

NEARLY A HUNDRED AT SCHOOL MEETING

M. P. Cady, of Third Street, Elected Director for Three Years
EDWIN BOWMAN IS CLERK
Matter of Building Unit of Two Rooms Was Discussed

Nearly one hundred people attended the school meeting at Hillsboro High, for District No. 7, Monday afternoon, and as a result of the session M. P. Cady, of Third St., was elected to serve as director for a term of three years. Mr. Cady received 55 votes and R. B. Collins received 47. This fills the school board, the two senior members being Chairman Mrs. Chas. E. Wells and R. L. Tucker.

Edwin Bowman, assistant cashier of the Hillsboro National Bank, was elected clerk for one year, Mr. Bergen declining to serve another term.

The matter of more school room was discussed, and it was decided to place the question on the ballot at the coming budget meeting. The proposal is to give the patrons a chance to vote yes or no on the construction of a unit for two additional rooms, the structure to be built of concrete and have it heated from the main structure. The unit is to cost around $4,000, if built, and the cost is to be met with taxation rather than by bonded debt.

The matter of transportation of outside students will also be placed on the ballot and the budget will be prepared so as to appear in the next issue of the newspapers.

The district is now renting outside rooms, and it is imperative that something be done to combat the congestion. The proposal of those favoring the unit system is that the district can build two-room units as needed, and thus keep down a large individual expenditure. Architects say that this can be done, and everything needed for comfort will be installed.

COMMITTEE HAS A SNAPPY PROGRAM

Four Musical Organizations in Line For Fourth of July

SCOTCH BAGPIPERS COMING

McMinnville Elks Band, Hillsboro Military Band, Fife & Drum

The Fourth of July committee has a snappy program for the big four days of celebration, which will open in Hillsboro July 1 and close on the evening of July 4.

The Scotch Bagpipe Band has again been secured, and this in itself is an attraction that pleases, for the "laddies" are past masters in their particular kind of music.

The Elks' band of 30 pieces, from McMinnville, will assist the Hillsboro Military band, and add to this is the Fife and Drum corps of the G. A. R. McMinnville will furnish many attendants at the celebration, and the Elks will be down in numbers to back up their fine musical organization.

Free attractions are secured in numbers and the triple parachute drop July 2, 3 and 4 from the largest balloon in the West, will draw much attention. The De-Kohls, with their globe rolling feat, are popular favorites and their program of the past is accentuated by the appearance of the youngest performer on record.

On Sunday, the pioneers of three counties, Washington, Multnomah and Yamhill, will meet at the auditorium in annual session.

The giant Ferris wheel and the steam merry-go-round will be on hand to entertain the youngsters and there will be shows galore.

On July 2 there will be a Willamette Valley ball game, and on Monday two Washington county league teams will contend for the honor of playing the Hillsboro regulars. The winners of the game will play Hillsboro July 4, the purse to be $150.

On the Fourth the big civic parade will form at 9:30, with M. P. Cady in charge. Three bands will escort the caravan to the grounds.

There will be a Goddess of Liberty, decorated automobiles, comic entries; business floats, fraternal showings, industrial features, and the "Boys in Blue" will be in the motor vehicle parade with the Fife and Drum corps.

The race program will be one of the athletic features of the Fourth, with boys' and girls' races, catching the greased pig-pie-eating contests, and everything that goes to make up contests of interest.

The exercises at the auditorium on the forenoon of the Fourth will be featured with an address by Dr. L. W. Hyde, for the past year the Commander of the Spanish War Veterans, Dept. of Oregon.

Fireworks, day and night, on the Fourth, will be bigger and better than ever and the committee assures the public that a return of the best efforts of three years ago will be staged.

From all parts of the county comes the word of a big attendance, and those in charge look for a record breaking crowd.

PIONEER REUNION

The pioneer reunion for Washington, Yamhill and Multnomah counties will be held at the auditorium in Shute Park, Sunday, July 2, as an all-day affair, supplemented by a basket dinner.

