Frank Schulmerich, of Farm-ington, was in town Saturday.

Wm. Alexander, who recently returned from a trip to Wisconsin, sent a postal card West while visiting at his home town, and on the picture, which was a snap shot of the town, which is practically half as large as Hillsboro, there is not a single automobile showing. Bill says they have them there, but not as numerous as out here, and tractors are hard-ly known there, excepting on the larger farms in the grain district.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express appreciation to our friends for their aid and sympathy during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of our husband and father, the late F. M. Keenon, and return thanks for the beautiful flowers.

Mrs. F. M. Keenon and Children.
North Plains, May 31, 1922.

Mrs. Clell Carstens and Miss Bledsoe, of Banks, were Hillsboro visitors Friday.

John Schlegel, of Banks, who has been spending the most of his time over at Woodburn for several years, was a Hillsboro visitor yesterday.

Farm Wanted—Want to hear from owner of a farm for sale. Give lowest price and full particulars.—L. Jones, Box 551, Olney, Illinois.

Women want work, any kind, day, hour or week. Experience in taking care of confinements.—Address Leona Rocky, Hillsboro, Oregon. 12-15

Pete Wagner, who has sold Oregonians for many years, traveling all over the state, was in the city yesterday. J. P. is an old time Forest Groveite, and he always likes to visit Hillsboro.

Wm. Hendricks, of beyond Leysville, was a city caller yesterday. He reports that the warm winds of the first of the week were not the best for growing crops.

A. Welch, who has gone to the bad, liabilities over assets in the sum of over $200,000, has filed a petition in the federal court for bankruptcy proceedings. He names as one of his creditors the Linklater estate of this city, in the sum of $7,000 in the alleged secured list. Welch at one time had possession of the local water and light plant, and sold to the North Coast Power Co. Welch left his "touch" all over the north-west, and the bankruptcy proceedings have been expected for many months—in fact, it is belated several years. The gentleman appears to have caught to disadvantage every person who "played his game."

WOOD BIDS WANTED

Bills will be received for furnishing wood for the Oreno public school as follows—10 cords, first growth fir, 4 ft.; and 10 cords oak, 4 ft., not less than 4 inches in diameter; same to be delivered to Oreno, on board cars, or direct to school house, Sept. 1 to 15. Bids must be in by June 10. Address, A. L. Ferrington, Clerk, District No. 38, 12-14 Oreno, Ore.

WITHOUT STREET ADDRESS YOUR MAIL IS DELAYED AT OFFICE OF DELIVERY

The Dead Letter Office has been in existence ever since Ben Franklin started our postal service. Even then people addressed mail to Mr. Ezekiel Smithers, "Atlantic Coast," and expected Ben to know just where Zeke lived.

Perhaps they had Zeke's address in letters up in the garret, maybe a chest full of 'em, but then it was easier to let Ben hunt Zeke. Today people are addressing letters to John Smith, New York, N. Y., or Chicago, Ill., thinking Uncle Sam can locate him, which is just as incomplete as was Zeke's address of yore. The Postoffice Department asks you to put the number and street in the address. It helps you.

Trinidad Col.

How do you expect the Postal Clerk to know whether you mean Trinidad, California, or Trinidad, Colorado? ALWAYS SPELL OUT THE NAME OF THE STATE IN FULL IN THE ADDRESS.

"MORE BUSINESS IN GOVERNMENT"

This apt phrase was used in President Harding's first message to Congress and applies particularly in postal management where postmasters are being impressed with the fact that they are managers of local branches of the biggest business in the world.

HERE COMES A STRANGER!

Let's make our post office look neat. Mr. Postmaster. Straighten up the rural letter box, Mr. Farmer. Tidy up some, Mr. Rural Carrier. First impressions are lasting. Maybe Mr. Stranger, taking notice of these improvements, will come back, bringing you benefits. Start these with "POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK" May 16.

HUMANIZING THE POSTAL SERVICE

"There is no unimportant person or part of our service. It is a total of human units and their co-operation is the key to its success. In its last analysis, postal duties are accommodations performed for our neighbors and friends and should be so regarded, rather than as a hired service performed for an absentee employer."—Postmaster General Hubert Work.
