

CITY COUNCIL

Mayor A. C. Shute called the new administrative body together at the city hall Tuesday evening, and all newly elected officers were sworn in and settled down to business. The newly elected were the Mayor and Councilmen E. L. Johnson, Lester Ireland and J. B. Trullinger, and the hold-overs were J. H. Garrett, O. M. Phelps and A. M. Carlile.

Recorder E. L. McCormick, who succeeded himself, and W. V. Bergen, the newly elected treasurer, also took the oath of office. The mayor gave the council his message, setting forth in detail the accomplishments of the past year, which were many and fruitful. He dwelt upon the suit filed by District Attorney E. B. Tongue and complained of the fact that Mr. Tongue had not notified the city officials of the conditions before bringing suit. He stated that he believed the council would have taken up the matter to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Benton Bowman was reappointed city attorney. Carl Larsen was named to succeed himself as chief; Grant Zumwalt was retained as street commissioner; Walter Tews as night officer, and Dr. J. B. Dinmore was appointed health officer for the city.

Mayor Shute predicted a good year for the city now that the credit of Hillsboro has been placed on a sound financial basis. The mayor's committee appointments were:

Finance—Garrett, Johnson and Phelps.

Street—Trullinger, Phelps and Ireland.

Water and Light—Johnson, Carlile and Ireland.

Sanitation—Ireland, Carlile and Trullinger.

Civic Improvement—Carlile, Garrett, Johnson.

Park—Phelps, Trullinger and Garrett.

Purchasing Committee (a new one created by the mayor)—Garrett, Ireland and Johnson.

J. B. Trullinger was named as president of the council.

MRS. ELIZABETH HANLEY

Mrs. Elizabeth Hanley, widow of the late County Commissioner C. A. Hanley, died at her home at the corner of Second and Grant, Hillsboro, Jan. 4, 1923, after an illness of several weeks. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Fowler and she was born at Seaford, Ontario, Canada, Feb. 25, 1851. She was married to Chas. A. Hanley, at Seaford, Canada, Dec. 8, 1873. They came to California in 1873 and to Oregon in 1874, settling near Leisville. They lived there until a few years ago, when they moved to Hillsboro. One son, Wilfred E., passed away several years ago.

The surviving children are—Mrs. William Robb, of North Hillsboro; Francis F. Hanley, of Leisville, on the old home place, and Albert E. Hanley, of the Jolly Plains district.

Mrs. Hanley was a member of the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church. She was a devoted and loving wife and mother and had the esteem of a large circle of friends. She was also a member of the Hillsboro Grange.

Funeral arrangements will be made later.

CLUB SMOKER

The Hillsboro Club meets in special session tonight to hear reports of officers and outline the year's work. After the business session there will be boxing, a program, and other entertainment.

Jacob Schmidt, of near Laurel, was an Argus caller this morning.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Corrieri Jr., of Reedville, January 2, 1923, a son.

A still was found on the Vial place near town the last of the week. No liquor was found.

Life and accident insurance—L. J. Rushlow, Phone 2152, Office at 1332 Washington St., 47.

E. W. Dant, of Reedville, made his annual call on the home paper yesterday.

Andrew Benson, of Cornelius, was a city visitor the first of the week.

George Vanderzanden, of Banks, was down to the county seat Tuesday.

Baptist church—Sunday School at 10, preaching at 11 and 7:45; B. Y. P. U. at 7 p. m.

The funeral of W. J. Weston, of Sherwood, took place last Friday from the home.

Elmer Scott, of the River Road, below Dunzer, was a city caller this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Robinson, of Farmington, were Hillsboro callers the first of the week.

Norman Greer, traveling for a Portland wholesale house, was in the city Tuesday, interviewing customers.

Lutheran services at the United Evangelical church, Third St., at 2 p. m. Sunday School at 1:30; P. H. Schaus, pastor.

Melchior Meyer, one of the old timers of the Hillsdale section, was a court house visitor Tuesday forenoon.

