

ROTARIANS GET CHARTER

Rotarians from Portland and McMinnville met with Hillsboro Rotarians last evening to assist in final organization of the Hillsboro Rotary Club. They met in the new Baptist church basement, and dinner was served at 6:30 by the ladies of the church. Wm. Macy, of McMinnville, presided, the principal address being made by Frank Lamb, of Hoquiam, who presented Dr. J. H. Rossman with the new charter. Rossman made a short speech of acceptance. The song leader for the evening was Geo. Sardan, of McMinnville, assisted by Mrs. Sardan at the piano. Dr. Stryker, of McMinnville, talked on organization of Rotary Clubs, and the McMinnville quartet sang two numbers. Portland Rotarians present were Past Presidents Roy Speer, Roy Ellison; Pres. R. A. Stewart, and Secretary Walter Whiting. Telegrams congratulatory were received from Astoria and Salem. While the new club is one of the smallest in the state, the members are enthusiastic in promoting the general welfare of the city.

The officers are Dr. J. H. Rossman, president; J. H. Garrett, secretary. Frank Peters closed the meeting with a short talk on "Impressions of Rotary Work."

TOM MEIGHAN COMING

Tom Meighan, always assured of an appreciative fandom at the Liberty, will be in Hillsboro Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, in Geo. Ade's "Back Home and Broke." Meighan surpasses himself in his depiction of this story of American life, showing how people toady to the millionaire but turn up their "snouts" at the man who is supposed to be "broke." This is one of the finest showings of "snobbery" as suffered by many people who acquire a bean or two to the good and then look askance at the poor devil who meets financial disaster. Anyway, Meighan's character isn't broke, but there were many who thought so, and the way he turned the tables on the supercilious "taff hunters" is valuable from many standpoints. As an educator showing human nature at its smallest, and the remedy for the malady, Meighan's offering is O. K.

"Fighting Blood," one of H. C. Witwer's stories, filmed at its best, accompanies the foregoing for the three days. Witwer writes for the Colliers' and his work is fine—and so is the photoplay, which, by the way is not a serial.

M. W. A. SMOKER

A real fire department out fighting flames and saving lives—taken from a real occurrence—makes the picture one of the most realistic offered the public for months.
