

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Al Croen of near West Union was a county seat visitor Monday.

Clair Sample of Astoria was home over the week-end visiting his mother and sister.

E. E. Rowten and family of below Cornelius were county seat visitors Saturday.

C. F. Jesse of Christie was a Hillsboro visitor Monday, enroute to Portland.

County Agent O. T. McWhorter is at Cannon Beach with his family on a short vacation.

Mrs. Emma Bryant, secretary of the fair board, attended the Multnomah county fair Thursday.

Len Fishback and family and Mrs. Ella Turner and family have gone to Netarts for a vacation trip of 10 days.

H. D. Scudder, chief of farm management at the O. A. C. inspected the site of the new county fair with members of the board Monday.

Mrs. Henrietta Morgan left Monday for an extended visit with her son, Russell Morgan, an attorney at Coquille.

George Coulthard of the Seattle Times, Seattle, and Mrs. Coulthard are visiting Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Hyde.

J. L. Crow, Grand Army veteran of Hillsboro and former department commander, was in Gresham all last week playing with the Big Five drum corps of the G. A. R.

Mrs. E. C. McKinney, one of the publishers of the Argus, is ill at her home. Miss Florence Schedel is assisting at the office during Mrs. McKinney's illness.

The little baby of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Grossen of Helvetia, born July 25, which was in a serious condition for a few days, is now getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Barlow, former Washington county residents, were in town Tuesday from Portland. They were out here to attend the funeral of John Chalmers out at the Scotch church.

Floyd Bentley, who is with the advertising department of Levitt-Brown-Huggins shows, was visiting his parents here Tuesday. He is boosting the Vancouver centennial August 17 and 13.

About twenty of the members of the Epworth League in Hillsboro are in attendance at the institute at Falls City this week. Others are planning to spend the week-end at the same place.

Mrs. C. H. Hines and children left last Saturday for Ocean Park and Long Beach to spend the month of August with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Prince, of Portland.

Miss Agnes Wahlgren, secretary to District Attorney E. B. Tongue, returned to her duties the last of the week after a leave of absence. She has been taking a course in court reporting in Portland.

Julia Kovach is suing Julius Kovach for divorce on the grounds of cruelty and desertion. They were married at Crown Point, Indiana, September 29, 1921. They have a two year old child.

Mrs. Nellie Hughes, former Hillsboro woman, was in the city Tuesday from Portland. She was accompanied by her son, R. H. Hughes, of Portland, and two nieces, Misses Florence and Vera Marsh, of Albany.

Hallie Ireland and family visited Mr. and Mrs. William Greenbemer at Ashland over the week-end. Bill pulled Hallie out at 5 o'clock to go fishing without any previous warning. Hallie plans to work in Ashland this winter.

Frances Bryant of Forest Grove has returned home from Corvallis where she has been attending summer school at Oregon Agricultural College. She is helping her mother, Mrs. Emma Bryant, in the county school superintendent's office.

Mildred Harris, who plays the lead opposite Richard Talmadge in "In Fast Company," a Truair picture starring Richard Talmadge, the young thrill artist, coming to the Liberty theatre Friday and Saturday is the former wife of Charley Chaplin, and a star in her own right.

Mrs. Ralph G. Ireland and son, Junior, have returned home from a four-weeks visit to Los Angeles where they were guests of W. T. Lethin and family, formerly of Hillsboro. Mrs. Ireland says the weather was fine and the place was beautiful but is glad to get back to Hillsboro.

Rev. M. A. Marcy returned last week from a week at Suttleslake in the Cascades where he served as a member of the faculty of the Suttles Lake Epworth League institute. He reports a wonderful time, including some good fishing at this beauty spot of Central Oregon.

The daily habit of the Parisian Apache, world-notorious because of their vicious criminal instincts, is the scene of some of the thrilling adventures of Mary Phillip's "The Rose of Paris," the Universal-Jewel screened at the Liberty theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Belle Taggart was the weekend guest of Miss Gloria Parker of North Powder last week. She also visited with friends at Baker. Miss Parker was graduated from U of O. this year and will have charge of the physical education department of Pacific University this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcelle Vuylsteke and children and Mrs. John Fessler, formerly of Hillsboro but now of Portland, visited the first of the week at the Paul Vuylsteke home in Hillsboro.

