Can You Come up to It

William Schulmerich brought in some Minnesota No. 13 corn from the farm of his son, Frank Schulmerich, out by Farmington, Tuesday. The tops have all gone to corn and it appears to be quite ambitious. He also brought in a prize ear that is about as long and good looking as they make them. It is in the Argus window and will probably remain longer than the peaches.

Miss Esther Wooton of Banks was in Hillsboro Tuesday.

W. J. Daniels of Jacktown was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

Percy Brown of near Cornelius was in Hillsboro on business Tuesday.

M. H. Stevenson, H. J. Adams and Ora Zumwalt of Hillsboro and A. L. Zumwalt of Portland returned Sunday evening from an eight-day fishing trip to Cascadia, on the South Santiam river. They also visited Lava, Clear and Fish lakes, south of Lebanon.

Mrs. C. W. Stone decided that the Argus window should have some flowers for decoration along with the peaches, apples and corn that usually adorn the window for the many passersby. Consequently some very beautiful bouquets of dahlias grown by Mrs. Stone and Mrs. J. E. Johnson put a little real beauty into the exhibit. Three dahlias of a different color were grown on the same plant.

Miss Mattie Case returned Tuesday evening from San Francisco. She attended the summer session of the Humboldt State Teachers' college at Arcata, receiving her credentials for teaching in California. While in Arcata Miss Case visited Mr. and Mrs. George D. Ingram, who formerly lived here. Mr. Ingram has been professor of music at the Teachers' college for some time, but goes to Tucson, Arizona, this fall, where he will be an instructor in a private conservatory. Miss Case also visited relatives and friends in San Francisco and Berkeley, and has been absent three months.

DRAIN TILE PRICES LOWERED

The reason—Recently we have re-arranged our stock yards, making many improvements, which has enabled us to enlarge our daily output of tile, thereby reducing the cost of production, together with a much larger demand than ever before, for our tile, has made it possible for us to reduce our prices on many sizes. If you intend draining let us figure with you.

Do You Intend Building This Year?

If so, would you be interested in building with our Stone-Tile Building Blocks if we could show you where your first cost would not be over 3 to 5 per cent above lumber. Also bear in mind, a house of this kind does not need painting, is much warmer in winter and cooler in summer than a frame building, thereby reducing cost of fuel.

We manufacture Cement Drain Tile, Silo Tile, Brick, Stone-Tile, and Duntile Building Blocks.

Dealers in Sand, Gravel, Cement, Sewer Pipe, Culvert Pipe, Septic Tanks.
