THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long

It appears that the Pacific treaty will be ratified with, perhaps, a vote or so to spare. This is as it should be. Statesmen who stand in the way of honest and earnest endeavor to procure peace should be defeated when they before the people for election.

The Modern Woodmen had a well-attended meeting Monday evening, and made preliminary arrangements for a Camp in Hillsboro sometime during April. From the "spirit" manifested, they will no doubt go some. There is to be a big class initiation of Modern Woodmen in Portland the night of March 31, and Hillsboro candidates and old members have made arrangements to attend. A livestock insurance agent passed thru Hillsboro Monday and stated that he had insured a goat in Portland Sunday for $500. Evidently the Portland Camps are not taking any chances on their goat.—Cor.

ST. PATRICK PARTY

On Friday, March 17, the High School Girl Reserves entertained the Hillsboro boys by a dancing party at Legion Hall. The hall was cleverly decorated in green and looked very appropriate for the occasion. The evening was opened by dancing "pop-goes-the-weasel" and "Virginia Reel," in which every one took part. This was followed by the more modern dances, to the music of a virola. Those who did not wish to dance eagerly joined in the games in the next room. Partners for supper were chosen by matching St. Patrick post cards.

There were over sixty people present. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Goodman, Miss McNeil, Miss Ellinghuven and Miss Coleman. All that were present certainly enjoyed a good time. "Other good times will soon be here; St. Patrick's Day comes but once a year."—F. K. "23."

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Weathered has returned to her school duties, after a two-weeks' illness.

Friday, March 24, at 8 p. m., "The Elopement of Ellen" will be given in the High School auditorium. This play is a three-act farce and was given last year to the senior class with great success. Miss Weathered, who has coached many successful plays in the past for Hilli, is piloting "The Elopement of Ellen."

The Philolexian Society gave the student body a varied program of songs, dances and monologues, on St. Patrick's Day. The first baseball practice was held Monday. Manager Linklater has a number of good games slated.

Supt. Barnes attended a superintendents' meeting at Albany Tuesday.

For Sale—Large number transplanted and not transplanted plants—tomatoes, cabbage, early second early and late; cauliflower, early and late; head lettuce during April and May. Fine flower bedding plants. All very strong and healthy plants.—Henry Freitag, Holbrook, Ore.

Burglars entered houses at Forest Grove, Tuesday night, and from all indications he was a one-legged chap. He got several dollars from Dr. Hawke and L. M. Graham; a $50 purse and $4 from Mrs. E. A. Lewis. He also got a purse with 400 pennies in it from H. J. Wright. The coppers made him sore, evidently, for he ditched purse and all.

Mrs. Elizabeth Allman, widow of the late Thos. Allman, died at Cathlamet, Wa., March 17, 1922, and the remains were brought to Hillsboro for interment by the side of her husband, who died about a month ago. Mrs. Allman was born in 1838, and had lived for over 20 years at Cathlamet, where her husband was county surveyor. Prior to that time the Allmans lived near Reedville. The funeral took place here Monday, with a service at the grave by Rev. H. A. Deck. Interment was under the direction of Glenn F. Bell.