N. Girling, who recently recovered from a bad fall, was severely burned about the head recently. He had an eye shade on and started to light a cigar with the result that the shade was ignited.

Miss Marie Bell of Boring visited friends in Hillsboro last week. Miss Bell returns to the Gaston school this fall where she has taught for several years.

Henry L. Hickox, county jailer in the local court house, has sweet peas and climbing vines making their way up the cold black iron bars of the prison.

Jack Murton of the Pugt Sound Power & Light Co. returned Monday from a two-weeks vacation trip to Berkeley, California, with his parents.

Mrs. L. L. Rushlow, accompanied by Mrs. Reynolds Chapman and baby, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. M. O'Donnell, at Agate Beach.

Mrs. R. R. Easter returned Monday from Pacific City where she was the house guest of Mrs. E. B. Tongue.

Judge George R. Bagley will conduct court in Tillamook county on August 10 and 11.

Melchoir Meyers of near Hillsdale was greeting old friends in the county seat the last of the week.

George Spiering and son of Roy were county seat visitors on Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Hyde, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Cornelius, drove to Salem Sunday.

Miss Margaret Long is the guest of Miss Dolores Hare at Pacific City.

Saturday is Hillsboro Grange day. The first and second degrees will be given.

Dan Barrett of Cornelius is driving a new sedan.

Frank Greener of Mountindale was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Dr. E. T. Helm and family were in the city Tuesday.

A. Nordin of north of town was a Hillsboro visitor Friday.

N. Bangs of Timber was a county seat visitor the last of the week.

The old adage about troubles run true to form in the Garrigus home near Pumpkin Ridge Tuesday. While doing fire patrol duty in that section Donald Garrigus, in cutting away some brush, received a very bad injury to the left foot and was brought in to the Smith hospital. Shortly after the first accident Mrs. A. B. Garrigus, the mother, while preparing dinner, sustained a very painful burn on her right foot as the result of an overturned kettle of hot grease.

Mrs. L. L. Dodds of Dundee, Illinois, will arrive in Hillsboro Saturday for a visit at the S. W. Bentley home. Mrs. Dodds is a midwife, being but three feet, four inches in height, and years ago was on the stage in acts with the original Tom Thumb. She comes here with the intention of locating. Although past 86 years, Mrs. Dodds is traveling alone. She is an aunt of Mr. Bentley.

P. Melquist arrived in Hillsboro last Thursday from Bowbells, North Dakota, and is visiting his son, L. C. Melquist, whom he has not seen for over 15 years. He is very much pleased with Oregon and plans to locate here, his wife joining him later. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Melquist and family and Mr. Melquist's father will leave the first of the week for a ten-day outing at the Tillamook beaches.

Hillsboro Epworth Leaguers attending the institute which is being held at Falls City this week are Rev. and Mrs. Marcy and children, the Misses Margaret Harte, Faye Jones, Ruby Naegel, Lucille Shirley, Ruth Gilmore, Martha Helena and Bertha Mohr; Messrs. Edward Olsen, Walter Freeman, Harold Pinkerton and Glenn Norton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wells, who are spending the summer at Pacific City, returned to Hillsboro Monday and left Wednesday evening for Marshfield where Mr. Wells will attend the state telephone meeting. They are returning to Pacific City the first of the week for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. Ivan Simon of Portland is convalescing at the home of her mother, Mrs. Tom McCourt, in Hillsboro. Mrs. Simon was severely injured two weeks ago in an automobile accident in Portland, but is now able to be about with the use of crutches. She is under the care of Dr. Smith.

A party of Hillsboro people making the Mt. Hood loop last week were Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Taggart and daughter, Floy, Mrs. Spencer Jones, Mrs. Harry Gailey, Mrs. John Gardner and son, Mrs. Lew Taggart of Oklahoma and Mrs. Harry Shaylor. The party is now enjoying a week at Netarts.

O. M. Mullikin and family of Forest Grove moved to Hillsboro the latter part of the week and are now located on Fourth and First streets. Mr. Mullikin is a salesman for the MacKenzie Motor company. He has been conducting the Forest Grove band for some time, and hopes to organize a band here soon.

