NOTICE

To Highway Motor Transportation Companies and Persons, and to whom it may Concern:

You and each of you are hereby notified that the law passed at the special session of the legislature providing for supervision and regulation of transportation of persons and property for compensation over public highways by motor vehicles, is now in force and effect, and you are advised to secure instructions by communicating with the commission immediately. For your reference and convenience a copy of the law is now on file with the County Clerk.

Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 31st day of December, 1921.

Public Service Commission of Oregon, by Fred A. Williams, Chairman.

Attest: Wm. P. Ellis, Secretary.

For Sale—Two thoroughbred Holstein bulls, one a yearling and one a month old; blood lines running close up to Judge Segis, the world's best bull, and in the Ormsby family. Very reasonably priced.—Josef Tannler, Sherwood R. 4; mile West of Kinton, and 4 miles South of Reedville, Ore.

Mrs. J. G. Sears spent holiday week in Portland, the guest of relatives, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee Sears were Albany visitors over Christmas and New Year's.

F. A. Northrup, of Shady Brook, was greeting friends in the city Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keehn, of Orenco, were Hillsboro callers Tuesday and made the Argus office a visit while in the city.

D. B. Reasoner, the contractor, gave the Argus a New Year's call Monday and renewed for his home paper for the 25th year.

Jos. Tannler, of near Kinton, was a city visitor the last of the week. Mr. Tannler has one of the largest herds of pure bred Holsteins in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Miltenberger, of LaFame, are here for a few days, called to Hillsboro on account of the illness of Mr. Miltenberger's mother.

Norman Greer, who has been traveling out of Medford for several years, now having headquarters in Portland, was out to Hillsboro Monday, a guest of his parents, the R. H. Greers.

Lt. H. S. Harding and wife, formerly Miss Lucy Weathered, of Bremerton, where Dr. Harding is connected with the U. S. Navy, were here Holiday week, guests of the T. S. Weathereds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Atchison, of Albany, were here Monday and Tuesday, visiting friends. W. S. says that he thinks Albany has weathered the reconstruction period equally as well as any city in the valley—but he likes the appearance of Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burri, of Portland, were here over New Year's, guests at the Clay Freeman home. Mr. Burri is traveling auditor for the S. P. & S., out of Portland.

Wayne Vaughn is at McMinnville this week, with the newly purchased Skaggs' store.

Fred Ennes, of Banks, was a city caller Saturday.

To the good Housewife--

When you can get just as good bread baked at home, why help keep up outside bakeries? We keep two or three families going in your city—and our product is sanitary and always fresh. The "taste" is the bread—not the shape of the loaf.

You are buying our pastry, and it more than gives satisfaction. Why not let us sell you our bread? We are here to stay—not to build up a trade and then sell out to inferior bakers.
