

GRANGE ANNIVERSARY

Hillsboro Grange celebrated the 48th date of its founding on Jan. 14, in connection with the regular monthly meeting. A large number of Grangers were present from different parts of the county, and did full justice to the usual bountiful Grange dinner. Installation ceremonies were held in the afternoon, worthily conducted by Mrs. Christensen, of Butte Grange, assisted by Mrs. J. C. Leedy.

The following officers were installed for the ensuing year: Master, George Harrow; Overseer, Mrs. Lena Stewart; Lecturer, Mrs. Kate Burkhalter; Steward, R. B. Collins; Asst. Steward, Geo. Doughty; Chaplain, Mrs. Lizzie Wohler; Treas., J. W. Shute; Sec. Mrs. Mary Shute; Gatekeeper, John Nelson; Ceres, Miss Lolita Francis; Pomona, Miss Ida Francis; Flora, Miss Agnes Fuller; Lady Asst. Steward, Miss Mary Harrow.

An interesting program was given as follows: Address, Master Geo. Harrow; song, Mrs. F. Caldwell and children; address, State Master G. E. Spence; song, "Oregon 1925," Nathan Weston; recitation, Ida Francis; song, David Samuels; address, J. C. Leedy; song, Mrs. Samuels; music, Helen Stewart.

Only two of the charter members of Hillsboro Grange are living, Mr. James Gibson and wife, now residing at Woodburn, Ore. Three members of long standing residing at Hillsboro are J. W. Shute and J. A. Imbrie and wife. The Grange begins the new year with plans for an interesting and profitable program of work. Pomona Grange will be held at Beaverton, Wednesday, January 25.

USED CAR SHOW

WEEK OF JAN. 23-28TH

COLD WAVE

The last two or three days mercury has been hovering around 14 and 16 above in Washington county, according to locality. Here in Hillsboro the range has been from 16 to 20 above. Up in the Walla-wa country, Eastern Oregon, it has been 40 below zero—some cold.

Richard Beamish, of Cedar Mill, was up to the city Tuesday.

Ralph Withycombe, of South Tualatin, was a city caller Monday.

Frank Sholes, of the Cornhus State Bank, was a city caller Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Jackson, of North Plains, were Hillsboro visitors Friday.

Frank Cole and Neva West, of Sherwood, were married at Vancouver, Wn., Monday.

Peter Boscov returned the first of the week from an extended visit with his daughter, Mrs. D. P. Patterson, of Dallas.

Lutheran services next Sunday at 2 p. m., at the United Evangelical church, on Third Street. Sunday School at 1:30.—P. H. Schaus, pastor.

Lester, Couture and Thos. Tobin, of Portland, were in the city Tuesday, billing the big Elks' attraction which will play at the Liberty, Feb. 1 and 2.

For Sale—Registered large type Poland China pigs, 2 sows, 3 boars, 9 weeks old; also 2 boars 9 months old.—Harold Whitley, Forest Grove. On H. F. Gordon place. 46-48

ONION MEETINGS

Onion growers' meetings have been arranged by J. C. Leedy and County Agent McWhorter as follows:

Jan. 27th—Sherwood Grange Hall, 1:30 p. m. Same day, 8 p. m. Kinton school house.

Jan. 28th—McAfee Hall, at Tualatin, 1:30 p. m. Mulloy Hall at 8 p. m.

Prof. H. P. Barss, Plant Pathologist of the Oregon Agricultural College, and Prof. A. L. Lovett, Entomologist, will discuss diseases and insect pests of onions, featuring especially onion smut and root maggots.

Under the direction of the Farm Bureau, J. C. Leedy and Prof. Barss, this past year onion smut control demonstrations were carried on in the county, and the same area the untreated rows yielded as low as 56 sacks per acre, while areas treated with formaldehyde yielded as high as 110½ sacks per acre.

Full discussions of these subjects as well as root maggot control will be held at each meeting listed above.

—County Agent's Office.

P. U. GETS FEATURE

Miss MacLaren, noted dramatist, will appear at Forest Grove, under the auspices of Pacific University, Jan. 26, and stage a play, representing several characters. She has a national reputation for cleverness and has given renditions of as high as twelve characters in one play. She is an artist of rare ability, and will appear at the Heilig after visiting Forest Grove. Lovers of dramatic art will have a chance to hear the most noted histrionic interpreter that has ever visited the coast.
