The position of American shipping is not an enviable one from a standpoint of patriotism. As a matter of fact foreign vessels hire sailors for less money than American ship owners, and this means dividends that are hard to combat. If the United States wishes to place its merchant marine on the seas it must work every shift possible. The shipping board is in favor of subsidies and this appears to be the only present remedy. Unless something is done, and that quickly, American shipping will decline to its pre-war status. It received a great blow when the United States senate stood idly by, rejecting the peace treaty, and permitted other nations to sign up and take trade right off the bat. The attitude of the objectors has cost the government a pretty sum of money in shipping circles as well as in trade, and it will take years of effort to overcome the handicap forced on the United States by wily politicians who encouraged hatred rather than statesmanship.

The fact that the Ray-Maling cannery is taking care of many times the present home output by buying from outside counties goes to show that this section can be made one of the finest small fruit growing sections in the Northwest. If Hillsboro wishes to thrive in this regard it should take steps, immediately, to encourage the fruit industry. Even with adverse conditions it will beat any other kind of production.

The last stand of the "old guard" to do away with the primary system reminds one that they may be licked, but they never surrender. Of a certainty it is hard for them to forget the powers shorn by the primary law, and they are constantly seeking its overthrow. They only ask for "amendment," but those who know them best appreciate the fact that its destruction is what is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hedrick of Seattle, arrived here yesterday for short visit with Mrs. M. A. Powell, mother of Mrs. Hedrick. They returned this afternoon and were accompanied by Mrs. G. A. Reynolds and daughter, Ruth, who have been visiting here for two weeks. They will make the trip via Olympia, where Mrs. Reynolds resides.

Alice E. Smith, the twelve year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, of Edison Street, died Wednesday, July 10, 1922, after a lifetime of invalidism. The funeral will be held Friday morning at 10:30, at Limber's Chapel, and interment will be at the local cemetery. Rev. Ingalls will conduct the services.

Gerhard Goetze, who has been spending several months at Seaside, has returned to Blooming. He says he feels strong enough to help harvest thru the busy season and is reversing the usual exodus route by coming inland from the coast instead of going to the coast.

Edw. Bowman has assumed the duties of school clerk for Dist. No. 7, relieving W. V. Bergen, who has served the past two years. Mr. Bergen and family contemplate a trip to the Yosemite in August as their annual vacation from Bergen's duties at the bank.

Herman Rehse, who recently bought the White interest in the Main St. pool hall, says it beats ranching it or roughing it. Herman is in charge of the partnership of Adams & Rehse, while Adams is still with Peterson Bros. selling Studebakers.

J. E. Reeves and Cal Jack will start the first of the week for Tendoy, Idaho, where they will spend a few days at the Simpson Jack mine and visit with Robt. Simpson and Wm. Jack.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Taggart and daughter, Belle, spent Sunday at their cottage at Netarts, returning Sunday via Pacific City where they visited a few hours with the Senator Hares.

B. Fleischhauer, of Gaston, was in town yesterday, a witness in naturalization court.

TWO NEW CITIZENS

Yesterday was citizenship day in circuit court, and Judge Bagley spent the forenoon and a part of the afternoon hearing evidence as to conduct and knowledge of those wishing to be a part of the republic. Special Agent Tomlinson was present to question the applicants, and the day's work resulted in but two new citizens—Rene Taghou, a Belgian, and Wm. L. Philpott, a former American citizen who went to Canada, and took out papers and then returned to the nation of his birth. Clerk Kurathli was instructed to give each his papers as full fledged voters.

The witnesses for Carl Nessel and Wm. Robb, formerly of Buxton, were not competent to tell of the applicants whereabouts, as required, and the two applicants were dismissed.

Agent Tomlinson objected to the citizenship of H. G. Bauer, whose religion made him a conscientious objector. The application of Fred Brett-hauer Sr. was continued for more study on the part of the principal. Other circuit court action: The Hillsboro Commercial Bank was given a judgment for $2100 against T. Rollins, suit to collect on a note given for a truck sold by E. L. Perkins. Rollins' defense was that he had sold the truck to a Mr. Uery, who was to pay the balance due as they returned. The truck was returned to Perkins by Uery.

The case of E. B. White vs. A. L. and Annie T. Parkhurst, suit on promissory note for $515.67 was before court today.

MANY NEW HOMES

Suburban homes are being built in Washington county by the hundreds in the east end, and inside of five years this population will be the larger part of the census. Portland has no better outlet for her overflow population than its westward, and this means much to this county. In time to come we shall have a better thoroughfare into Portland—a tunnel under the mountain, because thousands of people will live out this way and travel to their work daily.

This section will profit if it shall inaugurate a liberal policy for people who wish to locate homes away from the congested districts.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wetzel, of below Newton, were city callers this morning.

Mrs. D. B. Burkhalter is nicely convalescent from a severe illness.

John Stark, of south of Cornelius, was a Hillsboro visitor this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mertz, of Helvetia, were city callers this morning.

