

BAPTIST CHURCH

(Robert Gale Kay, Pastor)

First Baptist church Bible School at 9:45 a. m.; preaching service at 11 a. m.; Intermediate and Senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:45 p. m.; sermon and evening worship at 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 7:45.

METHODIST CHURCH

(M. A. Marcy, Minister)

Is it enough that your wife and daughter go to church; that the youngsters go to Sunday School and that you donate freely to the church? Frankly, now isn't it? Can you do your work by proxy? Can you love, eat, sleep or die by proxy? Then can you worship God unless you yourself do it? Talks who worship in person are the ones who have made the world morally solvent.

Sunday School at 9:45 a. m., using the graded lessons. Junior church hour at 10:40, followed by the sermon hour at 11. Intermediate and Senior Leagues meet at 6:30 p. m. Evening worship at 7:30. Choir practice regularly on Wednesday evenings. Junior Epworth League Thursday at 4 p. m. Midweek service and Teachers Training class at 7:30 a. m., 8:15 respectively, on Thursday. These are services which you may enjoy at the "Church With a Friendly Greeting."

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

(H. A. Deek, Minister)

The Bible School meets at 9:45 a. m. At 11 a. m. worship and sermon, topic, "The Heart Cry of Lord's Prayer." The young folks have charge of the evening service. The topic for consideration will be "Courage Needed Today." Laura Deek, leader. These Sunday evening services have been growing in interest.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Len B. Fishback, Minister)

This week is "Five Spot" week in the Christian Sunday School. You are to try to spot out five people who were not present last Sunday and bring them to Sunday School. The sermon subject for Sunday morning will be "Voices of Jesus." The Junior and Intermediate Endeavor meets at 6:45 each Sunday evening. The evening sermon subject will be "Things That Keep Us From God." The male quartet of the Radiator Class will sing at the evening service.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

(P. H. Schaas, Pastor)

Trinity Evangelist Lutheran church, Third and Fir streets. Sunday services at 2:30 p. m. Sunday School at 1:45.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

All Saints Mission Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity. Sunday School at 10; Holy Communion and sermon at 11 o'clock. The Rev. E. H. Clark will be celebrant.

The Ladies Guild of All Saints Mission will hold the regular meeting Friday, November 9, at 2:30 p. m., at the Mission house. Archdeacon Black will be present and will discuss some important matters with the ladies.

How about a good, warm blanket to keep Old Jack Frost from nipping your toes? The C. C. Store has a lot to spare.

J. H. Wescott of Gaston was in town Tuesday.

National Mazda electric lamps. Corwin Hardware.

Albert Bunning of Cornelius recently returned from a trip to Germany.

H. H. Carey was in from North Plains the first of the week. He says that Mrs. Nancy Johnson is pending the winter at Riddle, Oregon, with her son, Ralph, and family.

Miss Katherine Collins came down from Corvallis the first of the week for an indefinite visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Collins.

J. E. Burnett of Backs was in town Wednesday. He lost a couple of horses recently and according to the evidence thinks that they may have been stolen.

Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wood motored over to Longview Sunday to give the new city the "once over." Jim says it is some town.

Popular athletic equipment for this season of the year, footballs, basketballs, indoor balls, striking bags, boxing gloves—Corwin Hardware.

P. J. Leisy, who has been farming on the Meek plains the past year, moved his family to Portland the first of the week. Perry says he doesn't like ranching any more and will again try the city.

The South Tualatin Civic club will meet at the home of Mrs. Rowlin, Thursday, November 15. A large attendance is expected as new officers for the coming year are to be selected.

