

Local Happenings

E. W. Carter of near Laurel was a Hillsboro visitor Monday.

O. B. Kraus of near Beaverton was a Hillsboro caller on Monday.

O. Phelps and family spent Thursday and Friday of last week at Rockaway.

John G. Kilpack, manager of the Royal Rosarian quartette of Portland, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday.

H. H. Harvey of the Independent composing rooms is building a home near Witch Hazel, on an acreage recently purchased.

A. B. Thomas, the apple man from Forest Grove, was in town Monday looking for a location to sell his apples again this fall.

Marjorie Bayntum and Herbert D. Sackett, both of Tigard, were married Saturday in the office of County Judge J. W. Goodman. They will make their home in Tigard.

The city of Forest Grove has applied for permission to appropriate water from Roderick creek for use as municipal supply. The project will cost in the neighborhood of $6000 it is said.

William Woods of the William Wood Pipe Organ company left for Walla Walla, Washington, yesterday morning to tune the Whitman college organ, one of the largest college organs in the Northwest.

Mrs. Jean M. Johnson, acting general secretary of the Oregon Council of Religious Education, is in the city arranging for the meeting of Sunday school workers, as well as public school teachers and pastors of churches, to hear Mr. A. M. Lacker at Forest Grove, September 17. Mr. Lacker is field secretary for the International Council of Religious Education and is spending ten days in Oregon. Yamhill, Washington and Tillamook counties will cooperate. Dr. Fred Grey and Dr. Walter L. Van Nuy will accompany Mr. Lacker from Ashland to The Dalles.

Mrs. J. C. Edwards, president of Tillamook county, and Prof. S. S. Duncan, president of Yamhill county, will also share in the program, which is being arranged by a local committee. The meetings will be held in the Congregational church afternoon and evening. All Sunday schools are urged to send representatives.

John Dierdorff, who has been spending the summer with his mother, Mrs. Emma Dierdorff, and family, departed yesterday for Oklahoma. Mr. Dierdorff will conduct a publicity campaign for the State university at that place.

Roscoe Black and wife departed last week for San Andreas, California, in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mr. Black's mother, Mrs. Grace Mahoney.

Mrs. J. C. Bechen of near Orenco, departed Saturday on the S. S. Cuba for San Francisco, where she will visit her daughters Miss Esther Bechen and Mrs. Arthur Rollins.

Launcelot Kennedy, mail carrier of Beaverton, is reported as landing the first two deer of the hunters in Oregon's Hollywood. He got two large bucks down in Douglas county.

Clell Carstens and family of Banks were Hillsboro visitors the last of the week. Clell returned last week from a hunting trip in Southern Oregon.

The Hillsboro Grange will meet Saturday. M. B. Signs of the city schools and O. T. McWhorter, county agent, will be the speakers.

The Knights of Pythias plan to hold the first big meeting of the fall next Monday night. The plans call for an extra supply of refreshments.

Metzger voted to issue bonds to install a water system last Friday. The wells in that section were drying up on them.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Hart and Mrs. A. B. Spitzer of Timber were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday.

W. W. Carey of Witch Hazel was a Hillsboro visitor Friday.

The best housekeeping experts in the world are selecting me to do their work. Let me show you what I can do. Premier Duplex. Puget Sound Power & Light Co.

The question of transportation that would adequately take care of the needs in the Dairy Creek country around Mountindale and further north into the timber was discussed at a meeting at Mountindale last Monday night. Another meeting at which it is hoped to secure a large attendance is slated for Saturday night, September 20, at the community hall, Mountindale.

Harry Maxwell of above Mountindale, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Maxwell says that, although their hop crop was not as heavy as usual this year, it was of very good quality and dried quickly. They made a record in harvesting the crop, picking the entire 25 acres in one week.

Appropriate patriotic exercises will be held at Hill Military Academy during Constitution week, September 20-25, inclusive. The Academy will open September 10th with a registration representing nine states of the union and several foreign countries.

Harold Wismer, Jack Glasco and Lee McIntyre, Hillsboro high school students who have been working with Engineer Hobbs on the Trask survey, returned Saturday ready for school. All of them are in good trim and expect to turn out for football.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Moody and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schulmerich motored to the camp grounds above Castle Rock, Washington, Sunday, where they were met by Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Parkhurst of McCleary, Washington, and all enjoyed a picnic.

Mrs. E. A. Van Derven of Vancouver, Washington, is taking care of the stenographic work at the county agent's office during the absence of Miss E. Shorey. Mrs. Van Derven was formerly employed at this office for about three years.

