewart, Mrs. Peter Gotlieb, Mrs. Julius Asbahr, Miss Stella Asbahr, Mrs. Otto Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Doughty.

When you want your auto repaired bring it to us. We do first class work and our charges are reasonable. We also build bodies for trucks. All kinds of accessories, tires, etc.—Albert F. Lusli, Buick service, 1048 Main Street, Hillsboro. 37-39

C. W. Triggs, of Los Angeles, arrived here last week, and is a guest of his brother, And. England, the realty dealer. He is looking over the Oregon country for his first time and says he was impelled to come here because every Oregonian he meets in Los Angeles always tells what a wonderful country we have up here, and says he is coming back to the old state. Floyd Spendlove, of Oakwood, Okla., a nephew of Mr. England, is also a guest, having arrived here the day of Mr. Triggs' arrival.

Good glasses, properly fitted, will help you to enjoy the full benefit of your eyesight. Dr. Thompson's method is to give you the double services of optometrist and practical optician at the one cost. Consult him about your eyes next visit—Tuesday, Dec. 6, Washington Hotel, until 4 o'clock p. m. 38-39

The soldiers of the American Forces in Germany started their Red Cross Roll Call Nov. 1 and closed it Armistice Day, at which time there was 100 per cent showing of support of that organization. They adopted as their slogan, "Do You Remember?"

Mrs. France and Miss Etta Napper, of Iowa, have been visiting the past week with their nieces, Mrs. Irene Lambrix and Miss Mazie Napper—and incidentally enjoying the big storm.

MONDAY'S STORM KILLS A BOY ABOVE BUXTON

Frank Atwood, Aged 16 Years,
Killed in Family Home

TREE FALLS ACROSS HOUSE

Mother Severely Injured But Will Live, Say Physicians

Monday's storm took its toll of human life in this county, when Frank Atwood, aged 16, while sleeping in the Atwood home above Buxton, was instantly killed by a tree which fell across the building.

Mrs. Atwood, the mother, was severely injured, and a younger son, who was in the house, was unscathed. He at once went to the neighbors for help, and Gust Schmidlin, Chas. Schmidlin and Fritz Brown went to the Atwood home to release the body of the dead son. While they were extracting him from under the tree a second one fell, and struck the first fallen tree, the miracle being that the three men were not killed.

The dead boy is a son of the late George Atwood, who was killed October 10, by a logging locomotive at Scofield.

Undertaker Prickett went up to the Atwood home and shipped the body to Portland to Finley's, from which place the funeral will be held the last of the week.

Dr. Via, who is attending the mother, thinks she will soon recover, but it is said she will be unable to attend the funeral.

The fatality took place about eleven o'clock Monday night.

OPEN LETTER

Judge Goodin has sent the following letter to all road foremen—
"The special tax meetings have been delayed somewhat on account of the application of a new budget law of 1921 to the special tax law under which we have been working in the districts.

Our District Attorney has put us right, however, and we have notices posted for all the meetings to be held on the 30th day of November.

We are enclosing blank affidavits and are requesting that it be signed and returned not later than the morning of December 1. We will also enclose your blank minutes to be returned at the same time. We are asking you, also, to fill out a blank which we are enclosing, giving the number of miles of road in your district, the length of the rock and gravel roads and their condition. We are also wanting the length and conditions of your bridges, and under head of "remarks" let us know if those bridges can be replaced with a pipe and filled with earth.

Last year, 47 of our road districts levied a special tax, 40 of them a ten mill tax, and while we do not expect to have them do as well this year, we are sure that many of the progressive districts will continue to levy a substantial tax until their road program is completed. Some of the districts will no doubt reduce their levies 5 mills and we would urge all of the districts to vote some for maintenance.

Taxes have reached a burdensome stage for many of our people. Our many state institutions are a credit to the state. We boast of two state colleges that will compare with those of states that are many times our population. Our elementary schools are well equipped and supported. Our courts are a necessity and are expensive. Our soldier boys and our poor and needy have to be taken care of. Now, can we do all this, and neglect our county roads?

Your special tax money goes right back into the hands of labor of your district and you can see the benefits that you are getting from it.

We are very well equipped to do road work now, and will be pleased if the districts will do what they can to help us along.

This letter was written by order of the County Court and we are asking that you give it publicity before you hold your meeting on November 30th."

TILLAMOOK ROAD IS BLOCKED BY SLIDES

Train Out of Portland Runs Only as Far as Cochrans

NO CHANCE FOR TRANSFER

Big Storm Leaves High Water in Wake—Damage to Valley Small

The big storm of Sunday and Monday, which was so disastrous over the state succeeded in tying up the P. R. & N. railway line to Tillamook, and it will be several days before the road will be opened for traffic. Passenger trains out of Portland run only as far as Cochrans, and the log hauls have practically been suspended for the time being.

