Please send all Women's Club News to Mrs. W. W. Phillips

The Hillsboro Coffee club will meet in the chamber of commerce rooms Friday, December 11. Mrs. L. W. Hyde, as leader, will present Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, as the chief speaker after the regular business meeting. Miss Marvin will speak on "The Value of American Citizenship." Mrs. Charles Lamkin and Mrs. Marshall Elder are hostesses.

The Hillsboro Needlecraft club was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Reeves, nearly all members of the club being present. A short business meeting and annual election of officers was held, the following ladies taking office: President, Mrs. Lena Stewart; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Lottie Gifford. Dr. Hyde gave an interesting talk on "Co-operation." The ladies are working on a quilt which will be sold in the near future, proceeds to go to the fund for assisting the needy at Christmas time. During the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Alva Batchelder. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. S. M. Reagan.

The Leisyville Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Lilly Hanley, last Tuesday. The first of the series of dressmaking classes was held at the meeting with Miss Cooley, home economics extension teacher of O. A. C. as instructor. Twelve women were in attendance and an enjoyable day was spent as well as everyone feeling that they had derived much benefit from the lecture. The next class will be held at the home of Mrs. John Sinclair, December 17, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., and the third and last will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Spiessheart, December 18. At both homes the picnic lunch will be featured, the ladies bringing sandwiches and the hostess serving the coffee.

Mrs. Earl Hobbs, president County Federation of Women's Clubs, requests that all clubs send a child welfare committee to the county federation meeting to be held in Hillsboro, January 29.

The Service club will hold election of officers at the next regular meeting, Wednesday, December 16. Mrs. W. Bowman will entertain the club at this meeting in her home, 804 Tenth street. Mrs. Webb will assist Mrs. Bowman during the social hour. The president, Mrs. W. C. Gifford, desires to see all members present at this meeting.

A nutrition lecture was given by Miss Lucy Case, O. A. C. nutrition specialist, at Cornelius last Saturday under the auspices of the Civic Improvement club. Diets for both underweight and overweight people were outlined. The members and friends were also given some very good information on the feeding of children, invalids and older people.

The South Tualatin Civic club installed new officers for the following year at the last club meeting held at the home of Mrs. Eva Bagnell. They are as follows: Mrs. F. H. Bowlby, president; Mrs. Charles Demin, vice-president; Mrs. E. Bagnell, secretary, and Mrs. Anna Rowton, treasurer. Mrs. L. Moore is a new member taken into the club at the last meeting, making a total of fourteen members enrolled.

A committee was appointed to purchase a piano for the Johnson school before Christmas.

The Coffee club will give a benefit dance at the Commercial hall Friday, December 18. Proceeds will go toward the building fund. It is a home dance for home folks, come and have a good time. Vagabond orchestra.

The Farmington Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. W. Weinecke last Thursday with two visitors present, Mrs. Pfahl and Mrs. Charles Grable. The club decided to assist the school in giving a program Friday, December 18, in the Farmington school house.

Every club in the community is urged to send all the members possible to the budget meeting Saturday, December 19. Everyone be there early and boost for a county health nurse. Come at nine and bring your lunch.

The Cornelius Civic Improvement club will meet Tuesday, December 15, in the city hall. A decorated Christmas tree will be in evidence and as the club has a new kitchen, a kitchen shower will also be held at this meeting.

The Busy Bee club of the Hillsboro Grange elected officers at their meeting Tuesday. The new officers are: Edward Cox, president; Mrs. Hess, vice-president; Mrs. Etta Cook, secretary; Mrs. Dan Burkhalter, treasurer. A wonderful luncheon was served. Mrs. R. R. Hornecker and Mrs. John Price were hostesses.

The Service club netted $188 in the Red Cross drive.

P. T. A. at Gales Creek

A Parent-Teacher association was formed at Gales Creek Friday night. The organization meeting was attended by 50 teachers, fathers and mothers. Mrs. Emma Bryant, school superintendent, acted as temporary chairman.

The officers: Mrs. Eva Sargent, president; Mrs. Charles Adkins, vice-president; Walter Sargent, secretary, and Eugene Loving, treasurer. The meeting date has been set for the second Friday of every month.

JUVENILE GRANGE MEETS

The Hillsboro Juvenile Grange held its monthly meeting last Saturday at the Grange hall, having twenty-three members present.

After their business session they had a fine lunch of sandwiches, salad, cake and cocoa. As they had two birthdays in this month they celebrated them by having a birthday cake lit up with candles.

They spent the lecture hour by rendering a short program and playing games, after which they were served to popcorn, oranges and candy.

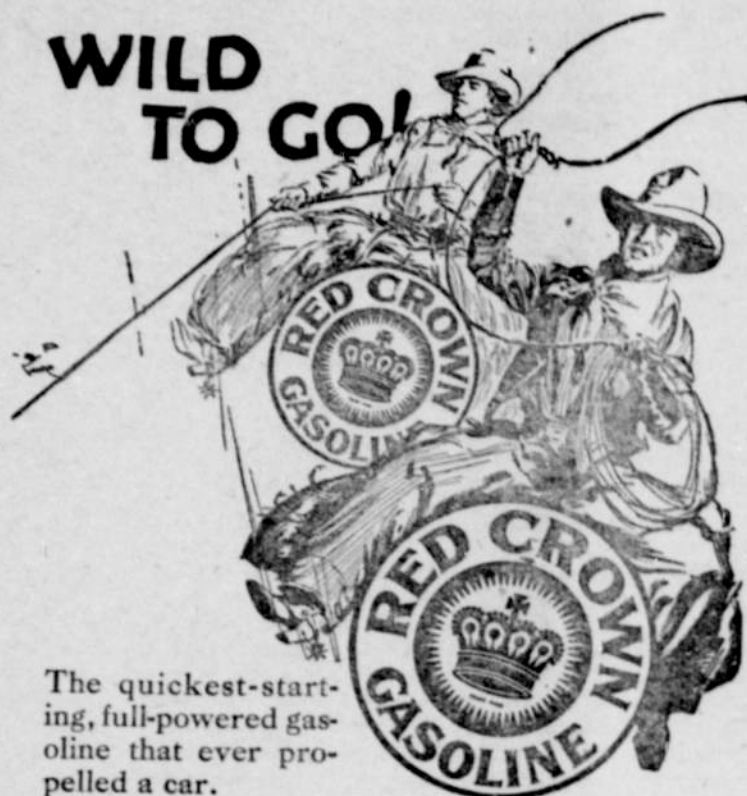

The next Juvenile Grange meeting will be held on the first Saturday in January, when they will initiate five new members.

Mrs. R. Hornecker was assisted by Mrs. E. G. Cox. Watch us grow.