John Dierdorff, who has been spending the summer with his mother, Mrs. Emma Dierdorff, and family, departed yesterday for Oklahoma. Mr. Dierdorff will conduct a publicity campaign for the State university at that place.

Roscoe Black and wife departed last week for San Andreas, California, in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mr. Black's mother, Mrs. Grace Mahoney.

Mrs. J. C. Bechen of near Orenco, departed Saturday on the S. S. Cuba for San Francisco, where she will visit her daughters Miss Esther Bechen and Mrs. Arthur Rollins.

Launcelot Kennedy, mail carrier of Beaverton, is reported as landing the first two deer of the hunters in Oregon's Hollywood. He got two large bucks down in Douglas county.

Clell Carstens and family of Banks were Hillsboro visitors the last of the week. Clell returned last week from a hunting trip in Southern Oregon.

The Hillsboro Grange will meet Saturday. M. B. Signs of the city schools and O. T. McWhorter, county agent, will be the speakers.

The Knights of Pythias plan to hold the first big meeting of the fall next Monday night. The plans call for an extra supply of refreshments.

Metzger voted to issue bonds to install a water system last Friday. The wells in that section were drying up on them.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Hart and Mrs. A. B. Spitzer of Timber were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday.

W. W. Carey of Witch Hazel was a Hillsboro visitor Friday.

The best housekeeping experts in the world are selecting me to do their work. Let me show you what I can do. Premier Duplex. Puget Sound Power & Light Co.

Mrs. Shogren of Portland is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Reeves.

George Van Dyke of near Verboort was a Hillsboro visitor on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. F. Reed of Orenco was transacting business in Hillsboro yesterday.

T. W. Hastings of near Cornelius, was a K. P. lodge visitor Monday night.

Adolph Erdman of above Mountindale was a Hillsboro visitor yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jossy of near West Union were Hillsboro visitors yesterday.

C. L. Schwanke of Schefflin station, was transacting business in Hillsboro yesterday.

Mrs. George Schulmerich was operated on Tuesday, by Dr. E. H. Smith, for removal of tonsils.

Mrs. Mand Frick of Portland is here for several weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moezill.

J. B. McClaren of Hillsboro is in the Dr. Smith hospital convalescing from an operation on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Spaulding and Mrs. Fleck of Forest Grove were Hillsboro visitors Saturday evening.

Mrs. W. O. Smith and daughter Miss Margaret, of Klamath Falls, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gates.

Mrs. Carol Smith, sister-in-law of Dr. Elmer Smith, is in the Smith hospital suffering from an infected finger.

Miss Mary Sias of Kansas City, above Forest Grove, is visiting this week at the home of her uncle, E. F. Sias, and family.

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. MacKay departed the first of the week for Victoria, B. C., where they will place their son, Fred, in school.

Mrs. Alice Wilkes and daughter, Miss Velma, of Portland, were transacting business in Hillsboro today, and calling on friends.

Ed Meizner of Scofield, who was attacked by a big bear a week ago, is convalescing nicely from his lacerated and broken arm.

Mrs. W. A. Storey and son, Robert, and daughter, Hattie, left today for Wilder, Idaho, to take charge of a ranch which they recently traded for.

Steve Yorkovitch is in the county jail charged with pointing a firearm. He has been before the county authorities before for violation of the prohibition laws and is now out on parole.

The Social Circle of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. C. B. Buchanan, 1248 Fir street, Thursday afternoon, September 18th. All members and friends invited.

Miss Pearl Allen of Amity made a short visit with Mrs. Emma McKinney this week. Miss Allen was enroute to Wasco, where she will teach her third year in the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Armentrout of Banks were Hillsboro visitors yesterday. Mrs. Armentrout's mother, Mrs. P. M. Jackson, who has been visiting at Banks this week, returned home with them.

The Library books for the county are in the county superintendent's office ready for distribution. Ten cents on each child in the census is used to make up this fund. Hillsboro, Beaverton and Forest Grove receive theirs direct.

Mrs. Richardson of Portland, 94 years old and a Rebeleh for 30 years, gave an interesting talk before the local lodge Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served. She is visiting at the home of Mrs. Follis, who has known her for many years.

P. Burton Arant of Eugene was a Hillsboro visitor yesterday. Mr. Arant is a pianist and composer of some renown, and was an instructor in music at the Eugene Bible School for several years. Mr. Arant formerly taught music in Hillsboro and Forest Grove.

