

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Washington.

Walter W. Skilling, Plaintiff, vs.

Bonita M. Skilling, Defendant.

To Bonita M. Skilling, the above named Defendant.

In the Name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause, on or before the 9th day of June, 1922, said date being after the expiration of six weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this summons; and if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, for the want thereof, Plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to-wit: 1. That Plaintiff have a decree of absolute divorce from the Defendant, and, (2) That the custody of the minor child of Plaintiff and Defendant, to-wit: Arbutus Skilling, aged five years, be awarded to Plaintiff and for such other relief as to the court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is published by order of the Hon. Geo. R. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled court, which order was made and entered on the 25th day of April, 1922, and the time prescribed for publication thereof is six weeks, beginning with the issue of April 27, 1922, and continuing each week thereafter, to and including the issue of June 8, 1922.

J. R. GREENFIELD, Attorney for Plaintiff, 404 Consolidated Securities Building, Portland, Oregon.

HOWE'S LONDON CIRCUS

The menagerie connected with Howe's Great London Circus with VanAmberg's Trained Wild Animals, exhibiting in Hillsboro, afternoon and evening, on Tuesday, June 13, is the magnificent result of many years of continuous expeditions to forests and jungles of every clime, involving vast expenditures, yet forms but one department of this "World's Wonder Show," as it has been appropriately styled, included in the price of one admission ticket—fifty cents.

Parents should consider taking their children an imperative and delightful duty, giving as it does, an opportunity of studying the most complete and comprehensive animal revue ever assembled. Opening the program in the mammoth main tent is "Cinderella in Jungleland," an extravaganza which introduces hundreds of people and scores of wild animal actors. Appropriate music, scenic and lighting effects are used, while the wardrobe and trappings represent a fabulous investment.

Then, in quick succession, come a myriad of amazing and devilish demonstrations of the power of the human mind over the brute, by the greatest and most fearless trainers known to international fame, both male and female, in which they subdue and subjugate the most blood-thirsty and ferocious man-killing monsters with utter disregard of danger. Colossal catenaries of elephants, tigers, lions, leopards, jaguars and cougars are made to perform the same as the more docile domestic groups.

The lion is virtually made to "lie down with the lamb" in some of the mixed groupings. There is a "Riding Lion" on horseback, and another ascends to the dizzy heights of the canvas, accompanied by his lady trainer on the carriage of a captive balloon. There are wrestling bears; "Mirpah," the only white camel; baby lions, monkeys, then the ponies, Shetlands, dogs, even goats, all furnish features of special interest to the children and students of natural history. Clowns, scores of funmakers, all artists, too.

There will be a fete day street parade, which alone will be well worth traveling miles to see, bands, calliopes, cages and dens, opened and closed.

Marshall Baker, of near Laurel, was in the city the last of the week, and while here remembered the Argus with his 29th annual subscription.

THAT U. S. TAX

On account of an apparent misunderstanding as to the tax on admissions, Clyde G. Huntley, Collector of Internal Revenue, announces that this tax is still in effect except as to admissions of 10c or less.

"There seems to be some confusion with respect to the exemption from this tax," explains Collector Huntley. "The law provides that exemptions from the tax may be granted where the proceeds of an entertainment event, exclusively to the benefit of a religious, educational or charitable organization or institution; to societies for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals; to any post of the American Legion or Woman's Auxiliary units thereof; to societies or organizations conducted for the sole purpose of improving any city or town; to organizations maintaining a cooperative or community center; moving picture theatre, no part of the net earnings of which inure to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, and to agricultural fairs."

However, the exemption cannot be granted to any case unless an affidavit claiming the same is filed with Collector Huntley a considerable time in advance of the date of the entertainment so that proper investigation may be made.

"Where exemption is obtained the tickets must show the price of admission and bear the words 'tax free' or 'no tax.'"

"Persons or organizations giving entertainments are required by law to collect the tax from those to whom the tickets are sold or to obtain exemption, which will entitle them to sell the ticket without tax," said Collector Huntley. "The law provides a penalty of not to exceed $1000.00 for failure to comply with this provision."

C. W. Hergert, who is presiding over the destinies of the Gov. Withycombe farm, was a city caller Friday.

E. E. Lyons, of Yamhill, came down to the county seat the last of the week and spent a day with friends.

A Good Reputation plus a Better Price - $10.90

THE new low mark of $10.90 for the 30 x 3 1/2 size "Usco" created something of a sensation. Naturally, the first impulsive remark was on the "wonderful price."

Even more to the point are the comments of today.

People are getting more used to the $10.90 price—but the "Usco" value is still a cause for wonder.

With thousands of $10.90 "Usco's" running today, every locality has had a chance to check up on the surprising tire value.

Let all these "Usco" Tires now serving their owners so well remind you of this—

Whatever the price of "Usco," it has got to deliver big value because it has always done so.
