

ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATED HERE MONDAY

Parade, Program, Drills, Addresses, Football Game

HILLSBORO v. McMinnville

Dance at Shute Park Auditorium in Evening Ends Festivities

Ex-service men of all wars will take part in the parade and festivities at Hillsboro next Monday, the official Washington County Armistice Day, according to those in charge of the arrangements. Hillsboro Post No. 6 of the American Legion will act as host for visiting service men and their families and friends on that day.

Several thousand persons are expected to be in the county seat to celebrate the end of the world's greatest war. Not only will the Auxiliary take part, but the Grand Army of the Republic, the Relief Corps, the Spanish-American war veterans, the Boy Scouts, the Girl Reserves and the Oregon Military Institute will help put across one of the best Armistice Day celebrations ever held in Washington county.

Taps will be sounded promptly at 11 o'clock and this will be followed by a period of silence. The parade will be formed immediately afterward and will consist of uniformed and ununiformed men and women, young and old, veterans of all wars and veterans no doubt of future wars. The parade will form on Lincoln street, north of the court house and will return to the speakers' stand on the court yard.

B. Frank Peters of the firm of Hare, McAlear & Peters, will be the speaker of the day and it is expected that a message of real worth to all Americans will be given. Several musical numbers and an invocation will precede the address of the day.

"When Do We Eat," the old familiar war song, will be heard when the veterans line up for the lunch served by the Ladies' Auxiliary and friends, in the Baptist church basement, to all ex-service men of any war and their families.

Three squads of cadets from the Oregon Military Institute, arrayed in full-marching order, will put on some drills for the benefit of the veterans, and according to those who have seen them in action they can put on drills with the precision of seasoned veterans. A football classic between two of the strongest inter-scholastic eleven in the state, Hillsboro high and McMinnville high, will be the main attraction, following the cadet drill at 2 o'clock on the high school field.

Any Legion or Auxiliary member, holding 1923 membership cards, will be admitted free to the picture show through the courtesy of O. Phelps of the Liberty theater.

The Big Armistice Day Ball will be the last event on the celebration program and it is expected that hundreds will be in attendance from every part of the county.

That as many ex-service men as possible come in uniform is urged by the various posts throughout the county. Forest Grove, Banks, Aloha, Beaverton and Sherwood are expected to be here with large delegations. Many business houses are planning to close in order to help celebrate the fifth anniversary of the ending of the great war.

ARMISTICE DAY LUNCHEON

The Auxiliary to Legion Post No. 6 will serve a luncheon at noon during the Armistice Day celebration to the veterans and families, in the basement of the new Baptist church, north of the court yard. Relatives and friends of the veterans have also donated toward this luncheon, and anyone wishing to contribute may call a member of the committee in charge—Mrs. C. W. Rollins, Mrs. Elizabeth Moller, Mrs. Fred Engeldinger. All contributions will be gratefully received by the Auxiliary.

The Girl Reserve members will assist about the tables. Auxiliary members and others donating are requested to bring the food to the church by 10 a. m. Members are urged to be in the parade. The line of march will not be long.

The Auxiliary will also have the concession at the Auditorium during the dance and the funds derived from this will be used for their relief work.

SCHOLLS PLACES IN SHOW

Calf Club Takes Fifth in Livestock Judging Contest

The Scholls Calf club took fifth place in competition with 26 other teams from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California in the fifth annual livestock judging contest at the Pacific International Livestock show. Frank Peters, Waldo Flint and Elmer Koenig were the members of the Scholls team.

The scores of the winning teams were close and the Scholls team is said to have done very consistent work. The Scholls community has a right to feel proud of the work of this team in such a large contest, according to those who attended.

Mrs. A. B. Flint, leader of the Scholls Calf club, is said to be doing excellent work and has accomplished much as a community leader of Boys' and Girls' club work.

FINDS VALUABLE RELIC

A. B. Schoonover of Cornelius was in town the last of the week and brought the Argus some beeswax candles that he had found over on Beeswax flat, at the mouth of the Nehalem. There is one perfect specimen showing the wick. This is said to be the first one found with the wick showing. In other the wick is gone. He found them after a big storm and the sand had shifted. The Beeswax flat is thought to be evidence of the wreck of an old Spanish ship, three years ago and contains an old Indian legend. There has been beeswax there as long as Indian history goes.

AUTO CARAVAN OF 75 VISITS STOCK SHOW

Many Sections Represented on Washington County Day

30 CARS FROM HILLSBORO

Expedition Sponsored by Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce

A caravan of nearly 75 automobiles from Washington county left from in front of the chamber of commerce rooms this morning at 9, to attend Washington county day at the Pacific International Livestock show. The delegation started from Forest Grove, with delegations from Banks, Gaston, and other places. Sheriff George Alexander led the procession and Cornelius joined on the way.

