

Of course it is somewhat paradoxical, but did you ever notice that the man who takes himself ever so seriously is, as a rule, not taken seriously by his fellows?

Cory Thornless Blackberry—new wonder—Berries often measure 2½ inches in length. Have a small core and are almost seedless. The flavor is like the wild berry, but they are richer and sweeter than other black berries, yet are said to make the finest of jelly. Be sure and give this berry a trial. Prices, each, postpaid, 25 cents; 12 for $2.50.—C. F. Peterson, Hillsboro, Ore. R. 4. 6-8

R. P. Wirtz, of Forest Grove, where he has presided as postmaster several years, was down to the city yesterday, arranging details for the big Pythian district convention which is to be staged here Saturday evening, May 6.

For Sale—Registered Jersey bull, 9 months' old; from the Poppy's St. Maves' strain. This calf has been raised right and has good size. Will sell reasonable, or trade for a good handy horse.—H. D. Ledford, Forest Grove, Oregon, Route 1; near Watt's school. 8-9

Ralph Pointer and A. Benz, of Portland mountain, on the old-time thoroughfare between here and Portland, were in the city yesterday morning.

Want to trade a 5-year-old Jersey cow for a good useful horse, no less than 1200 lbs. Must be sound in wind and limb and 7 to 9 years old.—Chas. Mott, Hillsboro, Route 2; due south of Hillsboro on plain south of river. 9

Free Methodist Church, Rev. J. G. Hessler, pastor—Sunday School begins at 10 a. m. and the morning service at 11 o'clock. There will be no service in the evening on account of the illness of the pastor.

New arrests—Irving White, a young chauffeur, is out on $1,000 bail, the charge being statutory rape; J. T. Scholz, of Portland, was taken in for having no license plate on his car; E. H. St. John was fined $75, yesterday, the counts being no license, no chauffeur license, no operator's license, and overloading. He paid. Earl Coffman was arrested near the tunnel, on the Tillamook line, the last of the week, charged with moonshining. A still and some moon were captured. Stockdale and Stockdale made the arrest. Claude Lawyer was fined $20 for speeding. He is a logger, and went back to work after his court experience.

The opening dance of the 1922 season under municipal direction was held at the auditorium last Saturday evening, with over 300 numbers on the list. The Hobbs-Malthouse orchestra of ten pieces furnished the music, and it was the finest ever heard here at a like function. The affairs will be held every Saturday. Many people were here from Portland and Vancouver, and a considerable support is expected from those quarters. Local people should give these affairs a greater support. The same orchestra will be held for the season.

Wallace P. Hills, retired farmer, died at his home on Route 1, Hillsboro, April 26, 1922. He was born October 9, 1836, and at death was aged 85 years, 6 months and 17 days. He had lived here seven years. He is survived by three sons, E. C. Hills, Hillsboro; C. W. Hills, Colorado, and A. A. Hills, Kansas, and a daughter, Mrs. Olive Jones, of Iowa. The funeral took place at 10:30 this morning from the Bell chapel and the remains were conveyed to LaFayette for interment. H. A. Deck conducted the service. Mrs. Hills has been dead some years.

John Dooley, of Banks, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday.

Will person who has Washington County Trophy Cup please return to Argus office, as it has no saleable value. No questions asked.

Breaks Record

Portland and San Francisco

A stock car owned by Benjamin Koe, a Chinaman of Astoria, made the trip in 23 hours and 51 minutes, lowering the time long standing of 29 hours and 17 minutes, held by a car costing 2½ times more than the DORT. This DORT is only one of the entire number that will do the same stunt. Come in, or call up, and we will prove DORT's quality to you by what it will do on the road.