Miss Jane Agnes Johnston, who had charge of the home economics department of the high school here a few years ago, was the guest over the week-end of Miss May Finn. Miss Johnston has been teaching in Illinois for several years and is spending the summer with her parents at Corvallis.

The Missionary society of the Church of Christ was entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Garrett. The study hour was conducted by Mrs. Margaret Webb, after which dainty refreshments of orange sherbet and wafers were served by the hostess.

"Deacon Dubbs," the three-act comedy-drama presented last Friday evening by the young people of the Methodist church, was very well attended and a financial success. Proceeds are being used to finance the Epworth League institute expenses of the Hillsboro league.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Black, Mr. Black's mother and sister, Mrs. Grace Powell Mahoney and Miss Grace Mahoney, of Lodi, California, are here visiting with Mrs. M. A. Powell, Mrs. Mahoney's mother. Mr. Black is working with the telephone company.

Miss Margaret Duerner leaves in a short time for Southern Idaho, where she will be at the head of the English department in a high school there. Miss Duerner is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and was graduated this spring from U. of O.

Mrs. Arthur Trautwein and son, Richard, of Glendale, California, are visiting relatives in Hillsboro this week. Mrs. Trautwein, formerly Miss Emma Rea, is a niece of Mrs. C. F. Smith and Mrs. J. T. Young of this city.

Harrows Surprised
Grangers, neighbors, relatives and friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. George Harrow on the occasion of their 26th wedding anniversary Saturday night. They had been in town in the evening and on going home about 10 o'clock found the house full and the barn yard crowded to overflowing. They had to tie the knot over for them.

Stanley Miller, former newspaper publisher of Washington and Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, and Mrs. Miller were in Hillsboro the last of the week. Mr. Miller couldn't resist the smell of printer's ink and so stopped in at the Argus. Mr. Miller is looking for a newspaper location in some Oregon city.

Mrs. Albert Dappen of Portland is convalescing at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Hensley, in Hillsboro. She came here following an operation for appendicitis several weeks ago.

Lawrence Taggart, former Hillsboro boy, who has been with the Standard Oil company at Bakersfield, California, for several years, will return to Hillsboro in a short time.

H. Kellington, watchmaker and jeweler, has moved his place of business from the Patterson Furniture store to the store just vacated by the Scott Electric company in the Pythian building.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harte, Miss Mary Shirley and mother will attend the Epworth League institute at Falls City over the week-end. They will make the trip by auto.

H. T. Koeber and little son, Kenneth, of Portland were in town last Friday. Miss Velda Koeber is in Minneapolis for an indefinite stay at the home of Mrs. Koeber's uncle.

The Ladies Aid society of the Christian church held a business meeting at the church Monday evening. Nearly all members were in attendance.

U. G. Gardner and wife returned Tuesday evening from a two-weeks vacation at Seaside. Mr. Gardner has property there and spent his vacation time fixing it up.

J. C. O'Connor of near Reedville was a county seat business visitor Wednesday. He had a better stand of hay this year than he expected.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Payton and son, Everett, of Eureka, Calif., visited friends in Hillsboro last week. The Paytons lived for several years in Hillsboro.

Herman Hahle and wife of Sublimity, Oregon, visited Wednesday at the home of Jake Etsel near Hillsboro.

Mrs. Guy Payne of Portland visited the first of the week in Hillsboro at the L. T. McPheeters and J. B. Trullinger homes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Moffatt and son of Chehalis, are spending their vacation with relatives, the Hollenbecks, here and at Mountindale.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Deaville and little daughter, Barbara, of Portland visited relatives in Hillsboro over the week-end.

Ethel Campbell, an assistant in the office of Clerk, E. C. Luce at the court house, is on her vacation.

W. T. Putnam of near Farmington was in Hillsboro on business Wednesday.

The estate of Charles Clare Sparks, Forest Grove man who was drowned recently, has been admitted to probate.

Mrs. Alice Gains left the first of the week for Centralia, Wash., where she will visit her daughter.

