

LOCK THE DOORS AND BRING THE FAMILY?

Scholls

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jaquith enjoyed a trip over the Mt. Hood loop last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Larkin and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hesse are visiting the Oregon caves and Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Crowder and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Raynard of Beaverton made the Mt. Hood loop last week.

Rebekah lodge meets September 2. All members are requested to be out to help make plans for the parade in Portland.

District Superintendent Leach will be at Sunday school and church next Sunday.

Scholls Homecoming

The second Sunday in September is homecoming day. Ask all former Scholls residents to come to church at Scholls that day and meet their old friends.

The Reed family spent Sunday with friends in Vancouver.

Last Friday the Junior and Senior Stars had a jolly party at the Jack home to celebrate the birthdays of Cecil Jack, Evelyn Hesse, Ella May Miller and Ada Twigg. Miss Twigg was not able to participate in the frivolities at the Jack home but spent the day at the Smith hospital. Her many friends will be glad to hear that she is getting along nicely.

Evelyn Hesse, Cecil Jack, Florence, Joseph and Thomas Twigg, Clara and Harold Christiansen, Arthur Bogard, Wittmen McDonald, Marjorie Larkin, Hazel Bartlett and Glen and Ella May Miller were entertained at a "kid" party at Reeds home last week to celebrate Thomas' birthday. The young folks were all dressed like kids and had a jolly time playing games such as Old Maid, Tiddler-winks and Dominoes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bennett, Miss Olive Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoefle of Witch Hazel have returned from a two-weeks vacation at Rockaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Groner returned from Newport where they have been spending the summer. They stopped at their home a few days and have gone to Portland where Mr. Groner is taking treatments.

W. J. Grimes, a former resident and school teacher at this place and now a resident of Berkeley, California, was calling on old friends here last week.

Mrs. L. M. Hesse entertained about thirty friends at her home last Wednesday evening when she presented her niece and pupil, Miss Evelyn Hesse, in piano recital. The program was varied, several of the selections being especially well rendered and enjoyed. Assisting in the program, Wittmer MacDonald, tenor, sang three groups of songs which were well received. Mrs. Hesse's numbers were very delightfully interpreted and enjoyed as a real musical treat.

HOWELL-BARTLETT

The wedding of Miss Hettie Bartlett and Leslie Howell took place at the Scholls Methodist church last Sunday at 2:30 p. m. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion and the soft light of many candles made a very pretty scene as the bridal party assembled.

Little Bonnie Bartlett, a sister of the bride, made a winsome flower girl garbed in pink. The bridesmaids, Miss Hazel Bartlett, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Melba Livingston of Reedville, wore becoming gowns of orchid crepe de chine with hats to match. Charles Hill of Portland was best man and George Schmidt of Laurel was usher.

The bride entered on the arm of her father and was attractive and dainty in her gown of white georgette. She wore a veil and her bouquet was of orchid, pink and white. Rev. A. C. Wharton read the ceremony, preceding which John Sutherland sang, "Oh, Promise Me." The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Ina Rowell.

About forty guests attended the reception given at the Bartlett home, where delicious refreshments were served, including the angel food wedding cake made by "Grandma" Rowell. Many good wishes and a jolly serenading party developed to give the happy pair a good start on their wedding trip, which will be a three-weeks tour of Eastern Oregon and Washington, after which they will return to Portland where Mr. Howell makes his headquarters as field representative of the Pacific Legion. Mrs. Howell has accepted a position as teacher of the Hayward school. Besides Scholls people the guests included Mr. and Mrs. S. Stewart and Charles Hill of Portland, Miss Eva Kraus of Canby and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Garrett and Miss Tennessee Weathered of Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Thwaite and daughter, Mabel, left Sunday for a ten-day trip to British Columbia.

Eldor Henschke of Oreno was in Hillsboro Wednesday, transacting business.

Mrs. Dale Sigler and children, Dorothy and Dale, of Portland are visiting this week at the James Sigler home in Hillsboro. Mr. Sigler is on a fishing trip above Oak Grove.

