A SURPRISE PARTY HAS BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Carl O. Hornecker and wife, who were recently married at Claresholm, Canada, and are spending the winter here, were given a pleasant surprise Friday evening, at the home of his mother, Mrs. C. F. Hornecker of north of Hillsboro.

More than 30 neighbors and friends were present, the younger set going with bells and other delicate musical instruments.

A delightful evening was spent and at a late hour light refreshments were served.

The guests presented the young couple with a beautiful Navajo blanket.

PLAY FOREST GROVE

On Friday, February 1, Hillsboro will tangle in a double-header with their old rivals, Forest Grove. With eight lettermen, Forest Grove is represented on floor by a powerful team and are out for the state championship, as is Hillsboro. This game will help decide who goes from this district to play in the final tournament at Salem. Come out and back the team.

The first semester closes this week and the second begins at once, January 28. A beginning class of about 15 is expected.

Fifteen of Hillsboro's teachers attended the local institute at Dilley last Saturday.

A successful Thrift Week program was carried out in the high school. President Merrill of Shute Savings bank spoke of the bank's place in a personal thrift program; C. E. Wells, "The Importance of a Budget;" J. H. Garrett, "Pay Your Bills Promptly;" Lester H. Adams, "Own Your Own Home," and L. J. Rushlow, "Insurance." We heartily appreciate the efforts of the business men in presenting these important topics to our young people.

E. F. Carleton, field man for the U. of O., visited the high school on Tuesday, addressed the assembly and also a special meeting of the senior class.

"THE CALL OF THE WILD"

The long awaited picturization of Jack London's famous novel, "The Call of the Wild," comes to the Liberty Theatre Friday and Saturday. The hero of the story is a dog whose father was a St. Bernard and whose mother was a Scotch shepherd dog. The dog is called Buck and, from puppyhood, is raised in the luxury of civilization. Then he is stolen away to the Klondike, where he experiences a strange climate, meets strange men and adapts himself to strange habits and labors. He is a bewildered dog—until the strain of his forefathers begins to assert itself—until he feels the call of the wild.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS MEET

There will be a meeting of the Washington County Holstein Breeders at Hillsboro chamber of commerce rooms, Saturday, January 26, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The last meeting was a good one. All are asked to come and help plan Holstein activities for 1924.

H. A. Rossback and L. H. Brinsbine of the Pumpkin Ridge section above North Plains were Argus callers Monday. They came down to confer with the county court in the interests of their road district. Quite a delegation from that section attended the meeting.

D. O. K. K. GIVES DANCE

The Portland Temple of the Dramatic Order of Knights of Khorassan, which includes a number of Knights of Pythias from Hillsboro and vicinity, will give a dance at the auditorium Saturday night, February 2. They are featuring a serpentine confetti dance.

Jake Geisbubler of West Union was in town on Friday.

F. L. Brown of Laurel was in town on Friday. Mr. Brown will handle the news of the Laurel section for the Argus.

See "The Call of the Wild," by Jack London, at the Liberty Theatre, Hillsboro, Friday and Saturday, this week.

C. W. Stinger of Portland was a Hillsboro visitor on Tuesday. He is assistant general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Rice of Portland Saturday. Mrs. Rice was formerly Miss Agnes Delsman of this city.

The sign spelled "A. Poke's Store;" a spider read, and then he said, "Homeseeking days are o'er." His silken web he spun across the door, and nevermore was aroused by any one. "Why should I advertise? Gosh! I've been here nigh twenty year with this same line of ties! If folks come down this way, they all can see that here I be." Thus Merchant Poke would say. But on another street, a dealer true advises you of wares and prices meet. The shoppers strain his doors; and with their scads he runs more ads, and builds up two more floors! Then to this tale give heed—and if you'd nurse a well-lined purse, just emulate Hi Speed. For in this very space he tells folks all, both short and tall, of bargains in his place.