COURT BUSY

The case of Mary C. Shattuck, administrator of the estate of Carl C. Shattuck, versus Fred Christenson and wife was dismissed, because of settlement out of court. Robert M. Clark and Lena C. Fry were assessed $195 and costs in the case brought against them by W. C. Pa-600. Michael Oibekson fined $500 for assault and battery and paroled on payment of $250.—Etta M. Kaufman was granted a divorce from John Kaufman.—P. L. Fischer was granted liberty on recognizance.—Objections to the undertaking proposed by the plaintiffs in the case of Dickinson versus Cox were overruled.—Nettie F. Roy was not granted relief in her case against Edward L. Roy.—E. O. Stark was given 10 days to file an amended answer in case brought against him by James M. Bowman.—The parole of George McCormick was revoked on failure to pay balance of fine.—E. V. McFall, convicted of drug vending, has cause for appeal in the opinion of the court.

Earl Ingles is out on bail until the time is set for his trial on a charge of manufacturing liquor. Louis G. Brude was indicted for violation of liquor laws.—Claude Riggles, who was brought to jail because of failure to pay fine for violation of liquor laws, was granted parole on balance of his sentence.—John Matthews was granted a divorce from Lois P. Matthews.—W. H. Warren was granted judgment against M. O. and W. E. Caterlin.—The case of the Hillsboro Commercial Bank against E. L. Perkins was dismissed, as was the case of Geo. Catterton against W. E. and Nettie Jacobson.—The case of Earl Hollenbeck versus N. Gilberson was dismissed, and so was that of the First National Bank of South Oregon versus R. Thoms.—E. G. Brown, W. W. Brown and Clarence were arraigned.

MASQUERADE PARTY

The home of John Meier Jr. of near Cedar Mill was the scene of a delightful masquerade party on the night of October 31. The house was attractively decorated with autumn foliage and jack-o'-lanterns.

The evening was spent in games, music and stunts, and a late hour refreshments were served.

Those present were host and hostess and little son, Lawrence; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hansen and son Johnnie, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Berger Jr., Ed. Louis, Werner and Albert Meier, Bob and Will Jeffries, Martha and Alfred Berber, Hilda Kehler, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hamel, Alfred Hamel, Hazel May, Leona, Chris and Herman Schindler, Lena, Freda, Bertha and Verne Dysle, Ben Len, Fred Zabler, Ruth Gordon, Fred Kehler, Henry, Simon, Ernest, Carl and Meta Berger, Nels Johnson, Deborah, Ophelia and Leha Wismer, Walter, Rosa, Esther and Edna Stueki, Harold Wismer.

BIG PICTURE COMING

"Thundering Dawn," the Universal Super-Jewel all-star attraction at the Liberty Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, follows "The Covered Wagon" in the list of his successes in the career of J. Warren Kerrigan, the star who came back. Kerrigan was in retirement for two years and then reappeared before the camera, with his friends prophesying that the public would have forgotten him and he wouldn't be able to come back.

"Thundering Dawn," in which he has the biggest emotional chance of any of his new roles, proves again that he is one of the greatest film actors of any period. Anna Q. Nilsson and Winifred Bryson are the feminine leads.

RETURNS FROM LONG TRIP

Grant Bacon of Cornelius recently returned from a tour around the United States. He made stops at Salt Lake, Pueblo, Colorado; Wichita, Kansas; Clatskanie, Oklahoma; St. Louis, Cincinnati, Washington, D. C.; Richmond Va.; Palatka and Jacksonville, Florida; and then on westward to New Mexico and California. One of the most impressive sights on the whole trip, in Mr. Bacon's opinion, was the Union station at Washington. He says that raw land is selling in Florida for $10 an acre and cleared for $20.

TO HELP AUXILIARY

The Girl Reserve cabinet met yesterday after school. A report was given by each committee chairman. The "bench party" has been postponed from November 9 to 16. The Girl Reserves have been asked to serve at the dinner on Armistice Day and help the Auxiliary.

Home-made candy will be sold at the football game Monday by the girls.