Hillsboro friends of Miss Augusta Hamilton will be interested in knowing that she has secured a position as physical education instructor in a Y. M. C. A. club in San Francisco, and will take up her duties the first of September. Miss Hamilton, who attended public and high school here, was graduated from the University of Oregon this spring.

Charley Briggs, who has been doing fire patrol duty over on the Tillamook line this summer, has returned to his home in Hillsboro.

A miscellaneous shower was given Tuesday evening by Mrs. Frank Schneider at her home on First and Jackson streets, honoring her sister, Miss Veronica Tatom. A cleverly arranged mock wedding was the feature of the evening's entertainment, and appropriate games were played, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: The Misses Vada Reuf, Hazel Richter, Isabelle Stombaugh, Rose Frank, Elizabeth Delsman, Adelaide Meyers, Ida Delsman, Sophia and Anna Schneider, Mrs. Frank Waibel, Mrs. John Ryan, Mrs. Herman Robbin and Mrs. Frank Schneider of Hillsboro, Miss Lillian Boy of Beaverton and Miss Theresa Sohler of Forest Grove. Miss Tatom will become the bride of William Boy of Portland September 7.

Peaches Have Everyone Looking in Argus Office

Anyone would be perfectly justified in breaking the Argus window this week if they saw the beautiful big peaches in the window and just beckoning to someone to eat them. However, we don't want anyone to take us at our word and break the window to get the peaches.

Since they were put there none can pass the window without having to stop and look. The peaches were raised by Charles R. LaFollette of Cornelius and are of the J. H. Hale variety. If boxes were to be thoroughly graded and put up attractively the grower couldn't help receive better prices for his product.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Blaser visited over the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. Wade Everest, at St. Helens.

Miss Helen Stewart of Bertha station is visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Lena Stewart, in Hillsboro this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Gardner and little daughter and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Vaught returned the last of the week from Newport.

Miss Mildred Meyers of Chehalis Mountain visited several days this week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Zeigler, in Hillsboro.

Dr. J. T. McKay of Hillsboro is one of the speakers who will address the Oregon State Medical society which meets at Medford September 2 to 4.

Mrs. F. T. Spicker and sister, Mrs. Augusta Koethe, returned Tuesday evening from Tillamook and the beaches. Mrs. Koethe is visiting here from La Crosse, Wis.

Mrs. Jessie B. Skaggs has filed suit for divorce from Oscar P. Skaggs, charging cruelty, neglect, misconduct and intent to defraud her. Skaggs owns a chain of stores through the western states.

Announce Improved Line of Ford Bodies

Changes Most Pronounced—Bodies Longer, Lower and All-Steel

Body changes and chassis refinements more pronounced than any made since the adoption of the Model T chassis were announced here today by the Ford Motor company. There will be no advance in price, it also was stated.

Outstanding features of the improvements in both open and enclosed types are lower, all-steel bodies on a lower chassis, complete new design in most body types, a change from black to color in closed cars, larger, lower, fenders, newly designed seats and larger, more powerful brakes.

Longer lines, effected through higher radiator and redesigned cowl and bodies are apparent in all the improved Ford cars, but are especially pronounced in the open types. Wide crown fenders hung close to the wheels contribute to the general effect of lowness and smartness. While runabout and touring cars remain in black, the closed bodies are finished in harmonic color schemes, enhanced by nickel radiators. The coupe and Tudor bodies are finished in deep channel green while the Fordor is rich Windsor maroon.

Mrs. John Sinclair of the Leisville community was in Hillsboro Wednesday and called at the Argus office.

Rev. and Mrs. George G. Edwards and family returned Thursday from Cottage Grove where they visited a week with their son, Harold Edwards, and family.

Mrs. Lora Stockton returned Monday evening from a six-weeks business and pleasure trip east. While there she visited eastern markets in the interest of the Stockton Millinery store. She spent several weeks in New York City at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Oswald Olson and in New Orleans with her son, Seth Stockton, and family. Mr. Stockton is now visiting in Hillsboro.
