

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor

Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second class mail matter.

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long

Eastern Oregon figures that it has driven one over on Portland. One wonders if this is because Portland helped with the insane asylum on Eastern Oregon.

The agricultural bloc in the U. S. Senate appears to be sowing some good seed, anyway.

Leonard Wood thinks the Filipinos are not ready for self-government. One is not sure of his ground, but there is a hunch hidden somewhere that some people have been saying that same thing about other people ever since Cain "sucked" Abel during that historic dispute in the suburbs of Eden. Aside from this Len doesn't care about losing his job in these reconstruction days.

You may say that you never saw clearer in your life, and doubt if your headaches are caused from your eyes, but if the headaches occur frequently you should have your eyes carefully examined to make sure. It is not poor sight that causes headaches as much as it is the extra muscular effort and nerve strain required to produce clear vision. Twenty-five years of fitting glasses correctly assure you of satisfaction. —Laurel M. Hoyt, 1147 Second Street.

C. W. Redmond, executor of the McQuillan estate, is busy this week getting in bills for supplies for the poor at Christmas time, and he says that he thinks the various women's committees ferreted out all needy cases. The expense will run well up to the $250 allotted by the testator.

The usual New Year's celebration will be held at the Heywood school house. You are asked to bring refreshments and help us fittingly to observe the last night of the year and the welcome to the new.—Committee.

The Argus wishes all a Happy New Year—and a more prosperous one than the year just closing.

H. Hartje, a Portland attorney, was in the city Saturday on legal business before Judge Bagley.

Wm. Boucsein, of above Mountaineer, was greeting friends in Hillsboro yesterday.

H. Scheurman, of Blooming, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

L. M. Hesse, of Scholls, was in the city Wednesday morning.

Jas. H. Jacobsen, of West Union, was in the city yesterday.

Bell Ringing Quartet Wins With Sweet-Toned Chimes and Melodious Song

These Four Gifted Lads Ring and Sing Their Way Into Hearts of Hearers—Carry Seventy-Five Swiss Handbells.

Here they are—four lively young Americans—the members of the Bell Ringing Male Quartet. And they are in action, too—just as they will be seen here in the near future. These young musicians are clever vocalists, also, and they sing and ring—and ring and sing—to your heart's content. They offer a program of brilliancy and snap and theirs is one of the finest novelty entertainment ever presented. Their traveling equipment consists of four well-oiled sets of vocal cords and some seventy-five sweet-toned handbells. Everywhere they have been a veritable sensation during their present tour.

AS

Our thoughts go back and take account of the factors attributable to a very pleasant and successful year of merchandising. THERE IS—like a sheen of light on a screen of memory—STANDING OUT, and valued above price, the thought that ours and our patrons' interests have been mutual. Our success we attribute OF and not FROM the people.

AND

At the approach of the New Year and all its attendant possibilities, as our minds reach out in effort to envision the future, we are made to feel deeply sensible of our responsibility to the communities we serve. We start the New Year with that thought foremost in our minds, and with a strong determination that ours shall be stores of continued mutual benefit.

We thank you and wish you all the Joys of the Season.