The procession was met at Third and Baseline by the traffic officers and conducted to the chamber of commerce, where the caravan was joined by nearly 30 county seat cars. Other parts of the county caravan were met along the line. Hillsboro and the others were joined by Oreoro, North Plains, Reelville and Beaverton.

The caravan and Washington County Day were arranged by a committee from the Hillsboro chamber of commerce consisting of Harry Hill, D. Robb, Reuben Weil and Ed. L. Moore. The various towns were visited by the committee and cooperation was received in every place. Forest Grove furnished the caravan from their part of the county.

There will be no meeting of the chamber of commerce this evening inasmuch as the Washington county day was sponsored by the Hillsboro chamber and will occupy the entire day and evening.

A publicity committee for Apple Week was appointed at the last meeting of the chamber and consists of E. M. Calef, M. H. Stevenson and L. J. Merrill. Dr. Hyde reported on Father and Son Week and asked the support of all in putting across something worth while for the boys. Those who are not so fortunate as to have sons have been asked to be a foster "Daddy" to some fatherless boy.

That the 1924 Corn and Potato show should be held on a more larger scale was urged by County Agent O. T. McWhort, who reported on the success of the 1923 or baby show.

A committee from the chamber was appointed and met with the American Legion to take up the matter of organizing a company of Oregon National Guard here in Hillsboro. The support of this measure was urged upon all.

Important information concerning the governing of out-of-town agents, peddlers and solicitors, who are continually visiting Hillsboro, was presented by City Attorney Benton Bowman. He said that under the present ordinance it was almost impossible to prevent this, but that a new ordinance should be made, making these persons pay a reasonable license.

Records from the offices of the judge and the sheriff, giving the number of arrests for traffic violations and the fines imposed were presented by Judge Smith, Sheriff Alexander, Chief of Police Larson and Deputy Weekert. This report showed many flagrant violations of the traffic laws, and that no heavy penalties had been paid for speed violations, in fact none in excess of $15. The report showed that these officers had showed leniency and had been unjustly criticized many times for their enforcing of the law.

New members added to the chamber were H. J. Adams and L. M. Hesse.

LAW VIOLATORS FINED

Three men were fined in justice court by Judge Smith this week for game violations. C. A. Watson of Buxton was arrested November 3, for having blue grouse in his possession, and fined $50 and costs. Ferdinand Schmidt was fined $50 for hunting without an alien license and $25 for hunting on a game refuge north of town. Albert Schmidt was fined $50 for shooting from a public highway and $25 for hunting in the game refuge.

Alfred Morgan, C. Blaser and granddaughter, Miss Eva Everest, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wade Everest, at their home on Sauvies Island. The gentlemen enjoyed the fishing very much, but did not report their luck.

THOMPSON CASE STUDIED

Question of Pardon Not to be Decided for Several Weeks

Salem, Ore., Nov. 2.—(Special.)—Whether Bennett Thompson, now serving a life term in the Oregon state penitentiary for a double murder committed in Washington county, will be recommended for pardon, will not be determined for several weeks, according to George L. Smith, state parole officer.

Mr. Smith is now conducting an investigation of the Thompson case to determine whether the prisoner is entitled to executive clemency. It was said that District Attorney Tongue and other officials of Washington county will oppose the pardon. The investigation of the case was ordered by Governor Pierce.

Thompson, at the time of the recent fire at the state penitentiary, was said to have saved the institution power plant single-handed.—Oregonian.

INCOME TAX MEASURE CARRIED IN COUNTY

Late State Returns Point to Possible Victory

GOES OVER TWO TO ONE

Little Interest Taken—Only About One-third Voting

The income tax carried in Washington county nearly two to one. The result from the 46 precincts showed a total of 2540 for the tax and 1471 against. Although the early returns from different parts of the state indicated that the measure would be defeated, latest returns from up-state point to a possible victory inasmuch as many precincts had not been heard from in outlying districts.

Little interest was shown in the voting either in Washington county or other parts of the state. Hardly one-third of the registered voters in Hillsboro exercised their right to vote and the percentage was much less in the outlying districts. There are 14,848 registered voters in Washington county and the total ballot was only 4,030, 19 of these being thrown out because of technicalities.

Many ways of voting were discovered by the election boards one man signed his name to the ballot, another turned in a ballot without marking it in any way.

There was little evidence in Hillsboro Tuesday to show that it was election day. When one went to the polls there was no waiting in line and in very few cases there was but one in at a time. The counting was complete within a very few minutes after the polls closed at 8 o'clock.