There will be a program in the auditorium, or outside, just as the pioneers wish. All pioneers and their families have a cordial invitation to be in attendance. All will assemble at the corner of Second and Washington streets in the morning of the day, and automobiles will be there to convey them to the grounds. Any person who has been a resident of Oregon for 40 years is eligible to membership in the pioneer association, and their children or grandchildren who have reached the age of 20 years may also join.

An interesting program is in embryo and will be given the press in the next issue.

Coffee will be served free by the local committee on reunion day.

ATTENTION, PYTHIANS

The Pythians will decide next Monday night the time and place of the annual picnic for the order and for the Pythian Sisters lodge. All Pythians are requested to be present next Monday evening, for there will be work in two ranks and refreshments will be served.

This will be the last big meeting until after the close of the warm season.

Jesse Crandall, county clerk of Hardin county, Montana, arrived from Hysham, Monday evening, and will remain until after the Fourth with his parents, Judge and Mrs. R. Crandall. Jesse has just recovered from the spotted fever, a trouble that is not infrequent in the inter-mountain section. He was bitten by a wood-tick, several weeks ago, and the fangs of the little sage brush pest inoculated him with poison. He was laid up for several weeks and his epidermis peeled off like the bark on a frost-bitten tree. He is now mending rapidly and is having the time of his life, greeting his boyhood friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kroeger and daughters, Marguerite and Wilhelmina, depart this week for a motor trip to Nebraska. They will go over the Montana route and stop at the Yellowstone National Park, making the trip by easy stages. They will visit with relatives at Lincoln and Grand Island, a brother of Mr. Kroeger, John, residing at the latter place. They expect to be absent until about September 1 and will have a big time camping along the route.

Beginning with June Monday, the sunrise was timed at 4:23 and sunset was timed at 7:40. The same time was scheduled for yesterday and today. Tomorrow the sun rises a minute later, but sets at the same time—June 22, this day, is always quoted as the "longest day in the year," but this is not so in Oregon's latitude. In New York the sunrise today was six minutes later and the sunset six minutes after the Oregon sunset.

Fire-proof paint on your roof is a great fire preventative. This has been demonstrated in various fires. Have your roof painted now, before the dry season advances too far. See me for particulars. We can sell you paint and you can paint it yourself, or we will contract to put on the paint for you. A great fire and weather proof paint.—C. J. Birdsell, 1246 Baseline St., Hillsboro. Telephone 2461.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lard and children, of Portland, were guests Sunday at the Mrs. Josephine Case home. C. F. is at present being employed as lineman for the Pacific States Telephone Co., in Portland, and for the time being has forsaken the composing rooms of newspaper offices. Chas. is the same care-free Texan as of old and says it is easy to ride the "buckingest water wagon" he ever met.

A. W. King, of the Mercantile Market, has just received a letter from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King, of Clackamas county, who are now visiting in London. They have been attending the big English Derby. Mr. and Mrs. King went to England last winter and from there to the Isle of Man, where Mr. King had a big estate left him. They will return to Oregon some time during the Summer.

J. S. Robinson has gone to Southern Oregon, where he and Walter, his son, are working a mine. J. A. White, of the pool hall, will leave this week and join them, he being interested with the Robinsons. The boys think they have something worth while in their new venture.

For Sale, or will trade—900-lb. mare, 7 years, $25; 800-lb. horse, 14 years, $10; both broke to ride or drive; yearling colt, $15.—H. A. Rossback, Banks, R. 3; in Arctide district, on Pumpkin Ridge. 15-17

John R. Bailey, of Buxton, reports that his prune trees are laden and that he expects a bumper crop. He will plant a lot of walnuts this season and put out prune trees on the same tract, intermixing alternates. John R. will investigate the date prune before planting.

Wanted—$1550 on a first mortgage on a $3,000 property. State interest desired and length of time on principal. Address, Box 41, Hillsboro. 14-16

On Thursday afternoon, June 29, the Social Club of the Eastern Star will hold a reception in honor of Mrs. J. D. Bergen, of Marshfield, at the home of Mrs. M. H. Stevenson, at 2:30 o'clock. All members of the Star are invited to attend.