J. W. Perkins of Salem spent Monday in town, the guest of E. F. Sias. During the G. A. R. convention held here recently, Mr. Perkins and Mr. Sias learned that they were in the same regiment and came from the same county (Jefferson) in New York. Needless to say, the two veterans had a wonderful visit, reminiscing about old old times.

Misses Blanche and Frances Overman and their mother are visiting their uncle, E. C. Overman, of 875 First street. They left their home at Wichita, Kansas, July 1, on a tour of the Pacific Coast, having toured parts of Canada and Washington. They are on their way to California, and expect to reach home late this fall. The visitors are well pleased with Oregon.

South Tualatin

School Rulings Made

No beginner will be allowed to enter school after the first month, according to a decision of District 33 school board. But any child that will be of school age within two months after school opens may enter at the beginning of the year.

Ensilage Cutting Soon Over

With only about 60 per cent of a corn crop this year ensilage cutting will soon be a thing of the past in this district. If Old Jupiter Pluvius wishes to get us wet this fall while cutting corn he will have to get his old sprinkler going pretty quick.

Master Barton Bowley has so improved that he was brought home from the Dr. Smith hospital Monday afternoon.

Mr. Rowley has been crippled up with rheumatism the past few days.

C. M. Kruehek and family were dinner guests of Rev. M. A. Marcy and family of Hillsboro last Sunday.

Mrs. York and her children, Albert and Livia, are leaving for Nehalem this fall. The children have already gone but Mrs. York will remain at Mr. Behrman's until he has finished putting his corn in the silo.

George Johnson and family spent a few days at the coast before school began.

De Ette Johnson spent several days last week visiting at Dr. Robb's.

Miss Leona Johnson visited her cousin, Dorothy Johnson, last week.

Laurel

(F. L. Brown)

ATTEND HILLSBORO HIGH

Three machine loads of high school pupils started last Monday morning for their year's work at the Hillsboro school. Those attending from this community are—

Irene Stevens, Bessie Hathorn, Wilma Crawford, Edith Baker, Wilma Baker, Nita Meyers, Harold Hathorn, George Schmidt, Ted Rutschman, Thomas Reed, Elbert Stevens, Walter Schmidt, Clifton Scales, Lloyd Dailey, Lawrence Tatman and Lee Brown.

Sam Stoller reports that his younger brother, living at Woodburn, received some very rough treatment from a man whom they suppose was crazy. The boy went to an old cabin in the timber where he was knocked unconscious and when he came to the fellow had a rope around his neck. The man escaped before officers got there.

Hop picking is in full swing at the Orndorff and Wanger yards.

Several of the baseball fans went to Portland Sunday afternoon to watch the Beavers take two games from the Vernon team.

Grandma A. M. Anderson of Farmington celebrated her eighty-second birthday last Wednesday, September 3, and a number of her friends came in to congratulate her.

Mr. Avoid Carlson of Portland, an employee of a Portland bank, spent his vacation at the home of D. L. Weston last week.

THOMAS A. LEWIS

Thomas A. Lewis died in his home here September 7, at the age of 85 years, 9 months and 19 days. He is a retired farmer. He is survived by the widow and a daughter, Mrs. Daniel Deaville of west of Hillsboro. The services were held at the Methodist church in Cornelius yesterday and the Rev. Mr. J. Q. Wanell of Warrenton officiated.

Births

Havens—To Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Havens, a girl, September 4.

Christensen—To Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Christensen of Hillsboro, September 5, a son, at the Hillsboro Maternity Home.

Critenden—To Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Critenden of Gaston, September 8, a daughter, at the Hillsboro Maternity Home.

Scott—To Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Scott, of near Shute school, a girl September 8.

Lime Ordered

A carload of lime has been ordered, with a few extra tons. Those wishing a small amount of lime may secure the same from this carload, which should arrive here about the 15th of the month.

Pythian Sisters, Attention!

The first Fall meeting of Phoenicia Temple will be held Friday evening, September 12. A good attendance is requested.

Neglect Causes Regret

Don't neglect your or your children's eyes. You will regret it sooner or later. I am equipped to give the best of service, and am always here to make necessary repairs in case of accidents.

J. L. Anderson, Jeweler and Optician, 27-28 Main St., Hillsboro.

Dr. Luzader Here Saturdays

Have your eyes carefully and scientifically examined by a specialist who devotes his entire time to the welfare of his patients. See Dr. Luzader, eyesight specialist, at Hillsboro Pharmacy each Saturday. 24-4f.

