SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Washington.

F. E. Hicks, Plaintiff, vs. F. A. Neher and Emma Neher, husband and wife, Defendants.

To F. E. Neher, one of the above named defendants: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause, on or before Saturday, the 29th day of July, 1922, and if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief as prayed for in said complaint, to-wit, for a judgment and decree as follows:

(a) For judgment against the defendants F. A. Neher and Emma Neher for the sum of Eight Hundred and Seventy-five ($875.00) Dollars principal, and for the further sum of Three Hundred Twenty-four and 16/100 ($324.16) Dollars, being interest on said principal to June 1, 1922, with interest at seven per cent (7 per cent) on both of said sums from June first, 1922; for the further sum of One Hundred and Fifty ($150.00) Dollars attorney's fees, and for his costs and disbursements.

(b) For a decree foreclosing the mortgage described in plaintiff's complaint upon the West Half (W. 1/2) of Lot Two (2) Aldrich Acreage, in Washington County, State of Oregon, and barring and foreclosing all of defendants' interests in said real property, and decreeing plaintiff's mortgage to be a first lien thereon, and ordering said real property to be sold on execution to pay the sums hereinbefore mentioned.

(c) For such other and further relief as may seem to the Court just and meet in the premises.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof by order of the Honorable George R. Bagley, Judge of the above entitled Court, made and entered on the 13 day of June, 1922, directing that such publication be made in the Hillsboro Argus, a weekly newspaper published in Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, once each week, for six consecutive weeks, the first publication thereof being on the 15th day of June, 1922, and the last publication thereof being on the 27th day of July, 1922.

MALE HELP WANTED

The Starr Fruit Products Co. requires the services of a man to handle the sale of their Preferred and Common Stock issue in this territory. It is an investment that should yield about 10 per cent. This is your opportunity to add substantially to your income. For full particulars address Thomas H. Greene, care Starr Fruit Products Co., East First and Yamhill Sts., Portland, Ore.

Marital Troubles—Myrtle B. Ellis, who married Edwin Ellis at Everett, Wash., in 1902, asks for a divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. She says that the husband has made life so miserable that she can no longer live with him. She wants the custody of three minor children and appears to be very reasonable in her financial demands, praying for $50 per month for the support of self and children.

Lula Pfaff, whose husband is second officer on a steam tanker plying out of Fall River, Mass., says that she wants a divorce from her better half, Edward. She says that he refuses to permit her to live at Fall River, so she can be near him when he is in port. She charges insane jealousy and false accusations, and asks the court to give her the custody of a minor child.

John Dooley, of near Banks, was a city caller Saturday. John still keeps his eye on the baseball news and hasn't forgotten the old days of rivalry between Greenville and Hillsboro, when John played against the county seaters. In those days the boys played bare-handed and the catcher that didn't receive from the pitcher with only his callous marks as a "mit" was thought a molly-coddle. But, as John says "Them Days is Gone Forever."

Mrs. Margaret Mead Barnes, of Southern Oregon, recent delegate to the Eastern Star annual grand lodge in Portland, has been in the city the past week, a guest of her sister, Mrs. T. A. McCord. She is a daughter of the late N. B. Mead, former Hillsboro hotel man, and a sister of Van B. Mead, who resided at Oreno several years.

Jas. Ritchey, of Forest Grove, is spending a few weeks in the Weston-Athena country, for the benefit of his health. The Weston Leader says that Ritchey is riding bucking bronchos and getting toughened up so that he can help harvest in case he gets work-brutle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Wheeler, of Aloha, passed through town Monday, enroute to the Netarts, for an extended period. Dave took all the shovels on the ranch along with him and expects to dig clam and catch crabs the major part of his time.

The banking men and employees and families of the county held a big out-of-doors picnic up at Meacham, Sunday, and a fine time is reported. The county association was well represented.

C. F. Hornecker, of Leisyville, was a city caller Monday.

GIGANTIC SEE-SAW & STAIR OF DEATH

The Fourth of July Committee has secured The Three Great DeKohls in their Gigantic See-Saw and Stair-of-Death act as a special attraction. Their program is something new in revolving globe acts, holding their audience spellbound by their thrilling equilibrist stunts. Little Miss Gladys, one of the youngest globe rollers in the business, does some very clever work, such as rope skipping and top-head mounting on the globe. They appeared here two years ago and have added new features to the work.

Studebaker

STUDEBAKER builds more six-cylinder cars than any other manufacturer because Studebaker builds them better. We can show you 84 definite points of superiority in the Special-Six over Studebaker's nearest competitor. In times of close competition, merit wins. Today competition in automobiles is keener than it ever was, because people are buying more carefully than ever. Studebaker increased its sales 29% in 1921, though the industry, as a whole, showed a falling off of nearly 45%. 1922, up to May 1st, shows a gain in Studebaker production of 143% over the same period of 1921. Studebaker sales records tell their own story. The buying public has declared for Studebaker's superiority.