The Past Grands' club of Hillsboro Rebekeh lodge No. 84 met at the home of Mrs. Julia Morrill, last evening, where they were delightfully entertained by the hostess and Mrs. Myrtle Mansfield. The year's work was discussed and plans made, and it was decided that a box of provisions be sent by the club to J. O. F. Home in Portland, for Christmas. After the business session delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses. Those present were Mesdames Julia Morrill, Myrtle Mansfield, Eliza Francis, S. Mae Greer, Josephine Case, Beulah Morley, Maud Lake, Elizabeth Bowman, Bessie Barr, Mary Williams, Victoria Bitchelder, Ellen Johnston, and Misses Elizabeth Ghosen, Angie Harrington and Rhea Wilkes.

Donald E. Long, son of L. A. Long, former editor of the Argus, has been subpoenaed to appear as a witness in a Federal court case in Louisiana and will probably leave for the south next week. Long was with the secret service department before completing the law school at Georgetown university. He passed the state bar examination some time ago and is doing some work in Portland at present and hopes to locate in the Rose City.

Hospital News—Alex Eischen of near Cornelius was operated on for appendicitis by Dr. E. H. Smith, at the Smith hospital, Saturday.—Alvin Lull, who works at the Standard Box factory at Seefeld, got a piece of steel in his eye last Tuesday and came down for Dr. Smith to remove the trouble.—The Bruno Santora children, who were injured in the automobile accident at Reedyville several weeks ago, have recovered sufficiently to be taken to their home.

J. W. Vandervelder of Forest Grove was in town Wednesday, arranging to sell his herd of 2ne grade cattle. The grand sire of the bull to his herd sold for $25,000 he says. Vandervelder has had some experience in criminology and when the proposed pardon of Bennett Thompson was brought up he said, "He has been out once and shown that he can't make good, so don't give him the second chance."

Mechanics Take Notice—Well brake lining, rivets, copper tubing, brass fittings, priming cups, stop cocks, spark plugs, Ford wiring, piston rings, valve grinders, wrenches of all descriptions, windshield cleaners, spotlights, rear-view mirrors.—Corwin Hardware.

Mrs. E. W. Moore arrived last evening from Marshfield for a few days' visit in Hillsboro. Mrs. Moore says that things are booming in the Marshfield section and that Mr. Moore has been working constantly at carpentering since they went down this spring.

Mrs. Raleigh Walker of Forest Grove was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday, calling on her sisters, Mrs. Lester Ireland and Miss Angie Harrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer and little son, of Hillsboro Route 2, were in town the first of the week.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY

State of Oregon, Plaintiff vs. Stutz Touring Automobile, Motor A 12889, Model 1917, Oregon License Number for 1923, 696889, and to all persons claiming any interest therein and to all others whom it may concern, defendants:

To L. E. Simon, 692 East 43rd St., N., Portland, Oregon, Granting A Treece, a co-partnership, E. 8th & Hawthorne Ave., Portland, Ore., and to all others whom it may concern, and to all persons claiming any interest in the above described personal property:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You, and each of you, are hereby notified that the following described personal property, to-wit: Stutz Touring Automobile, License Number 69689, Model 1917, for the year 1923, Motor Number A. 12889, was, on the 23rd day of August, 1923, seized by a peace officer, to-wit: one M. R. Bacon, a duly elected, qualified and acting constable, at, and within Washington county, Oregon, and that said personal property has been seized and is being proceeded against for the forfeiture of the same for a violation of Chapter 29 of the General Laws of Oregon, for 1923, and that you, and each of you, and all persons, firms or corporations having or claiming any interest therein are hereby required to appear before the above entitled Court in the above entitled cause on or before the answer day heretofore designated by order of the above Court, to-wit, the 26th day of November 1923 and file your answer therein and to defend against said proceedings, and that upon your failure so to do, a judgment of forfeiture of said seized personal property will be entered and said property will be sold by the Sheriff of Washington County Oregon, in the manner provided by law.

This notice is issued and served upon you, and each of you, by virtue of and pursuant to an order and decree duly made in the above entitled Court in the above entitled cause on the first day of November, 1923.

WITNESS my hand and the Seal of said Court hereto affixed at Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, this 3rd day of November, 1923.

L. A. KURATLL, County Clerk

By EDWIN C. LUCE, Deputy.

