POST MASTERS AND CARRIERS ORGANIZE

Post Officials Get Together for "Good of the Service"

COUNTY WELFARE COUNCIL

Efficiency and Co-ordination are the Ends Sought

A convention of Third and Fourth Class Postmasters and Rural Carriers was held at the court house at Hillsboro, Saturday evening, June 10, for the purpose of organizing a County Welfare Association of the Post Office Department.

The convention was called to order by Postmaster H. A. Ball, of Hillsboro. A. M. Kennedy, of Beaverton, was elected temporary chairman, and A. J. Miltenberger, of Hillsboro, temporary secretary.

The model constitution for County Welfare Councils, as approved by the Postmaster General, was read and adopted.

The next order of business was the election of seven representatives to constitute the County Council. C. E. Hodge, of Beaverton, was elected to represent the Third Class Postmasters; Laura Bestiller, of Carnation; N. Bangs, of Tinsler; and A. L. Troutman, of North Plains, were elected by the Fourth Class Postmasters; and J. M. Kessler, of Banks; John Owens, of Sherwood; and A. J. Miltenberger, of Hillsboro, were chosen to represent the Rural Carriers.

C. E. Hodge was elected chairman of the Council; N. Bangs, vice chairman, and J. M. Kessler, secretary.

There were explanations by Postmaster H. A. Ball in regard to the duties of the Council, and suggestions were made by Chairman Hodge and Carrier Boyd. The chairman suggested that the next quarterly meeting be held in Hillsboro, the date to be determined later.

The object of the County Welfare Council, as stated in the constitution, "shall be to increase the efficiency of the postal service in Washington County, Oregon; to improve the working conditions in post offices and to effect closer standing with the public, the postmasters and the employees of the Postal Service."

A. J. Miltenberger, Temporary Secretary.

Big Bill Hensworth and wife, of above Roy, were in the city Tuesday and had their car loaded with youngsters to see the Howe circus. Mrs. Hensworth had some argument to keep Bill from trying to play the steam calliope.

For Sale—Shepherd pup, 4 months old; just right age for stock training; out of fine cattle and watch dog.—C. W. Hergert, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 2; Box 14. Phone 5R45. 14-16.

Wm. Gregory returned the last of the week from a trip to Tacoma.

C. F. Jesse, of Roy, was greeting county seat friends yesterday.

W. N. Brown, of Laurel, was a city caller the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard VanLan, of Leysville, were city callers Monday.

Sam Paisley, of Buxton, was in town the last of the week, "policing around" a little.

Found—Stray black and white cow.—E. G. Stacey, Aloha, Oregon. 14-16.

Miss Margaret Long returned Monday from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Gail Wells, at Newberg.

E. L. Koch, of South Tualatin, was transacting business in the city Monday morning.

D. Giger, who has been in California several months, has returned to the Phillips section.

Miss Ida Abadie, of near Cedar Mill, was in the city the last of the week and called on the home paper.

W. C. Gifford, manager of the Beaverton feed store, was in the city Monday, and called on the religious weekly.

For Sale—Five good colonies of bees, $5 per swarm.—J. R. McNee, Scofield station, Buxton, Ore., P. O. 15-17.

Mrs. A. Crandall, of Albion, was in the city Monday. The Crandalls own a tract in Brogden Acres.

Wayne Vaught, with the Skaggs store at Salem, came home Sunday and enjoyed a visit with the home folks.

E. B. Tongue and C. G. Reiter attended a meeting of the Hunt Club near Garden Home, the last of the week.

Advertised letters Hillsboro post office: Daniel Aschenzi, Miss Zeldia Jarckel, Mrs. J. E. Patterson, D. S. Wheeler.

Theodore F. May and Merle Froidley, of Banks, were united in marriage June 8, 1922. Judge J. W. Goodin officiating.

Women want work, any kind, day, hour or week. Experience in taking care of confinements.—A. I. Lema Rocky, Hillsboro, Oregon. 13-15.

Marriage licenses granted—Perry Shearer and Mazie Napper, Banks; Clyde M. Alexander, Corvallis, and Mildred Carlyle, this county.

Jas. Churchill, of upper Gales, was in the city Saturday, greeting friends and incidentally attending a session of the newly elected republican central committee.

R. N. Blythe and W. Brownlee, of Portland, connected with the Oregon Journal, were in Hillsboro Monday afternoon and called on the Argus.

Peter Boscow returned Tuesday from an extended visit with the D. P. Pattersons, at Dallas. Peter denied it, but it is hinted that the circus was the thing that cut short his visit.

Choice lots for sale close in; some have sewer connections; very reasonable; fine home locations; cash or acceptable contracts.—B. E. Robinson, P. O. Box 125, Hillsboro. 13-15.

