SOUTH TUALATIN CLUB

The South Tualatin club will meet March 7 for an all-day session, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Rucker, Miss Marjorie Smith, of O. A. C., will demonstrate in the conduct of a luncheon. All interested are invited.

Two families want to rent two improved farms adjoining or close to each other, each place big enough to care for from 15 to 20 head dairy stock; also would consider one big place, from 25 to 35 head of cows capacity, provided there are two separate dwellings.—Address A. VanOsten, Hillsboro, Oregon, R. 5, Box 31. 51-52

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Reynolds were over from Newberg Tuesday night, guests of the Geo. E. Allens.

J. W. Connell motored over to Tillamook yesterday, on business, returning this evening.

Mrs. J. T. Anderson entertained the Ladies' Aid of Farmington, Feb. 7. Mrs. G. Laughlin presiding. After the usual routine of business, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. Boge, Mrs. Laughlin and Mrs. Martin. Twelve members and the following guests were present—Mrs. Ross Jack and children, Mrs. M. C. Grover and children, Mrs. J. Wilson, Mrs. D. L. Weston, Mrs. F. Clark and Miss Ina Road. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. J. Boge, March 7.—Cor. Sec.

Mrs. Rebecca Wilkes, who has been absent several months, visiting in Oklahoma, Colorado, and at Chico, Calif., returned home Monday night, and is being welcomed by her many Hillsboro friends. Like all who have lived in Washington county, she is glad to get back to old Oregon.

G. A. Wilcox and Geo. A. Eastterday, of Cornelius, were Argus callers yesterday afternoon.

OLANIE—MERCIER

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Reverend E. C. Craven, East Thirty-sixth St. Portland, February 14, 1923, when Howard C. Olanie and Miss Edna May Mercier were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the Reverend Craven officiating.

The bride couple entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march.

Miss Esther Hendrickson was bridesmaid and Otto Cahill was best man.

After congratulations, a reception was held in the drawing room, after which the assembly repaired to the banquet hall, where they enjoyed a sumptuous wedding supper, merriment reigning supreme.

The decorations were of ivy and red hearts, intermingled with various colored draperies.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Olanie departed amid showers of blessings and good wishes for a happy voyage on the sea of matrimony.

The bride is the granddaughter of Rev. E. C. Craven, who thirty years ago lived in Hillsboro and held a pastorate in the Methodist church in Cornelius.

The newly-weds departed Thursday morning for Bend, Oregon, where they will make their home. Both bride and groom are graduates of the Hillsboro high school and have a host of Hillsboro friends who tender congratulations.

VALENTINO COMING

Rodolph Valentino, the star who featured in the "Sheik," is again coming to the Liberty and will be screened Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of the coming week. He stars this time in "Blood and Sand," in a Paramount picture, and critics say that it is one of the best he has turned out. Valentino makes a big hit in a romantic love story and he is ably seconded by Lila Lee, who plays the part of modesty and meekness in one character, and in another excels as a tempestuous daughter of Spain.

The photo play has plenty of action, such as characterizes every play in which Valentino appears, and the public is assured of something big in the production. Usual matinee Sunday afternoon.

There is no use disguising the fact that all the world is today deploring the defeat of the Versailles treaty, for with its adoption chaos would have been turned into order on the European continent. No thinking person denies that the ideas advanced in the Versailles document hastened the granting of liberty to Ireland and that person who questions the worth of the treaty in perspective simply takes the attitude that honest effort is never worth while. With all the powers subscribed to such a treaty we should have had peace and harmony in the world and the wrath and wrath of war prostrated. When Uncle Sam balked it destroyed a large per cent of its worth.

CITY COUNCIL

The city council met last night, with J. B. Trullinger presiding in the absence of Mayor Shute, who is still indisposed.

An ordinance was passed, determining the city charge for permit and survey for sidewalk improvement. The charge was fixed at $5 up to fifty feet of proposed improvement and then $1 for each fifty feet or fraction thereof.

It was also voted to invest the $2368 of the annual collection for the sinking fund to retire the $64,000 bonds of the city. The fund will be loaned annually at 5 1/2 per cent compounded, and in ten years the $23,680 paid into the fund will amount to $32,000. The loan will be continued on after that date, and the council figures that this method of doing business, including the saving on the bond issue in interest over the old charge, Hillsboro at the end of 20 years, when the bonds are to be retired, will have saved $55,000. Which, in itself, is some considerable sum of money.

G. A. R. AND W. R. C.

The memories of Washington, Lincoln and McKinley were revived and their birthdays celebrated on February 16, by the G. A. R. and W. R. C. ladies and a number of invited guests.

A real good dinner was the first on the program, which all enjoyed. After the dinner we listened to some splendid talks on the lives of the past presidents a song, pantomime and reading, with inspiring instrumental music sandwiched in between the numbers.

The only thing that dimmed the pleasant time was the absence of many familiar faces—some have gone on before to their final home; some were sick, and others could not come on account of the snow and bad roads.

All seemed to enjoy the day and were glad to be there.