Chester Alexander will get one of the new engines on the new line running into Vernonia.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stevens, of 823 Broadway, Hillsboro, July 11, 1922, a daughter.

Atha Russell was over from Estacada, Sunday, the guest of his mother, Mrs. Edna Russell.

For Sale—New five-room modern bungalow with full basement. Choice location. Price right. Liberal terms.—Phone 2603, Hillsboro central.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Humphreys, and youngest daughter, of Heppner, are in the city, guests at the home of Mrs. Humphreys' mother, Mrs. L. A. Rood.

The Hillsboro contingent will see a regular round up at Pacific City Saturday and Sunday. This will be recreation for Charley Wells and Bill Hare.

Lost—Black handbag, containing bank book, money purse and some money. Finder please leave at Argus office.—Mrs. C. Lystrup, Hillsboro.

Dr. W. D. Wood gave first aid to the two men injured in the wreck near Manning. The United train was held at North Plains until the physician arrived.

F. Robinson, of Portland, files suit in circuit court asking that W. A. Fay pay him $385 for damages, the result of a collision. Robinson says he was driving near Tobias, on the highway, when Fay carelessly ran his car into the Robinson car, and the plaintiff swears that Fay was off his right of way. That being the case he says Fay is culpable and liable. He asks for $315 damages to the car, and $70 for ten days loss of use.

After several days of cool and cloudy weather, old Sol yesterday again started his furnaces with the net result of a humid afternoon. Today's weather has been a follower-up and grain is ripening rapidly. The extreme heat and drought mean a consequent loss in the spring sown grain and oats are heading so short that many are cutting for hay. Winter grain appears to have thrived the best of all, but even that crop is not going to be up to standard. Hay has not been an average crop this season, and prices will be soaring this Fall.

That's Our Home

How gratifying it would be to have some member of your family refer to the place in which they live with pride and say: "That's our Home."

Give your children an honest to goodness home of their own.

They deserve more than the uncertainty and inconvenience of a rented house.

Now is the time to build a Home of Your Own

Come and see the many plans and pictures of homes exhibited at this office—they are free to customers.

CATHOLIC CITIZENSHIP

ARTICLE ONE

"The jury, after listening to the testimony of the prosecution, and Having Refused to hear the defendant, returned a verdict of "guilty." Extraordinary news item, would it not be? And yet you, dear Mr. and Mrs. Anti-Catholic, in countless instances, have done this very thing. In truth, what do you know against the citizenship of Catholic neighbors, except from hearsay and hostile sources? When did you give the other side a chance to defend itself? The Catholicity professed by your neighbors has been painted in shades of black, but so was Jesus Christ condemned as a blasphemer, as a traitor, a traitor. He was silent under accusation, just as true Catholic neighbors usually are; even in the present instance, it is not Catholic religion or dogmas as such, that is here defended, but Catholic citizenship; lest by continued silence, hostility, hatred, antagonism between American citizens be augmented. To avoid this, is patriotic duty no less than justifiable self defense.

Some attack the citizenship of Catholic neighbors from fanatical bigotry; with these, appeals to fairness and reason are generally in vain. Others do so from mercenary motives, there is money in it. With such, efforts are still more useless; there is no conscience there to which one can appeal. But many others are deceived by fraud and falsehood, just as were the crowds that clamored for Christ's crucifixion. With these we would reason.

A PLEA FOR TOLERANCE AND UNITY

Catholics and Protestants together settled America, which Catholic Columbus had discovered, and which countless Catholic missionaries explored and baptized in their blood. Together they felled the forests, drained the swamps and plowed the land. Together they fought the battles of the Revolution, finally snatched from failure by Catholic France, Ireland, and, who sent thousands of men and millions of money to aid the struggling colonies. Side by side, they stood when life and liberty were at stake. Why should they now suffer designing men to betray them into hatred for each other? Why?

When America was convulsed with Civil War, Catholics and Protestants stood shoulder to shoulder. Together they marched, fought, endured, died, and now their dust lies mingled upon every battle field. Who will deny to Catholic generals like Sheridan, Mulligan, Buell, Shields and Rosecrans the same undying glory merited by Non-Catholic comrades? Shall the sacred ties welded in war be destroyed in peace, through the intolerance and cupidity of a few?

The American constitution, the constitution of Oregon and each other state, all guarantee liberty of worship, belief, even of religious opinion. Already grossly violated by the maligners of Catholic citizenship, these foes of national peace and concord, would entirely destroy these sacred rights if possible.

Until now, Catholics and Non-Catholics in Oregon have lived in Christian harmony and friendship. But today enemies are creating hatred, prejudice, dissension. Do not allow them to succeed. Do not be one of the Jury, which after listening to the testimony of the prosecution, and having refused to hear the defendant, returned a verdict of "guilty."

Article Two to appear July 20. Persons wishing to reply to or comment upon above, or procure further information on Catholic teaching and its relations to Catholic citizenship are cordially invited to address E. E. Eberhard, Secretary Catholic Defense Guild, Drawer K, Milwaukie, Oregon.
E. E. EBERHARD, Secretary.
