

WIDOW OF HILLSBORO STATESMAN IS DEAD

Mrs. E. M. Tongue Passed Away in Portland, Tuesday Morning

DIED OF HEART TROUBLE

Was Married to Late Congressman Tongue in 1869

Mrs. Emily Margaret Tongue, widow of the late Congressman Thos. H. Tongue, of Hillsboro, died at her home in the Wickham Apartments, Portland, on Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock, February 21, 1922, after an illness of a few weeks. Mrs. Tongue was stricken with heart trouble about three weeks ago, but apparently had recovered sufficiently to be pronounced out of danger.

Mrs. Tongue was born near Terre Haute, Indiana, Dec. 5, 1848, the daughter of the late George and Mary Elliott Eagleton. Her parents came to Oregon thirteen years later making the trip via the Isthmus of Panama to San Francisco, and then overland to Oregon. They arrived in Portland in July, 1861, and lived there two years when they moved to Hillsboro.

On December 25, 1869, she was united in marriage to Thos. H. Tongue, who was destined to become one of Oregon's leading lawyers and later a state senator, and who served as Oregon's congressman from this district several terms, dying in Washington, D. C., January 11, 1903.

Eight children were born to the union, two of whom are dead—Edwin T. passing in infancy, and Mrs. Edith T. Reames, wife of A. E. Reames, of Medford, who died in August, 1919.

Seven years after the death of her husband Mrs. Tongue moved to Portland, making that city her home until her demise.

Her surviving children are: E. B. Tongue, district attorney for Washington county, Hillsboro; Thos. H. Tongue Jr., attorney, and chairman of the state Republican central committee, Hillsboro; Mrs. Mary Lombard, Portland; Miss Bertha Tongue, Portland; Mrs. Elizabeth Fey, wife of F. E. Fey, Seattle, Wn., and Mrs. Florence Munger of Portland.

Of her immediate family Mrs. Tongue is survived by two sisters and a brother—Mrs. M. M. Pittenger, of Hillsboro; Mrs. J. D. Merryman, of Klamath Falls, and Asa Eagleton, for many years connected with the U. S. Customs office in Portland.

The funeral took place this afternoon from the home of her son, E. B. Tongue, at 2:30 o'clock, and interment was in the family lot, by the side of her husband, adjoining the Hillsboro cemetery.

Mrs. Tongue was a womanly woman, and was held in high esteem by a large circle of pioneer friends all over the district. She was a loving wife and devoted mother, and her death is a genuine loss to the community.

CIRCUIT COURT

Mary L. Conley was last Saturday granted a divorce from Wm. M. Conley.

Mrs. Lula B. Jackson was given an absolute decree of divorce from Loren P. Jackson, the plaintiff to get 29.56 acres of land in fee simple as her portion of the real estate. She also gets one-half of the personal property aside from several specifications. Each party must pay the costs accrued to her or his case. The decree was based upon findings of cruel and inhuman treatment. The property rights were practically agreed upon before trial and the defense made no appearance except by stipulation.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The basketball girls have been selling candy to help raise money for their trip to Corvallis, February 24. The girls team will play the O. A. C. Rookeries, Friday afternoon, at Corvallis. This trip is an annual event and affords an opportunity for the girls to get a glimpse of college life.

Mr. Barnes is out of school for a short time with an attack of la grippe.

Mr. Goodman called a meeting of all boys interested in baseball and track last Tuesday. Baseball will be given more support this year than it has had for some time, on account of the Athletic Fund being in such good health.

WELFARE CLUB

Mrs. J. T. Anderson and Claud Cook entertained the Farmington Welfare Club at the home of the former, Feb. 16, in the afternoon. After the regular business was concluded a delightful luncheon was served. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson were elected club members. Mrs. Wm. Stevens, of Laurel, was a visitor. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. L. Kraus, March 2.

The entertainment given by the club was well attended by an appreciative audience. The lunch counter, candy booth and fish pond were well patronized, the net proceeds being $49.38, which goes to the piano fund.