Miss Lena Victor, of Portland, departed for her home Tuesday, after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. C. E. Deichman.

For Sale—Fourteen Berkshire pigs, about 4 months old. Rather sell all in bunch—Telephone Hillsboro 10R2X. 45.

Miss Beatrice Krudsen, of Portland, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Deichman, Sunday.

John Miller, oldtime restaurant man of Hillsboro, was in the city this morning, greeting friends. He is now in business in East Portland.

Mrs. J. S. Miller, of Gate, Wn., passed through town Friday, en route home from a visit at Banks. J. S. is agent for the railway at Gate.

Tom Meacham, of Banks, was in the city the other day. Tom recently dressed a shoot, 10 months and 21 days old, that tipped the beam at 425 lbs. Some pointer.

For Sale—Driving or riding mare. She is a clean looking animal and comes from good stock.—Wm. Rueter, 4 miles south of Hillsboro. Phone 5R4. 44.

The four-year-old son of Gust Erickson, of Route 3, was this week operated on by Dr. E. H. Smith, for an abscessed mastoid gland.

Mrs. Thos. Rood is convalescing nicely from a delicate operation, abdominal, performed by Dr. E. H. Smith, the first of the week.

Wanted—Gasoline drag saw. Must be in good running order, and price must be right.—Wismar & Haase, 1164 Second St., Hillsboro. Phone 492. 46.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willers, who made a short visit with the Willers and Campbell families during the holidays, have returned to their home in Bend.

For Rent—Three furnished housekeeping rooms; newly kalamined, in first class condition.—Inquire at 947 Sixth Street, Hillsboro. 46.

OWNERLESS "HOSS"

Down to the north of Witch Hazel is a stray horse which has been giving the residents a great deal of annoyance. The equine is a bay, aged 8 or 9 years, and he has no owner—at least no one claims him. Meantime the Mazeppa is helping himself to kale and orchard boughs regardless of ownership. A high fence has no stoppel powers as he can clear the highest in the community at a clean clearance. He fills himself on the provender intended for dairy stock and is waxing fat. No one can get near enough to him to attach him to the nether end of a halter and no one wants to shoot him for he might have a damage bill to pay. The residents are considering making a "roundup" day and landing him, but no one wants to take care of him. The horse had a bad wire cut when he came into the community but this has nicely healed. It is thought by some that the horse might have broken away from the roundup outfit which was here last fall. The sheriff's office has been notified and it is hoped by the sufferers that the horse will soon be caught. Sheriff Alexander is thinking of turning the job over to Weckert and Stockdale, as it will take a brace of motor cycles to land him—or a flying machine.

COUNTY COURT

Washington county organized a new county court this week—that is to say it started off the new year with a new commissioner. F. W. Livermore was sworn and duly installed as a member of the board of commissioners' court. Mr. Livermore has been a property holder in the Huber neighborhood for many years and has also been in business at Huber. He succeeded John Ireland, of Forest Grove, whose term expired the first of the year.

Clerk Henry Kuratli reported fines and fees collected in December amounting to $2917.05, while Recorder Davis reported fee collections in the sum of $505.70.

The court has made an order limiting the weight of loads, including the vehicles as follows:

On Roads Nos. 227, 245, and 429 total weights of load and vehicle, 6,000. These orders continue in force until further order of the court. County Road 319 is listed at 3500 lbs.

SERENADERS PLEASE

Oswald's Seven Serenaders from O. A. C. furnished the music for about 300 persons at the last Saturday night dance of the season, at the Shute Park auditorium, December 30, in spite of the rain.

A larger number of townspeople attended than usual, and praises of the Oregon Agricultural college premier orchestra are heard everywhere, and it is hoped that they will soon play a return engagement. Many college students, who never miss an opportunity of hearing the famous orchestra, were here from Portland and the valley points. The stunts of the orchestra produced "pep" in all.

The Serenaders have signed a contract to make records for the Brunswick people in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Oswald, who manage the orchestra and teach dancing, hope to take the musicians on a tour of the East next year.