For Sale—1400-lb. horse, harness and light wagon; also Ford car, delivery type.—Inquire of Beaverton Lumber Co., Beaverton, Ore. 18-17

H. H. Boge, of Farmington, was greeting friends in the city Monday.

Found—Stray black and white cow.—E. G. Stacey, Aloha, Oregon. 14-16

HERBERT DUELL SUES HENRY BARNHARDT

Ranchman Alleges Barnhardt Attacked Him Without Warning

WANTS $10,000 IN DAMAGES

And Asks That Doctor and Hospital Bill be Allowed at $126.00

Herbert B. Duell, of above Forest Grove, has sued Henry Barnhardt, a former employe, in circuit court, asking that he be awarded a verdict for $10,126.

His complaint specifies the amounts asked as follows—Five thousand dollars damages for beating him about head with a hammer; physician's and hospital bill, $126.00; punitive damages, in the sum of $5,000.

The trouble took place this Spring at the Duell barn, when the two had an altercation of some kind. Duell went to the hospital for treatment for wounds about the head, and Barnhardt took to the woods and a few days later was found in a barn, with his throat mangled as though cut on a barbed wire fence. Duell alleges that Barnhardt attacked him with the hammer without warning. Barnhardt's side of the story remains to be heard as he has been taciturn about the case. He was brought to the Smith Hospital for treatment when found by Sheriff Alexander, and upon recovery ate ravenously.

Hare, McClear & Peters are counsel for Duell.

Barnhardt left the Smith Hospital June 5, after about 40 days of treatment, he having been in a sorry plight from the lack of food, and injuries thought at that time to have largely been self-inflicted.

HOLSTEIN PICNIC TOUR

Washington County Boys' and Girls' Calf Club members, as well as livestock breeders attended the annual tour and picnic of the Washington County Holstein Breeders' Club, June 16. The crowd assembled at the J. F. Peerenboom farm, Roy, at 10 a. m., to inspect the herd of test cows at that place. An illustration of Holstein type was given here, using Mr. Peerenboom's splendid cows for that purpose.

The next stop was at the Chas. Herb dairy farm. Mr. Herb's three sons are members of the Banks Calf Club. His elder son, Henry, won the silver trophy cup last year, which was offered by the Washington County Holstein Club for the best Holstein exhibited by a boy or girl club member.

Other stops during the day were at the farms of Clell Carstensen, Frank Herb, J. P. Vandecoevering, Albert Evers, Wm. Martin and Connell Bros. At the Frank Herb farm four of Mr. Herb's children exhibited calves which will be entered in the Boys' and Girls' Calf Club contests at the Banks Hog and Dairy Show this September.

A stock judging contest, and illustrations of Holstein type were held at the Peerenboom and Vandecoevering herds.

The picnic dinner was served at the stock pavilion of the Banks Hog and Dairy Show. Coffee and ice cream were supplied by the Banks Commercial Club, and arrangements were made by that organization for the excellent service given by Camp Fire Girls, of Banks. Many short talks were given following the noon luncheon. Among the speakers were A. C. Wahl, President of the Banks Commercial Club; W. N. Hathorn, President of the Holstein Club; J. F. Gardner, of the Hillsboro National Bank; R. C. Stewart, of the Oregon Journal, and S. B. Hall, a breeder of Multnomah county. S. C. Inley was marshal of the day.

REMEMBER

The Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective Society kindly asks its friends to remember the girls, mothers and babies when canning.

The society, on an average, provides for fifty girls, seventy-five babies and a staff of thirty-five workers and attendants daily in the Louise Home and Albertina Kerr Nursery Home. These unfortunate girls and babies come from almost every county in the state. Any one wishing to donate canned fruit and vegetables please communicate with the general office, 195 Burnside Street, Portland, so that jars may be shipped prepaid. The society will also pay the freight charges for their return.

W. G. MacLaren, Genl. Supt.
