SLEIGHS HAVE INNINGS

The recent snowfall was deep enough to provide sleigh rides for those who had the necessary "pungs" as they are called in many sections of the east where there are months of sleighing. L. P. Jackson was out with his classy two-horse cutter, which has been in the Jackson family for years, and Dr. J. B. Dinmore resurrected one and gave his family a regular old-fashioned trip. The merriment was stopped by Monday night, as the rains had melted much of the snow—and it was a welcome rain at that.

ST. MATTHEWS

St. Matthews' Catholic church will celebrate special Christmas services this year. The first Mass will be held at midnight, Sunday night. There will be special music by the choir, Rosewig Mass in F, assisted by the Junior choir; second Mass at 8:30 Christmas morning, and the final Mass at 10:30 a. m.

This will be the first time in the history of St. Matthews at Hillsboro when a midnight Mass has been celebrated on Christmas morning.

G. L. Marugg, of near Tobias, below Reedville, was a city caller Monday. Accompanying him were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Marugg and Mrs. Henry Marugg's father, Julius Walter, of Battleford, Sask., Canada. The visitors will locate in Oregon, and doubtless will buy a place near Reedville. Mr. and Mrs. Marugg have four children, Walter, Henry, Colin and Anna Martha, and the parents are anxious to get located where there are good facilities for schooling.

The funeral of Mrs. Henry G. Ryan, a former resident of Hillsboro, takes place this afternoon at the Holman mortuary, in Portland. The Ryans formerly lived on Washington St., Hillsboro, near the P. R. & N. line, Mr. Ryan being in the employ of the S. P. here.

H. W. Scott, of Cherry Grove, drove in Monday and says that in his twelve years of experience as an auto driver he had the hardest time to get his machine down Patton Valley without being ditched. H. W. spent Monday night as a guest of relatives, the LaFolletts, at Cornelius.

Mr. and Mrs. John Borwick departed Tuesday afternoon for California, their objective being Fresno, where their children reside. The Argus will follow them to their new home, where they will remain some months, and perhaps permanently.

The Bethany feed chopper will run every Saturday until further notice.—A. L. Croenl. 89-45
