HOLSTEIN MEET

The Washington County Holstein Club will hold its annual meeting at the County Agent's office, at Hillsboro, Saturday, January 7, at 10 A. M.

The purpose of the meeting is the election of officers for 1922, reports for the past year's work, and the program of the club for 1922. The club is trying to secure a good speaker for the occasion.
Holstein breeders are asked to bring their families and lunches.
An eating place will be provided in the County Agent's office.

O. T. McWhorter,
Secretary Washington County
Holstein Club.

F. E. Burtch, a Portland policeman, visited at Tigard, Saturday night, and while on the highway stopped a stolen machine driven by J. Fisk. Chas. Rovers was with Fisk, and the machine had been stolen from Eugene. Burtch entered the car when Rovers suddenly pulled a gun and covered the policeman, ordering Fisk to drive on toward Newberg. Burtch made a quick pass and jumped from the car, just as it was getting in motion. He covered the two with his revolver, forced Rovers to throw his gun out of the machine and then took the two into custody. Sheriff Alexander brought the two to Hillsboro, and a Lane county deputy took them to Eugene Sunday night. When he landed them at the station he had the two prisoners chained together. Rovers made a jerk, tore the chain from Fisk's hand, and then made his getaway. He was caught later and the thieves will be tried for the theft of the auto from a Eugene man.

Albert Tozier, of Dee, Oregon, and his sister, Mrs. Edyth Tozier Weathered, were here Sunday and Monday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Weathered. Albert came out to attend the New Year eve watch meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church and ring out the old and in the new years.
There was quite a gathering at the oldest of Hillsboro's churches, and a varied program. Tozier made one of his characteristic addresses, covering the early life of the church, detailing its first ministers, its first presiding elders, and told of many interesting incidents connected with the church organization. The speaker has been present to ring the bell at the outgoing and incoming of years for nearly a half century.

If you have any rooms that are in need of painting, papering or tinting, or any floors or borders around rugs that you would like to have stippled or grained to look like oak or walnut, or mahogany, let me know. I can match any kind of wood. If you have a piano, dining room table, or furniture of any kind I can re-finish it so it will look like new.
Workmanship second to none.—
