WALTER HIERS

The story of a fat man and a thin dime will be on the screen at the Liberty Theatre, Friday and Saturday—and for pure comedy, along with thrills, Walter Hiers, in "Mr. Billings Spends His Last Dime," has exceeded the speed limit as compared with other comedians. The fat man spends his last ten cent piece for a cigar—and after that things begin to happen, and they happen faster than a government airplane making a coast to coast flight with Uncle Sam's registered mail. Billings was a ribbon clerk when things changed their course—and he became a traveler, a revolutionist, a financier, and everything that goes to make life one grand, sweet song—and Mr. Billings arrives here Friday evening and will hold a matinee Saturday afternoon and jump the town after the evening filming. To see him is to cure both mental and physical illness. The picture is a Paramount—and that means a good picture.

CHAS. CRANCE

Charles Crance, of Cornelius, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, August 26, 1923, after a short illness. He was born at Ironton, Ohio, January 23, 1867, and came to Oregon in 1894. He entered the employ of the Southern Pacific Co. and was section foreman at Cornelius for many years. He was united in marriage to Drusilla Montgomery, August 7, 1907. He is survived by his widow; also a sister and seven brothers, all of whom reside in the East, excepting one brother, who lives in Texas.

Mr. Crance was a member of the Odd Fellows and the Masonic fraternity, the Masons having charge of the funeral, which took place at Cornelius, Wednesday, from the Cornelius M. E. church. Interment was in the Cornelius cemetery.

METHODIST CHURCH

"The Man Up a Tree" will be the topic at the evening service next Sunday. Zacharias was one man up a tree, but there may be others, and whether there are or not, his experience is food for profitable thought. In the morning the pastor will discuss the Bible's teaching regarding the power of Confession, Baptism, and Prayers to Save. We are constantly trying to make each service of the church a profitable service—profitable in teaching practical religion, profitable in enlarging the vision of, and the opportunity for, Christian service, and profitable in friendships. In fact, a sort of profit-sharing gathering and you are welcome. —The Pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peters, of above Mountindale, were in town the last of the week. While Peters and family were motoring home from the Liberty Theatre a few nights ago, they almost ran into a big buck near the San Raffety place, on the Dairy Creek road. Peters says he thinks the big fellow was down from the hills, having a visit with Sam's dairy herd—either that or he was one of the pets that Raffety has staked out near his ranch.

When in need of a monument marker, or posts, or cemetery work of any nature, whether purchased by yourself or through the Woodmen or any lodge, it will be to your interest to consult Lewis & Co., as they will give you a better value for your money than anywhere else—in fact they can save you considerable on any purchase. 21-1f

Divorces filed—Lucy E. Gees vs. Gilbert Gee for divorce, alleging a sullen disposition on the part of the spouse. She asks $25 per month alimony; all the furniture which was bought by plaintiff and brought from the East. Allie Ray Wolf wants separation from Fred Wolf, the complaint stating that they have lived apart for four years. They were married in 1902 back in Iowa.

Engraving orders for calling cards, wedding invitations, announcements and monograms will now be taken at the Argus. Call and see the samples. A complete line of samples will be shown and your engraving done at reasonable prices.

Mrs. C. H. Sherwood, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. E. Brown, departed for her home at Long Beach, Cal., Friday. J. E. Rice and family, of Alhambra, Cal. are now guests at the Brown home. Mr. Rice is a nephew of Mrs. Brown.

For Sale—Some thoroughbred White Leghorn pullets, March and April hatch, well developed, and good stock.—Chas. Fager, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 4; 1 1/2 miles east of Hillsboro, on Baseline road. 26-28

Hillsboro Legion Post is to make a concerted effort to get the 1924 Legion convention for this city. With the big auditorium and the fine grove, with its open spaces, Hillsboro would make an ideal convention city for the veterans.

Building lots for sale, close in.—For further information, write Owner, care Argus. 25-1f
