SURPRISE

The many friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kamna tendered them a surprise at their home, Wednesday evening, Jan. 11, the occasion being the birth anniversary of both.

Music, games and cards provided diversion for the evening. Several pretty songs were rendered by Miss Rose McCormick and Edgar Kamna, with Miss Lucille Kamna as piano accompanist.

At midnight refreshments were served, after which the guests departed, wishing host and hostess many more happy birthdays.

Those present were: Host and hostess, Messrs. and Mesdames C. Rehse, H. W. Steinkamp, E. Rehse, H. Kamna, E. Kraus, F. Schumacher, E. Donelson, W. Hanse, W. Jacobsen, C. Krahmer, F. Schoen, J. Freudenthal, H. Voges and B. Menkins, Mrs. Gates, the Misses Lucille, Arline and Annie Kamna, Bertha Rehse, Rose McCormick, Esther Schoen, Dorothy Steinke, Evelyn Schumacher, Mildred Donelson and Melba Kraus, Messrs. Edgar and John Kamna, Herman Rehse, Otto and Carl Voges, Erman Horstman, Fred Lepschat, Herman Freudenthal, Melvin and Loren Rehse, Albert and Willie Menkins.

LOCAL PLAY

The play, "Among the Breakers," presented by the Hillsboro Dramatic Club, at the Liberty, last Thursday night, was well attended and very much enjoyed.

Irvin Johnson and Margaret Barr played their Irish love role in fine shape. Lillian Schmidt, as the beautiful Minnie Pace, and Earl Bowman, as the versatile "Paraphraser," plus Gerald Barr, the negro, kept the audience in an uproar during the greater part of the performance. Ruth Holmes, the sea nymph, played opposite Lloyd Reese, the practical lover, and they pleased the audience at every appearance. Len B. Fishback, Martha James and Robert Kelly took the heavier lines of the play in a very able and creditable manner.

BENEFIT BAND DANCE

The Hillsboro Military Band expects a big crowd at its benefit dance at the Auditorium Saturday night, Jan. 21. Berst's orchestra of seven pieces will furnish the music, and everything will be done to give attendants the worth of their money. The band is now doing nicely and new members are being added weekly. Give the boys your support for a ticket, whether you attend or not. It is up to Hillsboro to support a band organization and here is the opportunity.

George Zimmerman, of above Forest Grove, was in town Saturday, greeting friends.

Fred Goetzke, of above Blooming, was a Hillsboro caller Monday afternoon.

Clell B. Carstens, L. J. Creps and John Friday, of Banks, were in town Monday.

To the good Housewife—

When you can get just as good bread baked at home, why help keep up outside bakeries? We keep two or three families going in your city—and our product is sanitary and always fresh. The "taste" is the bread—not the shape of the loaf.

You are buying our pastry, and it more than gives satisfaction. Why not let us sell you our bread? We are here to stay—not to build up a trade and then sell out to inferior bakers.

"BUCKING THE LINE"

The following resolution was adopted by the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce, at its Third Annual Convention, which convened in Portland recently:

"Whereas, our present policy of Federal taxation has undergone a most radical change from that of indirect to direct taxation, and

Whereas, such change has resulted in chief reliance being had upon a graduated scale of taxation upon income that levies high rates upon those of large income, and

Whereas, by reason of such rates there is a constantly increasing volume of capital being invested in and diverted into non-taxable securities of the Federal, state and minor subdivisions of government and instrumentalities of government, and

Whereas, the investment and diversion of such capital has proved a serious handicap to productive enterprise and has given to such exempted securities an unfair competitive advantage in the markets for capital, and

Whereas, such investment on the part of those of large income serves to exempt them from the payment of taxes they otherwise would be obliged to pay, and

Whereas, there is thereby necessarily imposed upon those who cannot benefit by such exemption an unfair burden of taxation.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce in third annual convention assembled, that it recommends that necessary corrective legislation be provided to remove the present inequitable burden of taxation and to make all income from whatever source and in whatever form bear its just proportion of the cost of government and remove the discrimination now prevailing between securities of government and those of private enterprise, and

Be it Further Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the secretary of each member of Congress from Oregon."
