Chas. M. Taylor, of Forest Grove, now in jail charged with a statutory offense against his thirteen year old stepdaughter, is being sued by Viola Taylor for divorce. She asks for $100 per month permanent alimony. Just where Taylor, who is a plumber, is to raise the $100 monthly in case the state proves its charge is not seen.

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Mackay and family departed Tuesday for San Francisco, where the Dr. will attend a clinic for a month. They are making the trip in a Hippomobile, which the Dr. had in the Saskatoon country, and which was driven down from Canada last year, making a record for light purchases of gas and oil.

Sam Schmidt, of near Laurel, was in the city Tuesday. He says winter grain is turning out medium out his way, but the Spring sowing isn't very big.

PRUNE CHAUTAUQUA

D. G. Lilly, horticultural project committeeman for Washington county, has appointed John Rames, chairman; J. F. Forbis, E. A. Rueter, H. Normandin and F. J. Lewis on a committee to make a report on matters of interest to prune growers at the third annual Washington County Prune Chautauqua, which will be held at Forest Grove, August 19.

The day will be taken up in the morning with an excursion to orchards near Forest Grove, and a mass meeting of fruit growers will be held at Forest Grove in the afternoon. Speakers from different parts of the state will be on the program.

This event last year attracted prune growers from the State of Washington and other parts of Oregon. Inquiries in regard to the Prune Chautauqua this year indicate that the attendance will be large.

County Agent.

ONE CLEAR CALL

Thousands of pedestrians and hundreds of automobiles jammed one of Los Angeles' main thoroughfares recently to see John M. Stahl film the exterior scenes for his new all-star production, "One Clear Call," the Louis B. Mayer-First National attraction which comes to the Liberty Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The location used was one of Los Angeles' old mansions on Pico street. Big, comfortable and with wide-spreading verandas and terraced lawns, it was almost a country home twenty-five years ago, but now it is nearly in the center of the business district. Irene Rich, Milton Sills, Henry B. Walthall, Joseph Dowling and Edith Yorke were among the members of the cast whose "motoring" for the benefit of the camera played havoc with Los Angeles' traffic regulations.

IN NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Weil, of Hillsboro, Oregon, are spending a few days as guests of Hotel Pennsylvania.—The Penn. Register.

Mr. Weil is East on his buying trip for the Weil Dept. Store.

C. L. Brown, of above Banks, was in town the last of the week.

O. Phelps returned the last of the week from a Hood River trip.

Henry Gurske, of Blooming, was in town Tuesday greeting friends.

Anton Hermens, of Verboort, was greeting friends in the city Tuesday morning.

Bob Banks, of Banks, was in the city the first of the week.

Bob is one of the original founders of his town and is glad of it.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Connell departed yesterday for an outing at the Dr. Wood cottage at Rockaway.

Mrs. D. W. Sine, of London, Ontario, mother of Mrs. J. T. Mackay, arrived last week and will make her home here indefinitely.

Last Saturday was one of the quietest of week-end days that Hillsboro has witnessed in many months, it being the harvest season. Very few left the fields to visit the county seat, and those who did just stopped long enough to make a few grocery purchases and then vanished for home.

John Smith, of Buxton, was unable to make a trip to Hillsboro and get his 30x3 1/2 guaranteed fabric tires for $7.75 net, so he called me up and it went by mail. You can do the same thing and I will send it by parcel post.—Feuerstein, Hillsboro Tire Shop Phone 1081W, 20 21.

Jones & Riggs probably shipped the largest consignment of green beans ever sent out from one man in the Hillsboro district, the cargo amounting to 1632 lbs. The seller was J. Pearson, of east of the city. Astoria furnished the market.

Mrs. Sylvia Tucker, of Clarkston, Wash., arrived in the city Monday evening from Newport, where she has been taking a fortnight's vacation. While in the city she was the guest of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Powell, and sister, Mrs. L. A. Long.

Campbell Bros.' ranch, a half mile east of Roy, turned out 222 bushels of Fall wheat, the product of a four-acre field. Twenty-seven acres of their wheat averaged 38 bushels per—pretty good for a lean year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Crooks and family, of Dallas, were guests over Sunday at the L. G. Freeman home. Crooks says that he sees marked progress in Hillsboro every time he makes the old town a visit.

Mrs. Bertha Brockman and three daughters, of Pontiac, Michigan, have been guests the past month of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hagle. They are very much impressed with Oregon, and hope some day to locate here.

Peterson Brothers

HILLSBORO, OREGON

The benefit dance for Pitcher Jim Case, at Huber, last Saturday night, netted the ball player about $60. Reedville knows how to take care of their players when misfortune overtakes them. Next Sunday the Reedville ball club will hold a basket dinner at Tualatin, and in the afternoon will play Tualatin a return game. You are invited to fill your basket and attend.