For Sale—One acre in North Hillsboro; six-room house, city water, garage or work shop, chicken house, fruit and berries of all kinds. Price is right, with terms.—P. O. Box No. 10, Hillsboro, Ore. 51

HOLSTEIN MEN GET INTO ACTION FOR 1922

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS MAKE PLANS FOR YEAR

Twenty Have Session in Hillsboro Last Saturday and Form Program

WILL GIVE SILVER CUPS

Committee is Appointed to Encourage Boys' and Girls' Clubs
Twenty supporters of Holstein breeding met in Hillsboro last Saturday upon call of W. N. Hathorn, of Laurel, president of the Washington County Holstein Club. The completion of plans in support of the Boys' and Girls' Holstein Calf Clubs occupied a greater part of the time of the meeting and the Club voted to award a suitable silver cup as a trophy to the winner in Holstein classes of the club work at the Banks Hog and Dairy Show, and at the Scholls Community Fair.

It was provided, however, that both cups cannot be awarded the same party at both the shows. A championship banner will be given the championship winner at both of the shows.

A committee from the various communities was appointed by the chairman to encourage Holstein Boys' and Girls' Clubs in the county as follows:

Arthur D. Hill, Laurel; Thos. Carmichael, of Gaston; Frank Connell, of North Plains; J. W. Martin, Forest Grove; J. P. Vanderveer, Verboort; Robert Warrens, Watts, on Gales Creek; Chas. J. Herb, Roy; S. C. Inkley, of Banks, and Grant Brown, of Reedville.

W. N. Hathorn announced that a Holstein club of six members had been organized at Laurel.

New members elected to the Washington County Holstein Club are Grant Brown, Reedville; Wm. Joos, of North Plains, and John Lindow, of Farmington.

Oscar L. Dunlap, secretary of the Oregon Holstein Breeders, appeared before the club and discussed several important subjects, and Wm. Schulmerich discussed and approved of co-operative ownership of proven herd sires.

COUNTY COUNCIL

The County Council of the American Legion met at Banks, Monday night of this week. A large delegation of members and delegates from the different Posts of the county were present.

The constitution as presented was accepted with a few minor changes, and other pressing business was transacted. The County Council will bring about a closer co-operation of the Posts of the county and a stronger co-ordination of action, an intermingling of members and a better understanding and realization of the ex-service men's needs. Each Post of the county is represented and each has the same power and representation, regardless of the numbers of members in each Post.

A survey of the ex-service men of the county is to be made, and every ex-service man who has not received his compensation, medical care or bonus, will be aided in getting justice. Every effort will be made to see that the disabled veteran shall be cared for as justice dictates. The Legion will appreciate any information pertaining to these matters as regards any ex-service man.

An employment bureau will be established and a concerted action will be made to place every unemployed ex-service man.

After adjournment the Legionaires hugely enjoyed several wrestling and boxing bouts arranged by the Banks Post. Following this they all joined the "Chow Line" for cats. And they say that Banks surely has come unusually fine talent for Mess Sergeants. Banks has an enviable reputation as royal hosts.

D. L. Smith, of above Banks, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Peter Riedwig, of Orenco, was a city caller Saturday.

B. J. Pranger, of Leisy, Ore., was an Argus caller Saturday.

Nick Schmidt, of near Centerville was a city caller Friday afternoon.

F. N. Bellinger, of North Forest Grove, was in the city Monday morning.

Geo. Laemeran, of above Banks, was in the city the last of the week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Carstens, of Portland, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Saunders, of Bethany, were Hillsboro callers the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Loushin, of Orenco, lost their three months' old son, Jack Junior, Feb. 13, 1922.

O. Phelps, of the Liberty Theatre, is convalescing nicely and took his first trip down stairs Monday morning.

For Sale—Red clover seed, re-cleaned.—Nick Schmidt, Cornelius, Ore., R. 1, or call, telephone Hillsboro 8R5. 51-1

C. B. Taylor, of near Roy, was in the city Friday, returning from the trial of C. W. Purdin, which was held last week.

For Sale—One 1920 Dodge screened delivery car; five good cord tires.—Call, City Market & Grocery, Hillsboro. 51-1

Anton Meuwissen, of near Roy, was a city caller Monday afternoon. While in the city he made his annual call on the religious weekly.