Argus subscription, $1.50.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Helvetia Dance

Big dance at Helvetia hall Saturday night, September 13. Good music and good time assured.—Feuerstein, manager. Admission $1.00. 25-4f.

Laurel Dance

There will be a dance at the Laurel Community hall Saturday night, September 13. Vagabond orchestra. Tickets $1. 27-28

Balm Grove Dance

Don't forget the big dance at Balm Grove Saturday, September 13. Good music and hardwood floor. 28

Big Swiss Dance at Helvetia hall, Saturday, September 20. Everybody welcome. Good Swiss accordion music. 28

Fountain pens, $1.50 to $5.00. Magazine pencils, $1.00 to $5.00.—At Anderson's Jewelry Store.

Big assortment of ladies' and children's new winter hats now on display at the Handy Variety Store. 27-29

Chopper house will be run every day except Sunday, grinding grain and cleaning.—L. Siegenthaler. 26-28

Premier Duplex will do your Fall housecleaning. Phone us for a FREE demonstration. Puget Sound Power & Light Co. 28-3f

Dr. Darland, chiropractor and naturopath. Every mode of drugless healing. Over Well's Hours 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Phone at home and office. 23-4f

LOST

Lost—Half-grown Persian cat, white with amber stripes. Phone 2242. 28

Lost—Little fox terrier, black and brown patch over right ear, collar. Answers to name, Jackie. Phone 3786. 28

FOR SALE

For Sale—Cord and cut wood.—Phone 2633. 26f.

For Sale—Two Jersey cows.—Adolph Hoffman, Cornelius. 29

Good upright piano for sale.—Inquire at Argus. 22-4f.

For Sale—Gentle riding horse and saddle.—Mrs. P. B. Kent, Hillsboro, R. 4. 28-29

For Sale—Shingles and fence posts.—Jeppeson Bros., Beaverton. Phone North Plains 3F12. 30

Premier Duplex, double action—clean cleaner. Puget Sound Power & Light Co. 28

For Sale—Five-room modern house, and lot; also lot 50x125.—Phone 741. 28-4f.

For 16-inch fir wood, see or phone E. L. Krause, Hillsboro, R. 2, phone 251 Line 10, Scholls. 29

For Sale—Filbert trees, 2 years old, all well rooted and thrifty.—M. Summer, Hillsboro, R. 3; near North Plains schoolhouse. 31

For Sale by Owner—6-room bungalow with basement and all modern conveniences.—1253 5th street. 28-29

For Sale—O. I. C. pigs 6 weeks old.—Meier Bros., Beaverton, R. 2. Phone, Hillsboro 7R3; 3 miles west of Cedar Mills. 30

half mile south.—Isabel Hilts, Hillsboro, Route 4. 28

For Sale—Five-room modern bungalow, on paved street.—E. R. Bailey, 1445 Jackson St.

For Sale—Pretty Welsh pony and buggy. Useful for school children.—E. A. Everest, Hillsboro. 26-28

For Sale—6-room modern, modern house; improvements in and paid. Easy terms.—Phone 2351. 255f.

For Sale—Good team, double harness and wagon; very cheap.—A. F. Reed, Orenco, Oregon, Box 31. 28

For Sale—Three grade Holsteins. Milking about 8 or 9 gallons when fresh. Two, 2-year-old and one 4-year.—J. B. Peterson, Sherwood, R. 4, mile south of Rowell store. 28-29

For Sale—Rhode Island Red pullets, hatched March 1.—Julius Coupe, Hillsboro R. 4, Phone 35R25. 28-30

For Sale—Six-weeks-old pigs, $3 each.—F. J. Chalmers, Cornelius, R. 1. Phone Hillsboro 10R2X5. 27-29

For Sale—Two colts, 2 years old. Will sell or trade for cow.—Claud Jeffries, Hillsboro R. 4, Box 97, Bethany. 26-28

For Sale—Prunes 1c lb., apples 50c sack. Must pick them on tree.—E. M. Rice, North Plains road. Mile from courthouse. 28

For Sale—Sweet Water and Red Mountain grapes. Pick them yourselves, 2c. We pick them, 2 1/2c.—Pete Yunker, Gaston, Patton Valley. 28-30

For Sale—Silver foxes; White Leghorn pullets, pigs—grade and registered. Duroc Jersey boar, Jersey bull, Jersey heifer.—F. H. Wilson, near Witch Hazel. 28