FOURTH OF JULY PROGRAM IN SWING

Committee Promises a Celebration Better and Bigger Than Ever

BIG PARADE IN PROSPECT

Hitt Fireworks Co. Gets Contract—Same as Three Years Ago

The Fourth of July committee met last night, and after conference announced that Hillsboro's celebration program this year will be bigger and better than ever—and voted unanimously to shut out anything like games of chance involving gambling of any nature.

The Hitt Fireworks Co., of Seattle, will furnish the pyrotechnic display—this is the company which gave such wonderful satisfaction three years ago.

Joe LeStrange will be here with his big balloon, embracing 1330 yards of canvas and standing 75 feet in height, with a circumference of 150 feet. A tripe parachute drop, with this act, will be seen on each of the three days.

The music will be furnished by the Hillsboro Military Band; the McMinnville Elks Band and the G. A. R. fife and drum corps.

On Sunday the celebration will start with a great re-union of pioneers from Multnomah, Washington and Yamhill counties, at the auditorium.

There will be three days of baseball. The valley league games will be staged. On Monday two of the leading teams of the county will play and the winners will take on Hillsboro for a prize of $150 on July 4.

The DeKohl troupe, here before, will be present with a better free act than ever, in their Star of Death and globe rolling performance.

There will be boys' and girls' races, sack races, pie contests, a greased pig feature and many other events, for which there will be cash prizes.

Dancing in the auditorium will start Saturday evening, continue Monday evening, and all day on the Fourth. Manager Rasmussen has secured the famous Mulhouse Hobbs people to furnish music.

He has secured a fine lot of concessions and shows and all games will be limited to science, eliminating the gambling end.

A giant Ferris wheel and a fine jumping horse merry-go-round have arranged with the management to be on the grounds for the kiddies—and their parents and the young man and his girl—and if there isn't a good show and celebration it will not be the fault of those in charge.

Street Parade—A big street parade will be staged at 9:30 a. m., July 4, starting from First and Washington; going East on Washington to Second; North to Main and East on Main to Third; South on Third to Baseline, and then on to the park.

First Division—W. C. Gregory in charge; Goddess of Liberty and patriotic features. Prizes, $15, 10, $5.

Second Division—Decorated vehicles, in charge of E. L. Perkins; prizes same as above.

Third Division—Advertising and comic, under direction of J. M. Goar; same prizes as above.

M. P. Cady has been selected to marshal the parade.

PIANO RECITAL

The piano recital at the home of Mrs. R. Cavey by the students of Miss Dee Darling, was well attended by parents and friends Saturday evening. The porches were beautifully decorated with roses, and the entire class, in chorus, paid homage to them by singing, "Beautiful Oregon Rose." Every pupil did credit to the instructor, and the following rendered numbers:

Leah Turner, Tommy Connell, Mamie D'Hondt, Arline Kamna, Genie Cypher, Josephine Stuart, Kitty Caldwell, Mildred Carmack, Rose Vandomelon, Lucile Rood, Ruth Perkins, Esther Perkins, Lucy Farnham, Marian Cypher, Violet Barber, Mercy Gerrish, Mildred Giltner, Grace Rasmussen, Glen Turner, Irene Connell, Emmett Cox, Winifred Robbins, Elaine Giltner, Laura Deck, Dorothy Sherman, Allen Weisenback, Lucy Quiggle, Beulah McCloughy, Lucile Kamna, Elsie Bendler, Faye Jones, Helen Stuart, Doris Applegate, Esther Minnie, Lillian Peters, Charlotte Hilt, Nellie Watson.

Eugene Delplanche, of near Sheffin, was in the city the first of the week.

Howe's circus—principally an animal circus—pitched its top at the old fair ground on West Baseline, Tuesday, and played two performances to crowded audiences.

As small shows go, it was a pretty good circus, and their animals were well trained. Five of the largest lions ever brought to this section were a part of their animal showing and their big elephant was a mammoth and nicely put through his paces. Their horses were also well trained, and by and large, the show was well received. While, like the most of small shows, it did not have all it advertised, it was really worth the price of admission. It was surprising to see how many adults attended—and on the hypothesis that they "just had to take the kids." The tall, slim man, attired as a woman, had a big time flirting with some of the husbands as they entered the big tent, and two or three wives rather resented it when "she" or he, as the case was, kissed the husbands. One wife was heard to remark to her husband—"Come along, you darned fool."

C. E. Ball, a Portland man, warns Washington county motorists who intend going to California to watch their steps in the little town of Yreka, Cal. He says they have a 10-mile sign, and then later a 15-mile sign. The cop gets you and takes you before a justice who socks you on the word of the cop. Ball says to get your supplies at Sissons if you are coming north, for they'll "clean you" if you take a chance and do not get out and lead your car thru with a halter.

Fire-proof paint on your roof is a great fire preventative. This has been demonstrated in various fires. Have your roof painted now, before the dry season advances too far. See me for particulars. We can sell you paint and you can paint it yourself, or we will contract to put on the paint for you. A great fire and weather proof paint.—C. J. Birdsell, 1246 Baseline St., Hillsboro, Telephone 2461.