E. B. TONGUE, District Attorney.

MANY CASES IN COURT

Frank Meibus was convicted on three counts and was fined $500 on the first and given six months sentence, $1000 on the 2nd and one year in the county jail and $1000 on 3rd and one year in custody. On payment of $250 on the first and $500 on the second, he was paroled on the balance. Gilbert Nord was paroled on payment of $250 fine.

In the estate of William V. Spencer an order appointing date of final settlement was made.

The case of John Kanna versus A. B. Rowe, Helen Rowe and Arthur Rowe was dismissed, as was the case of E. H. Smith versus Thorgney Holmes and Blanche Holmes. On action of the plaintiff the case of Addie M. Beus versus Charles C. Beus was dismissed. E. J. Lusk was given an order of default in his case against Thomas Hitt and Mary Hitt, he was also declared owner of some real property.

In the case of W. H. Pogque vs. E. W. Reeves, portions of the complaint were stricken out.

The case of Estuar B. Dundee versus George Alexander was dismissed. The case of Essie Swearing versus W. H. Hollis, M. Louise Hollis, Jacob Shearer, City of Forest Grove and the Encyclopedia Britannica, a corporation, was dismissed. An order was drawn up for Myron Helit against C. R. Hart. Pete Seboff, who violated his parole, was ordered in the county jail. In the case of Homer C. Campbell versus Elizabeth Landess, et al, an order of default was granted.

A divorce was granted Genevieve Haase from Charles H. Haase. The court granted $40 a month alimony and the control and care of the two minor children.

C. A. Peterson was in town the first of the week to visit his son, Dr. Peterson, who is taking Dr. Helms' practice. He says that one person in Buxton received seven election pamphlets and he thinks that something should be done to prevent such waste of expensive printed material.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ferland and Mrs. P. Gottlieb were out from Portland Monday evening, and Mrs. Gottlieb attended the Auxiliary meeting.

John Trachsel, who lives out near the Walker place on the Cornell road, was in town Wednesday. He says that the Bethany Baptists are having a sale.

Marriage license have been issued to Winifred Basas and Lena E. Shaver; Daniel Vandehey and Dora Stevenson; William J. Troutman and Etzel Cornelius.

Fines for violation of the law and fees have netted the county $3,340.60 during the month of October. The greater part of this came from liquor law violations.

V. F. McFarland of McMinnville, deputy game warden for Yamhill and Washington county, was in town Wednesday in connection with some violations of the game laws.

J. E. Zwicky of Newton was in town Tuesday. While he was walking along the highway Friday he was struck by a passing auto and badly bruised about the neck and hips.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Long left for Seattle Wednesday, where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Long and at the same time see the new Long grandchild. They made the trip by motor.

Dr. Wm. E. Pittenger, who has been practicing dentistry in Joseph, Oregon, up in the Willows country, has returned to his old home town and will locate here permanently. He will soon open an office.

Carl Dick of Phillips was in town Tuesday. He says that he only got half a crop of potatoes this year and predicts that the price will be increased considerably, unless the market is flooded from Idaho and Yakima.

Frank Imbric of near Oreno was a city visitor Tuesday. He was a staunch advocate of the income tax. His son, James, went to San Francisco last week to visit his aunt, Mrs. J. C. Hart, and he may possibly remain in the south indefinitely.

HAS FILBERT DISPLAY

Ign VanderBom of Wisteria station on the Oregon Electric brought in some fine samples of filberts the last of the week and has them on display in the Argus window. He says that they are the "Kings" of the filbert family. He has samples here of the Davan, the Barcelona and the DuChilly. The filberts were grown in the VanderBom (Filbert-Specialist) Nursery.

TO CONFISCATE AUTOS

Nine cases were before Judge Bagley last week in connection with auto confiscation proceedings. The men brought up were J. E. Martin, E. O. Marshall, Henry Swanson, J. W. Miller, Simmons, J. H. Freur, Simon Fred Lesser and Frank Rechleok. Orders have been drawn up for the sale of some cars on November 26.