For Sale—Quiet young Holstein-Jersey. Second calf due next February. About 3 gallons per day. Route 5, Box 23, Hillsboro. 27-28

For Sale or Trade—My residence with all modern improvements for sale, or will trade for smaller place.—O. B. Gates, Hillsboro. 27-4f

For Sale—A-B gas range, two ovens and one broiler; also trash burner, fitted with coils. Will sell both or separately.—Brown's Tinshop. 21-4f

For Sale—Nearly new Perfection oil range; three burners, canopy and oven; cheap.—M. M. Weisenback. Enquire at service station, Aloha. 28-30

200 White Leghorn Laying Hens—Fine foundation stock; good young cow; bay mare, good anywhere; cheap.—W. J. Head, at Quatama station, Oregon Electric. 28-30

Poultry Farm for Sale, Completely Equipped—Very modern home and poultry houses. On highway. Might accept modern residence property for part.—E. care Argus. 24-4f.

For Sale—Honey, extracted, and in comb-sections from my well-known apiary at Hillsboro, call at your grocer for it or inquire 750 W. Railroad St., Hillsboro.—V. Adabie. R-28-30-32-34-36

For Sale—Five-room plastered bungalow. Near cannery. Built-in cabinets, all modern equipment. Good size garage. Also 1922 Ford sedan.—Ferd Harttrampf, 1245 First street, Hillsboro, Phone 2025. 2-4f

For Sale—Two good work horses with harness; also saddle horse; two good cows; wagon and rack; two plows; harrows and disc.—W. VanSickle, Hillsboro, R. 5. One mile south of wireless tower. 27-28

$200 Gives Possession—Make your own terms at 6 per cent. 12 acres, an ideal small dairy and poultry farm; all very rich soil, never-failing creek; close to electric station; price $3500. A real opening for actual settler.—W. J. Head, R. 2, Beaverton. 28-30

On Wednesday, September 17, at Orenco, the following articles will be offered for sale: One white enamel bedroom suite, dining room suite, light oak; library table; light oak; willow settee, 6 feet long; two 9x12 rugs; fine piano, writing desk and two odd chairs.—Rev. H. F. Gelvin.

For Sale on easy terms and for reasonable price—26 1/2-acre farm, all under cultivation, good improvements. Southeast of and near Shute Park, Hillsboro; near highway and on rock road.—Apply to Mrs. A. L. Rotermund, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 5, box 140-A, or to M. B. Bump, Hillsboro, Oregon. 26-28

For Sale—30-acre ranch on North Santiam river. Good river land. About 20 acres cleared, rest pasture and some timber. 4-room cottage. Barn, chicken house, good fruit house, garage, well, pump in kitchen. 1/2 mile to station, same to grade school and church. Near main county road, 18 miles southeast of Salem. Bargain for right party.—D. W. Beeler, Salem, Route 5, Box 18A. 26-29

WANTED

Wanted—Wood cutter.—F. H. Wilson, near Witch Hazel. 28

Free Trial—Premier Duplex. Phone us. Puget Sound Power & Light Co. 28

Wanted—Work for room and board by high school girl.—ML, care Argus. 28

Wanted to Buy—Wagon not less than 3 1/2-inch skene.—O. J. Smith, Laurel, Route 2; mile south of Laurel. 28

Want to Buy From Owner—40 to 60-acre stocked and equipped dairy farm. Can pay $2000 down. Give price, terms and description in first letter.—Write MFB, care Argus. 27-29

FOR RENT

For Rent—Rooms, 1463 Second street. 28f.

For Rent—Furnished flat, modern.—1766 Baseline. 26f.

For Rent—Garage on paved street.—1420 Jackson St. 28

For Rent to Gentleman—Nice room with furnace heat.—C-L, care Argus. 27

For Rent—New, modern four-room house.—Inquire at Telephone office. 26f.

For Rent—The Atchinson, 2-acres, just across the railroad tracks from the old laundry.—Call at 603 Broadway. 28-29

For Rent to reliable party, house with modern improvements.—Write A-H, care Hillsboro Argus. 26f.

Rooms—We have rented the house at 909 Second street, and are ready to take roomers. Good rooms and good beds.—Henry Schmelzler. 15-4f

For Rent—61 acres, under cultivation, some beaverdam, and fine dairy ranch; good buildings; stock and equipment cheap. 8 miles from Portland, 1 1/2 miles from Beaverton.—Harold Nixon. 28