WES BARRY AT LIBERTY

Wesley Barry, the freckle-faced lad of fifteen, known the world over in screendom, will be at the Liberty Theatre, Friday and Saturday, in "Rags to Riches." This new photoplay gives young Barry a fine vehicle for his brilliant histrionic ability. His rise from the ragged street urchin to a young chap of affairs is a fine depiction of enterprising young America, and he meets dangers as casually as though he were ordering a meal from an obsequious waiter. The comedy in the play is excellent and becomes Barry's peculiar style of expression.

There will be the usual matinee Saturday afternoon. If you like Wesley at all, you'll be sure to love him when you see this picture.

ANNUAL MEETING

The Christian church will hold its annual meeting next Sunday, Jan. 7.

Bible School at 10; morning worship at 11 a. m. Work of the church for the coming year will be outlined. Basket dinner for all at 12 o'clock. Devotional and Baptismal service at 2 p. m. Junior and Intermediate Endeavor at 6:45.

Evening service will be dismissed on account of the Union Service.—Len B. Fishback, minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Connell, of Portland, were in the city New Year's day, guests of the families of the Connell brothers, Joseph, Tom and John, and the sister, Mrs. W. D. Wood.

H. A. Murphy, wife and daughter, Miss Eulah, spent New Year with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Walker, and departed Tuesday morning for Southern California, where they will spend the winter. They will return to Anchorage, Alaska, where Mr. Murphy has interests. Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Murphy are sisters and the visit was enjoyed by both families. Mr. Murphy says that Anchorage is a lively town, about the size of Hillsboro, although, of course, being a railway base, it has a much larger volume of business. There are in the little Alaskan town twenty-seven pool halls, all of which are doing a thriving business, an index of a large number of working men who have no families. He thinks that Anchorage has quite a future.

Resolve this year to join the ranks of Dr. Thompson's many satisfied patrons and have your eyes examined and glasses fitted at home. Regular monthly service for the past five years. Next visit, Tuesday, Jan. 9, Washington Hotel all day.

W. T. Sellers, of Banks, thinks he has evolved the real sign of a Chinook, and he says it is the hooting of a grouse. The other day, before the warm wave broke, he heard Mr. Grouse practicing on his slide trombone and within a few hours the temperature changed to warmer and then came the warm rains and winds, and the deluge. W. T. thinks that the grouse was playing his overture for early spring.

For Sale—Two dozen purebred Barred Plymouth Rock pullets; good laying strains. Also four Indian Runner ducks and ten Buff Orpington ducks and two drakes. Also big fat hog—Lot Butler, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 5. Phone, 2568, Hillsboro central. 45.

J. M. Mills, of Manning, was in the city Tuesday morning. J. M. is a native of Oregon and was born 71 years ago last February, on a farm, which is now covered with Portland city blocks. He has seen winters of all kinds, and can remember when teams carried loads across the Willamette river when it was ice-bound. "But give me the good old Oregon rain," says Mr. Mills.

For Sale—Five White Rock cocks, from eggs of 221-267 pen trapped Stark strain hens mated to Daniel's "Ideal" W. R. winner at 1920 Pacific International. Also some very good cockerels.—H. Scheurman, Cornelius, Ore., R. 2. 43-45.

James Patterson, of the Bellingham country, came over the last of the week and spent New Year with his brother, Norbert Patterson, and family. He reports the mill business good over on the Sound and says that mills have more orders than they can fill and more business than they can get cars to carry.

Stray Horses—I have two stray horses at my ranch; aged about 9 years; one brown and the other bay; weigh 1100 and 1200.—C. D. Farnham, Hillsboro, R. 1; Box 17. 43-45.

M. P. Cady, the Dodge dealer, has taken over the Service Garage, succeeding W. C. Gregory. He expects to carry a stock of accessories and will also handle cars. B. C. Shipley, who had his Durant office in the Service, has rented quarters one door north of the Oregon Electric depot—his old stand.

