First Trackless "Train" Visits Hillsboro

AMERICA'S FIRST TRACKLESS TRAIN—THE METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER SPECIAL ENROUTE TO CALIFORNIA AND EUROPE

INTERIOR OF PULLMAN SHOWING BUFFET, RADIO AND DINER.

The first trackless "train" in the United States was in Hillsboro Saturday morning for a short time, on its way across the continent from New York to Los Angeles on an international tour that will afterwards take it to Europe. The "special" is sponsored by the Metro-Goldwyn Film company.

The train, which attracted considerable attention in Hillsboro, is supplied with tires by the U. S. Rubber company. It went from here to Forest Grove and then on to McMinnville at a pretty fast clip. Manager Phelps of the Venetian and an Argus representative made the trip as passengers.

The Pullman car in particular attracts attention. It has hot and cold running water, is electrically heated, lighted and ventilated, and has a complete radio equipment for the entertainment of its passengers. The locomotive possesses hydraulic brakes, whistles, bells and every other possible device for making highway transportation safe.

DRAIN TILE PRICES LOWERED

The reason—Recently we have re-arranged our stock yards, making many improvements, which has enabled us to enlarge our daily output of tile, thereby reducing the cost of production, together with a much larger demand than ever before, for our tile, has made it possible for us to reduce our prices on many sizes. If you intend draining let us figure with you.

Do You Intend Building This Year?

If so, would you be interested in building with our Stone-Tile Building Blocks if we could show you where your first cost would not be over 3 to 5 per cent above lumber. Also bear in mind, a house of this kind does not need painting, is much warmer in winter and cooler in summer than a frame building, thereby reducing cost of fuel.

We manufacture Cement Drain Tile, Silo Tile, Brick, Stone-Tile, and Duntile Building Blocks.

Dealers in Sand, Gravel, Cement, Sewer Pipe, Culvert Pipe, Septic Tanks.