Miss Pearl Winegardner was operated on for appendicitis at the Dr. Smith hospital last Thursday.

Miss Valerie Bagley is spending the week-end in St. Helens, the guest of Miss Marjorie Gilby.

George Biedsoe of above Manning was in Hillsboro on business last Saturday.

Tom Bellinger of near Forest Grove was in Hillsboro on business Friday.

Mrs. A. Kostur and little granddaughter, Norma Hanna, visited friends in Hillsboro Friday.

Mrs. Anna Delplanche and Mrs. Frank Reh of near Schefflin were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Miss Stella Rehse of Portland is visiting this week at the home of her father, H. H. Rehse, in Hillsboro.

Mrs. Jessie King of Forest Grove was calling on Hillsboro friends Friday.

Mrs. H. R. Minnick left the first of the week for a month's vacation at Ocean Park, Washington.

Rex Parsons of Oreno was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Maude Milne and Miss Adelaide Cawrse of near North Plains were in town Saturday.

Mrs. C. W. Rollins returned Thursday from a week's vacationing at Bar View and Rockaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jones of Portland visited at the William Briot home in Hillsboro Monday. Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Elsie Briot.

Mike Waeffler, Jr., and Phillip Pezoldt of Rock Creek were in the city on business yesterday. They say that the mills are taking all the water out of the creeks and leaving none for their cows. Waeffler threshed about two weeks ago and got 22 bushels of wheat per acre.

Roy Schulermerich has started the construction of a new home on the Tualatin Valley highway next to the L. J. Merrill home. The house will be of stoneware.

Dance at Helvetia
There will be a dance at Helvetia hall, Saturday night, Aug. 8. Good music and a good time assured. 20tf

Corn for Sale
Sweet Corn—1 doz 15c; 2 doz. 25c; spuds fresh from field at 2c per pound at farm. Jno. A. Hobbs, North side of highway 1/2 mile east of Cornelius. 25

Apartment For Rent
For Rent—A newly refinished apartment; three rooms and bath, completely furnished; has both a range and oil stove; use of garage; two blocks from business district. Call at—1134 Baseline St., between 1st and 2nd, or phone 1121. 22tf

Dancing At Balm Grove
Popular dance at Balm Grove every Saturday evening. Seven-piece Vagabond orchestra, big hardwood floor and good management. 22

Laurel Dance
There will be a dance at the Laurel community hall Saturday night, August 1. Everybody invited. Good music. 21tf

A Priceless Gift
The priceless gift of good eyesight should be well guarded. When your eyes trouble you, consult a specialist at once. See Dr. Luzader at Hillsboro Pharmacy every Saturday. 8-tf

PUBLIC SALE
I will sell on the Harrington place, 5 miles north of Cornelius, mile north of Schefflin station, 3 miles southwest of North Plains, at 10 a. m.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 27
The following described property: Stock—Eight grade Jersey and Holstein cows, three fresh at date of sale; 2-year heifer; three horses, 1400 and 1500 lbs. each; 2-year-old colt; 4-year-old mule.

Farm Machinery, Etc.—Avery Tractor practically new; John Deer tractor plow, two bottom; Deering binder; Deering mower; rake; Deering drill; spring tooth harrow; drag harrow; 14-inch plow; disc; 3 1/2 wagon with bed; hay rack; cultivator; six patent stanchions; set work harness, almost new; milk cooler; household furniture and a lot of small farm tools.

Lunch At Noon
Terms of Sale—$20 and under, cash; over $20, six months bankable note at 8 per cent interest. M. E. HIGGINBOTHAM, Owner. H. A. Kuratli, Auctioneer. 23-25

PUBLIC SALE
I am moving to Colorado and will hold a closing out sale on the A. H. Beason farm 2 1/2 miles south and mile west of Reedville and mile east of Farmington at 1 o'clock p. m.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 20
The following described property: Ten No. 1 cows and one bull, about 6 months old; Holstein-Guernsey, 5 years old, now giving 4 gal., fresh about Jan. 1; Jersey-Guernsey, 5 years old, now giving 3 1/2 gal., fresh Jan. 1; Jersey-Guernsey, 5 years old, now giving 4 1/2 gal.; Holstein, now giving 4 1/2 gal., 5 years old; three Jerseys, now dry, will be fresh last of Sept., 4, 5 and 7 years old; one Holstein, 6 years old, fresh in August; Ayrshire, 5 years old, fresh about October 1; 6 year old cow giving 3 1/2 gal. Cows all tuberculin tested.