Wanted—Alder, maple and ash logs, 8 inches in diameter up to 8 feet and over in length; or will buy in stump, close to transportation.—Mr. Reed, 1586 Milton St., Portland, Ore. 47.

B. L. Taylor, of Snohomish, Wash., has purchased the Sugar Bowl confectionery from J. W. Ellis, who succeeded the Koebers. Mr. Taylor has taken possession. Mr. Ellis expects to remain in Hillsboro and enter another line of business.

Miss Pearl Allen, teaching in the Wasco high school, spent the week-end with Mrs. Emma McKinney. Mrs. D. M. Escott, of Portland, was also a Sunday visitor at the McKinney home. She leaves soon for her old home in England.

Geo. McGee, who has been in charge of state highway work the past year, was down from Timber yesterday and started to Southern Oregon last evening. On the way south he will stop and confer with the highway commission general office in Salem.

H. B. Dauchy, who has been working at Banks and vicinity for several weeks, returned Monday from a trip to visit his home folks over near Battle Ground, Wash. He went on out to Banks Monday morning.

R. A. Herrington, of Forest Grove, was greeting friends here Saturday. R. A. says he can't get along without the county paper and backs his estimate up by advancing his payment for 18 months.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Haskell, of near Cedar Mill, were Hillsboro callers the last of the week and remembered the Argus in their visits.

"WAY DOWN EAST"

"Way Down East" will be on the silver screen at the Liberty, Monday and Tuesday evenings. This is the photoplay that has followed the legitimate drama that held millions in old days before the motion picture plays succeeded the spoken word on stages. "Way Down East," in its quaintness, its heart warmings, its delineation of the "down east" character, and all that goes with it, has had a wonderful favor with American theatre goers and the silver sheet gives it as grippingly as the best of the legitimate in the days that are gone. To miss this show will be to miss one of the hits of the past year.

RED CROSS MEETING

A meeting of the Red Cross will be held next Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Library lower floor, for election of officers, and other business. Everybody is requested to attend.

Frank J. Overroeder, of Elmonica, was a city visitor today.

Mrs. Edna Russell, of Oregon City, visited in town today.

Wanted—To buy a used piano. Phone 1132. 44-45.

Welch & Rasmussen have sold their grocery to two Caldwell, Idaho grocers, W. E. Miars and Ross McPherson.

Mrs. L. W. Hyde, president of the Coffee Club, yesterday entertained officers and heads of committees of the club to a luncheon.

Bayfield Pooley, of Eugene, was in the city the last of the week. Mrs. H. R. Emmott returned to Eugene with him and will spend a week with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Olsen spent Christmas week with their daughter, Mrs. C. O. Thomas, of Vernonia. Mrs. Thomas returned with them and enjoyed New Year's at the parental home.

To Exchange—Fine 3-year-old full-blood Holstein heifer to trade for horse.—W. W. Carey, near Hazeldale. Address, Beaverton, R. 4. 44-46.

For Sale—Pure-bred Rhode Island Red March cockerels. Won first prize at State Fair this year. Will sell reasonable. Phone 965 and get directions to place.—E. B. Watts, Hillsboro, R. 4. 44.

C. C. Wight, of near Cornelius, was in the city the last of the week.

O'DONNELL—RUSHLOW

Miss Marie Rushlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rushlow, of Hillsboro, was united in marriage to Felix O'Donnell, in Portland, Jan. 3, 1923, Judge Geo. W. Stapleton officiating. They will make their home at Banks.

THE IRON TRAIL

Rex Beach's famous "Iron Trail" will be filmed at the Liberty, Sunday only, matinee at 2:30 and evening showing at 6:30. Rex Beach is too well known to an American audience to need any introduction. His stories of the sixty below zero country are always splendid, for all know that Rex Beach has been North and appreciates the type of men and women who invade the Yukon section. The "Iron Trail" covers all the episodes of the North that go to make the blood tingle—and no one is Beach's master in this regard.
