THE HILLSBORO ARGUS

County Official Paper

L. A. Long, Editor

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long

Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second class mail matter.

In the death of E. L. Abbott Hillsboro loses a citizen who was imbued with the spirit of perfect fairness in all things. His devotion to principle, his love of fair play and his conception of elemental justice was such that he was esteemed by all who knew him as a splendid citizen, and a loving and devoted husband and father.

"PAULINE" AT SCHOLLS

"Pauline, the Belle of Saratoga," is the attractive and interesting title of the 2-act Operetta to be presented by the Whitford Chorus, at Scholls Grange Hall, Saturday evening, May 13, at 8 p. m. The chorus has been loudly applauded in this section of the county for their excellent work in this production. At Whitford, where they gave their first performance, they played to a capacity house and turned many away when standing room was exhausted. Miss Leilah Fitzloff, of Portland, is director of the chorus and also takes a leading role in the operetta. The production comes to Scholls under the auspices of the Scholls Organ Fund Committee and their prorata of the receipts for the evening will be applied on the organ fund. It is hoped that we have a capacity house at Scholls also. The Misses Nellie Moore and Olive Bennett are in charge of a home-made candy booth at the hall that evening and the ladies trust that you will bring your sweet tooth along. Correspondent.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Owing to the fact that only one name will appear as Representative on the regular printed ballot at the coming primaries we would suggest that the name of L. M. Hesse be written on the ballot for Representative for Washington County. We have known Mr. Hesse for many years. He was born in Washington County, and we have known him to be absolutely honest and reliable, a thorough business man and a convincing and forceful speaker. We believe that he is the most capable man Republicans of the county can place on the ticket for Representative.

PETERSON TO RUN

Many friends from all over the county have insisted that H. C. Peterson, of Peterson Bros., Hillsboro, permit his name to be written in on the Republican primary ballot as Representative. Mr. Peterson is a practical business man and his friends insist that if nominated and elected he will make good. He is a member of the Washington County Automotive Ass'n. and the boys are boosting for him.

VOTERS

Republicans and Democrats: I want your votes. Write in my name for Representative of Washington County, at the primaries, May 19. The greatest difference between the two parties is the name. I think as a native of Washington County, I can faithfully represent both. Give me a boost.

CONCERT

The public is invited to attend a concert at the Forest Grove Cong. church, Wednesday evening, May 17, beginning at 8 o'clock. The choir will be assisted by Miss Dorothy Tuogue, violinist, of Hillsboro; Mrs. Jean Pearce, soloist, and a chorus of 75 children. Russell Ellis Beals will give a pipe organ number and it will be the musical event of the season. Dorothy Tuogue's number will be a Sonata by Moskowski.

FOR CO. COMMISSIONER

The undersigned hereby announces himself as a candidate for County Commissioner before the Republican voters at the primaries, May 19, 1922.

If nominated and elected, I pledge myself to work for an economical administration, for all possible reduction of taxes consistent with good business, and will give a square deal and impartiality to all.

HON. WILL E. HAYS

EX-CHAIRMAN, REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE

TELEGRAPHS

RALPH E. WILLIAMS

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAM

A152NY 93 Blue

Fi New York NY 1205P May 5 1922

Ralph E. Williams,

Republican National Committee-man, Portland, Oregon.

Mutual friends have told me that you are a candidate for re-election as Republican National Committeeman this year, and I am constrained to send just this word of appreciation for your splendid service on the committee all the time that I was chairman.

Your election as vice-chairman of the national committee was the fullest possible evidence of the committee's gratitude to you and their confidence in your great future usefulness to the committee and to the party. In this I join most heartily. Kindest regards and best wishes always.

WILL H. HAYS.

RALPH E. WILLIAMS

Vice-Chairman

Republican National Committee

VOTE X 13

EDITORIAL FROM THE MORNING OREGONIAN

MR. WILLIAMS FOR COMMITTEEMAN

Will H. Hays, who but lately retired as chairman of the republican national committee, pays tribute in a telegram to the service performed to the republican party by the committeeman for Oregon, Ralph E. Williams. Mr. Hays should know. His testimony may be accepted as something more than a mere polite and formal expression of approval, to be expected from one member of the organization for another; for it is supported by the entire committee, which, not many months ago, by unanimous vote of the representatives of forty-eight states elected Mr. Williams vice-chairman. He is the oldest member in point of service, and it is obvious—it is not denied by anyone—that his standing with the heads of the republican party is very high.

The national committeeman as a party job. It pays nothing in salary, but it carries many responsibilities, and calls for work. Its rewards are, of course, recognition of leadership, and the prestige and influence that go with it. Mr. Williams has been the committeeman for Oregon for fourteen years, and is a candidate for re-election. There is no good reason why he should not be re-elected; there are good reasons why he should be, the most obvious and unanswerable of which is that he has a high place with the committee, is on terms of intimacy and confidence with the national leaders of the republican party, is in line for the national chairmanship, and can, and doubtless will, perform service which no new man, whatever his qualifications, can possibly perform.

The Oregonian is reluctant to interfere in the contest for national committeeman; but the advantages to the republican party in Oregon of Mr. Williams' election are so plain that it feels that it should point them out.