Mr. and Mrs. James Borwick have moved from Oreno to their new purchase, the McQuillan property, on Second and Oak. They conducted the hotel at Oreno for many years and concluded they would try the county seat. They expect to accommodate several boarders, as the house is sufficiently large for the purpose.

Mrs. C. W. Elkins, of Prineville, has been the week's guest at the home of her brother, J. W. Goodin, of Fifth and Baseline. She came to the valley to attend the Federated Clubs Convention, at Tillamook, and just now is attending the Eastern Star Grand Chapter, in Portland. She was well known here prior to marriage as Miss Stella Goodin.

Mrs. Florence Patterson, of Astoria, has succeeded Miss Charlotte Walker as county health officer and has assumed her duties. She has taken up her residence at 1372 Oak St. Mrs. Patterson has been visiting nurse for the City of Astoria for some months. She formerly nursed at Duluth, Minnesota, and has had years of experience in charge of such affairs.

When in need of a monument, marker, or posts, or cemetery work of any nature, whether purchased by yourself or thru the Woodmen, or any lodge, it will be to your interest to consult Lewis & Co., as they will give you a better purchase for the money anywhere else—in fact they can save you considerable on any purchase. 21-1f

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Bergen came up from Marshfield the first of the week for an extended visit with the Bergens and Paynes, and will go to Hood River and other points before their return to the coast section. They notice many improvements in Hillsboro since they left for Southwestern Oregon.

Church of Christ, corner Third and Baseline—10, Bible School, J. P. McGlasson, Supt.; 11, sermon, "Christ, the Good Shepherd"; 7:15, Junior and Intermediate Endeavor; 8, subject, "The Restoration Plea and Christian Unity." Oswald Olson will sing at the evening service.—Len B. Fishback, minister.

Palfrey, last year's first baseman, for Hillsboro, has been signed on the local team and will be in uniform next Sunday. Duke Holmes, an ex-cruiser for Los Angeles, will play at third. Sohler, having resigned to take charge of his recently purchased confectionery at Forest Grove.

Miss Katherine Thayer and Miss Helen Hamm, of the section beyond Laurel, were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday.

PAVING WORK TO BE ABANDONED

So Far as it Relates to North Second Street—Campbell Hears Case

JUDGE BAGLEY WINS FIGHT

Clackamas Jurist Sustains Attorneys Last Saturday

Judge J. U. Campbell, of Oregon City, held with Attorneys Wm. G. Hare and E. B. Tongue, last Saturday, that plaintiff Geo. R. Bagley, in his suit to estop paving North Second St., by the Bagley block, was within his rights upon showing that the paving would not benefit plaintiff in the sum proposed as costs by the city council's estimate.

This puts an end to the paving so far as this particular block is concerned. And, aside from this, on the face of the court's ruling, there may later be a foray into the realm of past paving.

Messrs. Tongue and Hare brot the case on the grounds that the expense, as estimated by the city, would be virtual confiscation of property, and the plaintiff held that a constitutional right was his and that it should not be infringed.

Just what the next move will be is conjectural as the buck is up to the city.

Tongue & Tongue have another case at bar and they have been given permission by the court to amend their pleadings. This case affects property south of Main street and is a part of the Tongue estate. The same grounds will be gone over, excepting that the city will contend that acceptance of the 10-payment plan will estop legal action by property owners.

Judge Campbell intimated that he had heretofore held, and not been reversed, that where assessments for public improvement were for more than the actual value received, or for more than 50 per cent of the value of the value of the property, cities could not collect.

SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wismer, of Phillips, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary, Sunday, in the presence of one hundred and fifty relatives and friends. A big basket dinner was a feature of the day and an appropriate address was made by Rev. Straemeier, pastor. Mr. and Mrs. Wismer were married in Clackamas county, but have spent their wedded life in this county. There were many beautiful silver gifts presented to host and hostess. Those present from the outside were Messrs. E. I. Kuratli, H. A. Kuratli and J. J. Wismer and their families, Hillsboro; J. C. Kuratli and family, Portland, and Otto Wismer and family, of Tillamook, and Mrs. Nellie McDaniels, Hillsboro.

Another recent book of Oregon up to date is "The Beginning."

STOCK JUDGING

A demonstration on the selection and judging of livestock was held by the Laurel Livestock Clubs, under the leadership of W. N. Hathorn, on June 12.

Prof. E. B. Fitts, Dairy Extension Specialist, and the Washington County Agent assisted.

Mr. Hathorn had the pure bred hogs arranged in different pens, which made a very striking show and demonstration.

The Hathorn Holstein herd was also used for the purpose of illustrating selection of dairy cattle.

The Laurel community has a pure bred Holstein Calf Club and a pure bred Chester White Pig Club.
