[Miss Virginia Wight]

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jackson and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. William Christensen of Hillsboro, motored to Clackamas Sunday.

The members of the Bachelors' club of Cornelius played a basketball game with a number of the Reedville boys at Orenco, Cornelius lost, the score being 19-20.

A birthday surprise party was recently given in honor of Mrs. T. V. Livingston by a number of her relatives. A very enjoyable time was had by everyone. Refreshments, in the form of a basket dinner, were served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. McConnell of Reedville, mother of Mrs. Livingston; Mr. and Mrs. Al Jensen of Reedville, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meussig and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McConnell of Portland and Mrs. D. C. McConnell and family of Estacada.

The warehouse owned and operated by D. J. Barrett was recently sold to J. Johnson of Portland.

Mrs. Drusilla Cranz returned Sunday after having spent a vacation of eight days in California.

Chehalem Mountain

Tom Haynes and little sons, Lorin and Donald, were Sunday guests of his sister, Mrs. B. F. Deford.

Mrs. Ira McCormick visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Maude Messinger, at McMinnville Thursday of the past week.

Miss Alice and Kenneth McInnis were Portland visitors Monday.

Mrs. Rufus Ornduff was operated on for appendicitis at a Portland hospital Thursday of last week. She is getting along as well as could be expected. Mr. Ornduff spent several days following her operation with her, and during his absence five of his neighbors finished plowing and seeding his winter oats. (A friend in need is a friend indeed.)

Mr. and Mrs. Fielder Wood and son, Clarence, were Sunday visitors at the J. W. Ornduff home.

The Carlson & Cole sawmill at the foot of the mountain is making a big hole in the timber on what is known as the Green Ridge.

March came in like a lamb—let us hope it won't be too much like a lion when it goes out. Farmers here have been taking advantage of the lamb-like weather to finish their winter seeding.

Lon McCormick of Sunny Crest stopped on his way to Hillsboro Sunday and remained over night, visiting his grandmother, Mrs. E. Jones.

Mervin Whitmore came down from Auburn, Wash., the first of the week for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Frank Shook, and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mattern and children of Sherwood attended the community dance Saturday night and were entertained over Sunday at the J. W. Ornduff home.

Clell Carstens has leased 50 acres of his farm in the north part of town for several years to A. B. Chapple of Seattle, who will have the land set to strawberries. A colony of Japs, who are located at Hillsboro, will be employed.

The residence belonging to the cheese factory property was burned to the ground Sunday evening at about 8 o'clock. The building had not been occupied for some time and the cause of the fire is not known. It is reported that there was no insurance.

Last week a deal was closed for the sale of the general merchandise stock of the C. D. Miller store to W. S. Atley, who moves back into his old quarters and will take up the work that he was engaged in here for years. A few years ago he sold his merchandise stock to C. D. Miller and moved to Yamhill. The store will be open for business March 6. C. D. Miller and family have moved into one of the Parnley houses on Depot street.

Sunday morning smoke and flames were seen coming through the south side of the old livery barn, which is used for a garage, but before the fire alarm could be turned in J. J. Hutchins discovered the blaze and extinguished it.

Rev. Blackwell is conducting revival services in the Methodist church this week.

This week pupils and teachers are enjoying the six weeks' tests.

THE HICKMAN PLAYERS TO RETURN MARCH 9

The second offering of the Hickman comedians, "An Arizona Romance," will be a decided departure from last week's bill, inasmuch as the play is an unusual melodramatic comedy, and has all the elements that go to make this type of sensational melodrama successful. It has action, thrills, a few tears and loads of irresistible comedy. There is a charming love story that gives plenty of heart interest, and through it all the comedy is so cleverly intermingled that "An Arizona Romance" makes an enjoyable evening's entertainment as could be wished for. All the favorites that made last week's offering, "The Go-Getter," such a success, will have congenial roles, together with some new faces, as "An Arizona Romance" requires a larger personnel. The sensible prices have proven so popular over the entire circuit, together with the excellence of the company, that it has been predicted the Hickman comedians will be playing to nothing but capacity houses from now on.

Don't miss "An Arizona Romance" for at the prices you can't afford to. Don't forget the date—next Tuesday evening, March 9.

Mrs. Beach Entertains

Mrs. Fred Beach delightfully entertained the Tualatin Plains Ladies' Aid and Missionary society at her home Wednesday, February 24, from 2 to 5 p. m. Daffodils and English violets were used in profusion, their colors, yellow and blue, being carried out in the decorations. There were about 30 present and all enjoyed themselves very much.

After the business meeting a short program was given and delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Cyphers on the Tom Connell place north of Hillsboro at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, March 31. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

MR. AND MRS. COULTER HONORED LAST WEEK

The friends of J. S. Coulter of this city were surprised to learn of his marriage to Miss Clara Bode of South Bend, Wash., Thursday, February 18. The ceremony was solemnized at 3 p. m. at the residence of Rev. Harry F. Gelvin of South Bend, formerly of Orenco, and was witnessed by near relatives and friends. The couple came at once to Hillsboro, where they will make their home.

Last Thursday the home of the newly-weds was the scene of a real old fashioned surprise party, when a group of friends of Mr. Coulter met to welcome Mrs. Coulter and extend to the happy couple their hearty congratulations and best wishes. A most pleasant evening was spent and the self-invited guests entertained with music and songs by the host's daughters, after which dainty refreshments were served. As a token of the high esteem in which Mr. Coulter is held by his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Coulter were presented with a silver cake plate.

Mrs. Coulter is a talented lady, and was, until recently, manager of the Woman's Shop of South Bend.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tesch, Mr. and Mrs. E. Brandaw, Mr. and Mrs. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. O. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Haworth, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tupper, Mrs. J. Burgia and Fred Tesch, Jr.