Extra good span of work horses, 8 and 9 years old, weight 3,000; 3 head of shoats, weight 100 lbs.; 2 doz. White Leghorn hens; good farm wagon; 16-inch Vulcan walking plow, almost new, with 3-horse evener; 3 sets of good work harness, 1 set almost new; five 10-gallon milk cans; three 5-gallon milk cans; milk cooler; household goods, beds, springs, chairs, sanitary cot, heating stove, kitchen range (Universal) almost new, New Home sewing machine, and many other articles to be found around a farm.

Free Lunch at noon to those coming from distance.
Terms of Sale—$20.00 and under, cash; over $20.00, six months time will be given on approved note at 8 per cent interest.

M. M. HUGGINS.
J. W. Hughes, Auctioneer.
Joy Gray, Clerk. 23-24

To Exchange—Kansas Property for Oregon Property
7 1/2 acres of land, partly sown to alfalfa. Place is just outside of the city limits of Miltonvale, Kansas. Has good 9-room house, one of the best in Miltonvale. Combined barn and garage, good hen house and never failing well. This is a fine college town, one of the best in the United States. Price $5000.00; wants to exchange for Washington county property, a dairy or fruit ranch. Anyone wishing anything of this character, see the—Hillsboro Land & Realty Co., A. R. England, 1224 Main Street, Hillsboro.

CLASSIFIED ADS

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Work for Uncle Sam—Take up civil service. Good salaries, short hours, rapid advancement, permanent positions, from 20,000 to 100,000 appointments yearly. Study at home—in spare time—with the world's largest correspondence school. Write today for complete details. International Correspondence Schools, 15 No. Broadway, Portland, Oregon.

For appointments at the new Princess Beauty Shop, telephone 2622.

Briquets—Get our summer prices and get a big surprise.—Hillsboro Ice and Coal Co. 10-22

Julius Christiansen of Scholls has purchased a 15-20 McCormick Deering tractor from Otto Erickson & Co., Beaverton. 23

Enlargements free with Kodak finishing at the Delta Drug Store. In at 6 p. m., out at 3 p. m. next day. 15-tf

Jersey heifer taken up. In pasture at Will Enschede's. May have same by paying for ad and keep. Phone 34R2. 20tf

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church, known as the "hoos-hoos," will give a cooked food sale at the grocery store, corner 3rd and Main streets, Saturday, August 8, beginning at 9:30 a. m. 22-23

Now is the time to buy wood; all lengths, 12-inch, 16-inch and 4-foot. If taken by load it is $6.00. Also coal, coal briquets and gas briquets.—Hillsboro Transfer & Fuel Co. Phone 542. 2-tf

The value of Dr. Thompson's optical service is appreciated only by visiting him frequently and allowing him to keep your glasses properly adjusted. Consult him next visit—Wednesday, August 12, at the Washington Hotel. 22-23

Auto Repair Men and Chauffeurs are valuable to their employers in proportion to their ability to locate and remedy trouble. This ability is increased by a thorough knowledge of the AUTOMOBILE ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT, etc. Such knowledge can be acquired in spare time through the International Correspondence Schools, 15 No. Broadway, Portland, Ore.

WANTED

Wanted—Housekeeping where I can be own boss.—Q. Snider, Vancouver, Washington. 24

Wanted—Forty feeder hogs, weighing not less than 40 lbs.—Phone 2321. 24

FOUND

Picked Up—Fox hound, blue speckled; female; owner may have same by paying for ad.—Ray Dillon, Reehse Pool hall. 23

Found—Speckled black and white dog, markings of pointer. Owner may have same by paying for ad and keep.—754 Railroad St., Hillsboro. 23

Found—Female dog; owner prove and pay for ad.—Mike Waeffler, Jr., near Rock Creek school; Hillsboro, route 1. 23