CHAMBER NOTES

At a regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, Thursday night, the new by-laws and constitution, as prepared by L. T. McPheeters, R. Frank Peters and E. L. Moore, were adopted. The membership fee was reduced to $5 for active members. Mr. Austin submitted a letter in regard to the issuing of auto licenses in Hillsboro for 1924.

Mr. Cale reported the billiard tournament as nearly concluded, and the winners will be announced next week.

The club voted thanks to the Woodman Band for their music at the last session.

ANNIVERSARY

On February 14, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gates celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary, at their home two miles northwest of the county seat, by giving a dinner to eighteen guests. The table was decorated with white hyacinths as a center-piece and red cupids and hearts graced the plates. The hearts were also prettily trimmed in white with small red hearts. The evening was enjoyed with games and conversation and the guests departed at a late hour, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Gates many happy returns of the day.

WALNUTS—FILBERTS

The walnut and filbert growers' meeting at Forest Grove, last Saturday, was attended by over one hundred people.

Filbert culture was discussed by Dr. Nixon, of Forest Grove, who pointed out many of his experiences, and by J. E. Forbes, of Dilley, who likewise gave information to save the novice mistakes.

Ferd Groner, of Scholls, in speaking of the English walnut industry, compared California conditions where walnut land ranges in price from $2000.00 to $4000.00 per acre, with seeding walnut orchard walnut values in the neighborhood of $1700.00 per acre. In addition, Mr. Groner pointed out an irrigation charge of $12.00 to $15.00 per acre under California conditions, and that there were a large number of "stick tight's."

Chas. Trunk, of Dundee, Oregon, read a paper on walnut industry in the Willamette Valley and gave quite a discussion on grafting, using prepared grafts for the purpose.

A vote of thanks was tendered Pacific University for the use of the buildings for the meeting place. The assembly voted to hold a similar nut growers' meeting annually. —County Agent.

MRS. SARAH WOLF

Mrs. Sarah Frances Wolf, of near Scholls, died February 20, 1923. She was born March 30, 1842, and at death was aged 81 years.

The cause of her death was paralysis. She had resided at Scholls about 13 years. She is survived by the following sons and daughters—Wm. J. Wolf, Holly, Michigan; Chas. A. Wolf, of Washington, D. C.; Luke Wolf, Taft, Oregon; Mrs. Helena E. Miller and Miss Lucy Wolf, Scholls, and Mrs. Lilly Bones, of Newberg.

The funeral took place today, at 2 p. m., from the home, and interment was in the Mountaineer cemetery, Glenn F. Bell directing. Rev. J. F. Coleman officiated at the last rites.

Alfred Heywood, of West Baseline, was in town Tuesday.

The Argus goes to press a day early this week to observe George Washington's birthday.

Carl Asbahr, of South Tualatin, was in the city the last of the week.

Mrs. C. Millet, of beyond North Plains, was in the city Tuesday and called on the home paper.

A. W. Walker is driving a new Star car, bought from Bert C. Shipley.

Byron Garrett has taken a position as secretary-manager of the Oregon City Commercial Club.

Oscar Kelsey, of Portland, was out to Hillsboro Tuesday, a guest of Chief Larsen.

L. C. Hoefel, of near Witch Hazel, is convalescing nicely after a severe illness.

Geo. Holscher, oldtime sawmill man of Cornelius, was shaking hands with Hillsboro friends the first of the week.

The E. J. Sherman logging camp started falling again this week, after a shut down of several days, due to excessive snow.

There will be a Silver Tea at the home of Mrs. O. J. Briggs, at 1437 Baseline St., Friday afternoon of this week, given by the W. H. M. S. of the M. E. church.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Garthofner were Linnton visitors yesterday. Mr. Garthofner formerly sawmilled in the city across from St. Johns.

For Sale—Several head horses, all broke; work anywhere; 1400 to 1600, and from 3 to 6 years old.—J. W. Meier, mile southeast of Hillsboro, this side of Newton. 51-1

Mrs. J. T. Young arrived home Friday, after an absence of several weeks at Spokane and Portland, visiting with her children. While at Spokane Mrs. Young was quite ill, but is now feeling much improved in health.

Dr. J. P. Tamesie, of Portland, was out to the city Tuesday, on business. Dr. Tamesie still owns a big lot of Hillsboro property, two of his uptown structures being the Washington Hotel building and the structure across the street, occupied by Lester Ireland and the Chamber of Commerce.

Hugh S. Rogers returned this week from Marshfield. He states that Pete Lorusung has been appointed bridge inspector and bridge foreman for the entire Coos county. Jos. Lorusung, the father, has two crews of men moving houses and building bridges, occasionally.

Mrs. Nettie Rice and son, Bert K. Rice, of Los Angeles, leave for home in a few days, after an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown and family. Mrs. Rice is a sister of Mrs. Brown. Bert is working for the Pacific Electric at Los Angeles, and makes the fourth Rice son who has been employed by the big street and suburban railway company.
