Now $1275
Special-Six
Touring

SAVINGS resulting from capacity manufacture are now offered to the buyer of the Studebaker Special-Six. The new price of $1275 is $200 under its former price.

Studebaker reductions became effective August 1st after Studebaker had completed the biggest seven months in its 70 years' history. And at a time when Studebaker had 15,000 unfilled orders on hand! It is a Studebaker policy of long standing to share manufacturing savings with the customer.

The performance, durability, comfort and quality of the Special-

Six are recognized everywhere. And here's new proof of its endurance: Studebaker's sales of repair parts, covering accidents as well as service, for the first seven months of 1922 were less than they were for the first seven months of 1919, in spite of the fact that 186,000 new cars were sold and put into operation since January 1, 1920.

The Special-Six at $1275 represents a new standard of value—the greatest value Studebaker has ever offered, and that means a value that is positively unapproached anywhere in the industry.

Farmers have been busy saving their grain the past week—the beautiful weather being a god-send for those who had grain un-threshed. When Oregon fails the rest of the states had just as well close up shop.

Hide-bound party papers tell you it was a "local disturbance" when an administration man is beaten, but when one is elected they make a big noise over a "regular" winning out.

Twelve Boy Scouts, accompanied by Dr. J. H. Rossman, went to Larch Mountain, Saturday night. They motored over in the Hillsboro Trading Co. truck and walked in the last ten miles, arriving at camp at 4:30 a. m. Sunday.

When in need of radiator-hose, brake-lining, brake-lining rivets, piston rings, spark-plugs, cap screws, auto tools and accessories, come in and look over our stock. We may have just what you have been looking for.—Corwin Hardware, 1132 Second St.

C. E. Tigard, of Tigard, was up to the county seat yesterday. C. E. feels signally honored by his precinct, for at the recent primary he was elected a central committeeman on both the republican and democratic tickets.

Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Gardner and Mrs. Geo. Swinhart spent the week-end at Rockaway, and were guests at the Elmore hotel. They report that Mr. and Mrs. J. Krebs, of the Elmore, are doing a splendid business this year.

Hop Pickers Wanted—Register at yard above Mountindale, or with A. J. Hartrampf, Hillsboro. Good camping place, good water and plenty of wood. Register early.—A. J. Hartrampf, Hillsboro. 23-25

Miss Margaret Mochlenhof, who has been visiting the C. E. McFaddens for several weeks, departed the first of the week for her home in Peoria, Ill. She is very much entranced with Oregon and its fine highways.

Peaches for Sale—Crawfords, Sept. 1st; Muirs and Elbertas follow; also White Butter peaches. Buyers have privilege of bringing own boxes.—J. P. Cooper, Cornelius, R. 2. Phone Cornelius Fern 15. 25-27

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Boge, of Farmington, were Hillsboro callers Tuesday.

MRS. O. L. CURTIS

Mrs. O. L. Curtis died at the home of her mother, Mrs. L. A. Hood, August 23, 1922, after an extended illness with typhoid fever. Her maiden name was Anna Hood, and she was born near Farmington, March 5, 1874, the daughter of L. A. Hood and wife.

She was graduated from the Hillsboro schools, and on June 29, 1904, she was united in marriage to Oliver L. Curtis, with one child, L. Landon, survives. Leola, a daughter, died at the age of six years, and a son died in infancy, while they were in the Albers.

Of her immediate family she is survived by her mother, two brothers and a sister, Fred Hood and Thos. Hood, of Hillsboro, and Mrs. T. J. Humphreys, of Heppner, Oregon. Obituary next week.