FOR RENT

For Rent—Furnished 4-room apartment.—Inquire at Mrs. Stockton's Millinery, near post office. 16tf

For Rent—65 acres, all in cultivation; especially adapted to dairying; creek borders on place; reasonable price; located mile south of Roy.—Phone Forest Grove, Gray 651. 23-25

For Rent—Farm, 47 acres clear, 8 acres pasture.—Mrs. Anna Del-

planche, Cornelius, R. 1; Phone North 45, Cornelius. Three miles north of Cornelius and one mile east. 23-24

For Rent—Five-room modern house, garage, on paved street, $25; also furnished or unfurnished rooms, suites, or single, $5 per month and up.—Owner, 1638 Oak St.; phone 2476. 23

FOR SALE

For Sale—1925 Chevrolet Touring, new, driven around 600 miles; A-1 condition; special equipment. balloon tires, spare, bumpers, spotlight; if you are looking for a real buy call 21Y. Terms.—L. S. Sherman, Oregon Electric station. 22-23

Can save you money on this material—Cedar fence posts and shingles, $1.75 and up.—Frank Greener, Mountindale. Leave orders at ranch at wireless station; write box 99, Hillsboro, route 5; phone 4RX6, Hillsboro. 23-24

For Sale—Team of horses, weight 3600; sound and true; will give terms.—August Crop, 3 miles south of Cornelius; close to Fern Hill school; phone Fern 515, Cornelius, care of Anton Kamper, Cornelius, route 2. 21tf

Milk Goats for Sale—Some just fresh; also two Saanen bucks and one black Angel Nubian buck.—Frank Unger, 7 miles southwest of Hillsboro; address Cornelius, route 2. 21-23

For Sale—High grade Silver Foxes; registered pedigree animals.—Write or call Hillsboro Silver Fox Farm, 12th and Washington streets, Hillsboro; Dr. T. L. Perkins, owner. 11tf

For Sale—Eight-year-old horse, bay; good, sound work horse.—J. T. Heard, Beaverton, R. 4; 2 1/2 miles south of Reedville. Phone Hillsboro 3R3. 24

High grade piano near Hillsboro will be sold to a reliable party at a big savings; $10 monthly will handle; a snap; write at once to—Tallman Piano Store, Salem, Oregon. 23-24

For Sale—Young Holstein, comes fresh about August 18.—H. Benson, Hillsboro, route 1; northwest of Hillsboro, route 1; 3 1/2 miles northeast of Hillsboro. 23-24

For Sale—Kalamazoo range, good baker, $25.—Inquire of Mrs. Wm. Manley, 601, 7th and Maple Sts., or Mrs. Willard Cox, corner 8th and Baseline, Hillsboro. 23-25

For Sale—Black mare, 8 years old; sound and true; work single or double; weight 1200 lbs.—Floyd Enslley, Hillsboro, R. 4, Box 75. 21-24

For Sale—Fresh Milk goats.—C. F. Robinson, 5 1/2 miles south of Hillsboro and one mile west.—Address Cornelius, R. 2. 19tf

For Sale—4-hole Buck gas range; double coil water heater; nearly new; reasonable.—Mrs. J. L. Kelly, Phone 2808. 23

For Sale—House and lot on 5th St., all modern, garage, etc., $5,000.—E. L. Perkins, 1226 Second St., opposite courthouse. 11tf

For Sale—Tractor, plow, disc plow end disc; used only two weeks; $1150.—1526 Baseline St., Hillsboro, phone 42. 22tf

Guaranteed Used Ford Tractors and Ford Cars for sale.—See Chik Shannon, Otto Erickson & Co., Beaverton. 23tf

Gas briquets at summer prices. $14.75 delivered.—Hillsboro Ice & Coal Co. Phone 2661. 14tf

For silo lumber, silo irons and silo foundation.—See V. W. Gardner Lumber Co.; Phone 2763. 23-24

Get your ice at the Hillsboro Ice and Coal Company and save your trading stamps. 10-22

For Sale—Kale plants.—William Wilkins, Hillsboro, R. 4 Phone 6R15. 19tf.

For Sale—75x198-foot lot; terms; close in.—Phone 2591. 22-23