Numerous slides are reported in the mountains, and it will be a day or so before officials can make any definite announcement as to when trains will operate.

Aside from minor washouts, here and there the valley suffered very little from the storm which tied up Portland. Train service was held up here at intervals, but were all operating by Tuesday, on schedule.

Tillamook reports three possible fatalities in the way of drowning. Washington county had one death due to the storm—that of Frank Atwood, of above Buxton.

SCHOLARSHIP LOAN FUND

The scholarship loan fund is one of the most beneficial undertakings of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, said Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, president and a director of the General Federation of Women's clubs, in an interview at her office at O. A. C.

"With donations annually from the various clubs of the state," said Mrs. Callahan, "this fund has now reached the sum of approximately $10,000. It is loaned without interest to young women who wish to complete their education. Many young women have been students at O. A. C. because this fund was available and have now become self-supporting members of society.

Applications for loans at present, far exceed the amount of money in the treasury. "The Oregon Federation of Women's clubs was organized in Portland in 1899, and now has a membership of 130 individual clubs, scattered over different parts of the state. These clubs have a total membership of 6000 women organized for the purpose of promoting social, civic and educational improvement in their respective communities. These clubs, however, are of more than local value, for their combined efforts bring good results to the state and the nation.

"As Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, president of the general federation, recently said: 'A women's club is a group of organized women, who can be depended upon to back every movement that makes for the betterment of that community's life. Groups of such a character are a tremendous asset to the country in a time like this, when half-fledged thought, hasty conclusions and hazy thinking are too frequent.'

"The administration of the state federation is done by means of its executive board, which carries out the plans adopted at the annual meeting. A monthly bulletin, published in Portland, by Mrs. Edith Hill, of the Oregonian, is sent to all the clubs to keep them informed of the progress of work. The plan of work conforms to that of the general federation and is carried on in six departments with divisions and committees.

"These six departments are fine arts, applied education, American citizenship public welfare legislation, and the press. Backing the state work in these departments is the general federation, which was organized in New York in 1890. It is made up of 80 state federations, which include 41,001 distinct clubs. Its total membership is now about 2,000,000. Twelve foreign countries represented by clubs are as follows: Canada, Canal Zone, China, Cuba, England, France, Hawaii, Japan, Phillipine Islands, Sweden, West Australia and West Indies.

"Both state and national federations are non-sectarian and non-political but are bi-partisan, working with both parties, supporting measures not men."

PURE BRED STOCK

Fifteen years ago one could travel far and wide in Washington county and find but a few registered or pure bred bulls at the head of herds. Today there are in Washington county 24 Guernsey breeders who have pure bred cows as well as males; 65 Jersey breeders who have pure bred females and registered bulls, and 58 Holstein breeders who have pure bred herds, male and female. Many communities have from 40 to 50 registered Holstein, Jersey and Guernsey bulls and this has given the county a fine name in breeders' circles all over the Northwest.

Breeders in the past year have sold away from the county something like $9100 worth of registered stock, principally through the county agent, who has received many inquiries from the outside.

NEW P. O. BUILDING

Senator W. D. Wood has the new post office building well under completion, and it will be ready for occupancy by the 8th of January, in accordance with the contract with Ucle Sam. The woodwork in the interior, comprising the furniture and fixtures, has a very attractive finish and looks like a million dollars. The equipment is very much superior to the present quarters, which were built in when the business of the office was not over a third of its present volume. The furniture, boxes, desk, cabinets, etc., are in fumed oak, and the quarters are a splendid addition to the business buildings of the city. There is a great deal more room than in the present post office room, and yet there will be none too much when everything is installed.

He left Monday evening for Forest Grove, and from there he makes Yamhill and Polk counties.

DAVIS NAMED RECORDER

James H. Davis, of North Plains, was named county recorder of conveyances Monday, by the county court, all members concurring. Mr. Davis succeeds F. A. Everest, who is working for the state at Salem, in one of the departments. Mr. Davis is well known, having served as recorder of conveyances for two terms prior to the election of Mr. Everest. He is well qualified to fill the position and there are many who are pleased to see the appointment.

Revival meetings will be held in the Evangelical church, Tigard, Oregon, by Evangelist F. L. Stevens, from Ohio, Nov. 23 to Dec. 4, 1921. Services every evening at 7:30. Everybody is cordially invited.
