County Official Paper

Subscription, $1.50 per annum.

Issued every Thursday by Mrs. E. C. McKinney and L. A. Long

Entered at the Post Office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as second class mail matter.

In every state where there have been primary contests before the people, the progressive wing of the republican party has won out over the old guard—the conservative and capitalistic element. With no primaries it is easy for "big business" to pick candidates but the people everywhere now are demanding a voice in public affairs. The results in all eastern states where the will of the people is registered is vastly different than in those states where the "boss" does the selecting of candidates. Remarkably funny, isn't it, that the pin-head editors and the boss politicians can't see the light?

When the farmer fights labor unions he is making a serious mistake and one that will react like a boomerang. Unions have meant better wages for workmen always and the laborer cannot pay a farmer living prices for his food-stuffs unless he gets good wages. The better the wage the better price the farmer can get for what he produces. Kill off the laborer and you kill the market for the farm. Every producer should stand for a good wage scale for the man who is and must be his only big market.

Supreme courts are sometimes wonderful in their deductions. It is a well known fact that the Southern Pacific Company owns the Central Pacific and the Southern Pacific lines and have owned them for years, no matter their creditors and bondholders. Now the court says the roads must be separated, meaning additional overhead and operating expenses.

After all, it isn't a far cry from Adam, who laid it on Eve for this great disturbance of ages, to the man who says he had to take the children to the circus. And yet—and yet—distrust that elderly codger who can't see any glamour in the "big top" and all that goes with it.

THE DAY'S QUERIES

The young man meets you and says—"What's going on in the old town tonight?"

The wife's query—"Have you noticed that the lawn needs attention?"

The daughter—"Say, Dad, has it occurred to you that I've had no new dress for an age?"

The old Gentleman—"Did you rest well last night?"

The middle aged neighbor—"That was some dinner we had at the doings last night, wasn't it?"

The young lady fiance—"Don't you think George is just splendid?"

The cook—"Don't you think it's awful hard to pick out anything to eat this kind of weather?"

The parson—"Did you know you missed a good meeting last evening?"

The son—"Daddy, did you ever sit up late with a girl when you were young?"

The flapper—"Don't you just adore bobbed hair?"

The single woman of forty—"Don't you know, I just love children, but aren't they an awful care?"

The old bachelor—"How about a little game of whist this evening?"

The fleshy man of sixty years—"Do you ever have any trouble with your stomach?"

Roy McKinney, 35 years, was killed Friday afternoon, June 9, 1922, above Silverton, while loading logs. The body was brought to Forest Grove and services were held at the chapel of the Forest Grove Undertaking Co., H. W. Prickett directing the interment. He was educated at P. U. and later took a business course in Portland. In 1907 he was united in marriage to Miss Fannie Cawse, and for several years they resided at Banks. He is survived by his widow and two daughters, his mother, Mrs. R. M. Stevens, a brother, Walter McKinney, of Forest Grove, and a sister, Mrs. H. F. Fenton, of Portland.

Rev. Andrew Carrick, of the North Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church, conducted the rites.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Washington. F. E. Hicks, Plaintiff.

vs. F. A. Neher and Emma Neher, husband and wife, Defendants.

To F. E. Hicks, one of the above named defendants:

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause on or before Saturday, the 29th day of July, 1922, and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief as prayed for in said complaint, to-wit, for a judgment and decree as follows:

(a) For judgment against the defendants F. A. Neher and Emma Neher for the sum of Eight Hundred and Seventy-five ($875.00) Dollars principal, and for the further sum of Three Hundred Twenty-four and 16/100 ($324.16) Dollars, being interest on said principal to June 1, 1922, with interest at seven per cent (7 per cent) on both of said sums from June first, 1922, for the further sum of One Hundred and Fifty ($150.00) Dollars attorney's fees, and for his costs and disbursements.

(b) For a decree foreclosing the mortgage described in plaintiff's complaint upon the West Half (W. 1/2) of Lot Two (2) Aldrich Acreage, in Washington County, State of Oregon, and barring and foreclosing all of defendants' interests in said real property, and decreeing plaintiff's mortgage to be a first lien thereon, and ordering execution to pay the sums hereinabove mentioned.

(c) For such other and further relief as may seem to the Court just and meet in the premises.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of the Honorable George R. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled Court, made and entered on the 12 day of June, 1922, directing that such publication be made in the Hillsboro Argus, a weekly newspaper published in Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, once each week for six consecutive weeks, the first publication thereof being on the 13th day of June, 1922, and the last publication thereof being on the 27th day of July, 1922.

DEDICATE MASONIC HOME

A majority of the delegates of the fifty second annual communication of the Oregon Masonic Grand Lodge dedicated the Masonic Home between Cornelius and Forest Grove, Wednesday, June 7, 1922. Grand Master, Frank S. Baillie, Grand Master, and Mrs. C. H. Castner, newly elected Worthy Grand Matron of the Eastern Star, took part in the dedication ceremonies.

The home is one of the finest institutions of its kind in the Northwest, and construction started two years ago. The institution is for dependent Masons and their families, and J. S. Roark is superintendent and his wife is the matron.

J. C. Clark, well known at Forest Grove, died Sunday. Mr. Clark was aged about 62 years, and at one time he was in the drug business in the college city. He was retired, and had been having poor health for a number of years. Last week he was found with his throat slashed and he told inquiring friends that he had no idea what had happened. It is supposed that he attempted suicide because of despondency over ill health. Clark was highly esteemed and was prominent in fraternal circles.

Free Attraction Secured

The Fourth of July Committee has secured The Three Great DeKohls in their Gigantic See-Saw and Star-of-Death act as a special attraction. Their program is something new in revolving globe acts, holding their audience spellbound by their thrilling equilibrist stunts. Little Miss Gladys, one of the youngest globe rollers in the business, does some very clever work, such as rope skipping and top-head mounting on the globe. They appeared here two years ago and have added new features to the work.