Erwin Ritter, of Bethany, was in the city Monday. He returned home via Portland, where he visited his wife, who is temporarily in one of the hospitals.

Christian Science Society, at Grange Hall, Main St.—Sunday School, 10 a. m.; morning service, 11 a. m.; subject, "Christ Jesus." Wednesday evening service at 8.

Mrs. Lavina Hanson, alleged to reside at or near Forest Grove, was given 120 days for shoplifting in Portland. The theft was made at the Meier & Frank store, and took place last Saturday.

The Durrant Motor Co., of Los Angeles, Cal., announces that it will on March 9, have an exhibition at Washington, D. C., a motor car, five-passenger, which will retail at $348. Henry Ford, take notice!

Circuit Judge Geo. R. Bagley has been confined to his home since the latter part of the week with an attack of the prevalent la grippe. He is on the mend, but will not be out for a few days.

T. L. Samuels, of the Maples, on West Baseline, was in the city Saturday. Samuels is rather inclined to be peeved because he didn't put in more onions last season, as he sold what he had the other day at seven bucks per sack.

Examine closely into Dr. Thompson's method of eye examinations and you will readily see why you can find comfort and satisfaction here, when, possibly, you have failed to do so elsewhere. Consult him next visit, Wednesday, March 8, Washington Hotel until 4 p. m. 52

Edw. Schulmerich has sued L. B. McKeever, Geo. Morrill and R. E. McKeever for $600 damages, the result of the auto-truck accident Dec. 17, near Rock Creek, when the Schulmerich Franklin ran into the truck on the highway. The complaint sets forth that the auto-truck had no lights, front or rear. He asks for $500 damages to the Franklin and $150 cash for the non-use of the car. R. E. McKeever, a minor, was the driver and he was working for McKeever & Morrill.

The young people of the Lutheran church, of Cornelius, enjoyed a fine Valentine party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bunning, of that city. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and games and a general good time was indulged until a late hour. A delicious luncheon was served at the close. Those present were Anna Schub, Bertha Lesser, Caroline Renner, Elizabeth and Marie Surtzer, Rita Bunning, Emma, Elsie and Frieda Holzmeier, Elizabeth Rittbaler, Myra Prickett, Orval Bailey, Albert Henderling, Philip Rittbaler, John Renner, John, Otto and Walter Oppenlander, John Jacobsmuhler, Ted Wilkins, Arno Lesser, Henry Holzmeier, Mr. and Mrs. C. Follett, Mr. and Mrs. H. Jacobsmuhler and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hulsman.—Com.

MURDER JURY GETS TO A SURE HALT

Out Twenty-four Hours and Discharged by Judge Morrow

ANOTHER TRIAL STARTED

Reliably Reported That Last Week's Jury was 9-3 Acquittal

The jury which tried Chas. Wesley Purdin for killing his wife, Mrs. Agnes Purdin, was discharged last Friday evening by Judge Morrow, after the body reported that no chance existed for agreement. It is understood that the jury stood nine for conviction and three for three for acquittal.

The defense of Purdin that the shot which killed his wife was accidental appears to have found lodgment in the judgment of the majority of the jury. His testimony was that when he went home and found his ex-wife with Howard Sigby, he broke into the room and a struggle ensued. He swore that in the struggle between the defendant and Sigby the revolver (which was Mrs. Purdin's, and which had been at the house during Purdin's absence) was discharged and the bullet resulted in her death. After Mrs. Purdin fell, the defendant said he remembered nothing until Sigby was also dead. He then attempted to kill himself, but failed, being found before the gas fumes ended his life.

A new trial was started Tuesday and a jury selected. After being sworn the jury went out to East Portland and viewed the premises at East Forty-seventh street.

The trial was laid over yesterday because the day was non-judicial. Five women are on the present jury, and the twelve who hold his fate in their hands are Mrs. Laura VanBrunt, Mrs. Eleanor T. Colwell, Mrs. Alice Ryder, Mrs. Nettie Updegraff, Mrs. Mattie Sleeth, wife of a minister; Ross, R. Sibley, Walter R. Wilson, Allen F. Green, Fred Krueger, Newell A. Wiley Willis W. Rickman and John F. Wilson.
