

Scholls

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. T. C. Reed are very glad to have her with them again, if only for a short time. Mrs. Reed has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Collier, of Woodland, Cal., and her niece, Mrs. Bruce Schulmerich, of Alameda, Cal. She also visited other places of interest while in the sunny south.

The junior choir had a jolly and profitable party at the home of Clara Hanson last Friday evening, some 40 of these musically inclined young folks with their instructors had a good practice. After that came games and Miss Clara, assisted by Miss Hazel Penne and Miss Gladys Nissen, served delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches, jello, cake and chocolate. The junior choir says, "Come again."

Mrs. H. T. Koeber and son, Ivan, Mrs. Lamberson and Miss Lamberson were recent guests at the Groner home, Mrs. Koeber remaining for a longer visit.

Minor Hesse is the proud possessor of a fine new five-tube White-side radio.

Everyone seemed to be happy at church Sunday. First, the thermometer went up and over the top, 104 being present, and for the splendid crowd that came to church and for the two special musical numbers, Gilbert and Raeford Jack sang, accompanied by sister Cecile. Chanton Coe sang "The Living God," accompanied by Miss Leona Nugent. To have Mrs. Henderson in the choir seemed like old times.

League also proved interesting. The program: The Misses Molly and Marie Keuch and Mr. Beadles sang a beautiful song; Luther Miller recited a beautiful musical reading, Witmer McDonald singing his part from the balcony. Fredrick McCann's side came out ahead this week on the Bible contest. This contest is proving very interesting.

The program which is to be given by the Scholls Woman's Club this Saturday evening, March 6, is as follows: One-act play, "An Economical Boomerang;" two coons, local ones; musical readings, Mrs. F. C. Rowell; reading, Mrs. N. B. Welsh; solo, George Weston; solo Chanton Coe; recitation, Graydon Fisk, and other features.

Ovie Brown and Francis Rowell motored to Hebo Saturday evening and returned Sunday evening with one salmon and a fine lot of trout to their credit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bartlett and Bonnie, Mr. and Mrs. George Allison and two sons were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kindt at Sellwood.

Mr. Murray is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ed Wohlschlegel.

The Scholls Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Groner. On account of so much sickness there were only eight ladies present. A pleasant afternoon was spent. Next club meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Stretcher.

Aid will meet this Friday with Mrs. J. H. Jack. Everyone is cordially invited to be present.

LITERARY MEETING IS HELD AT HAZELDALE

G. Russell Morgan of Coquille visited home folks Friday and Saturday, returning to the Coos Bay city Saturday night.

The regular meeting of the Hazeldale Literary society was held at the school house on Tuesday evening with a large audience present to hear the lecture given by Colonel Bowen, history instructor of the Hill Military academy. The Colonel's talk was on Custer's last stand against the Indians, and was very interesting and instructive.

Musical numbers consisted of a solo by Mrs. Henrietta C. Gregg, of Hillsboro; a piano, violin and alto horn trio, by Miss Mary Grand, Mr. Hutchinson and Mr. P. Motz, and a solo by little Miss Siverson. In all of these numbers the new piano was a distinct asset, adding to the beauty of the music.

Hazeldale is to be congratulated on having a literary society such as it has, for it made the purchase of the piano possible, as well as the new chairs, and furnishes enjoyable and instructive entertainment to the neighborhood. That the residents of the district appreciate this fact was shown by the size of the audience which taxed the seating capacity, some people driving over from Aloha and Hillsboro.

The next meeting of the Literary society will be on March 9, as it meets the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. An old-fashioned spelling match will be the feature of the evening.

Man alive—
what a difference

Once you drive up to the Green and White Sign and say "General" to the man, you'll know that this gasoline is different.

When you zoom up hills in high that have always called for a gear-shift before—when you slip away ahead of the crowd when the whistle goes—when you fairly feel that new motor life under the hood—then you'll know what we mean by a "different" gasoline.

It's always the same—this perfect motor power—every drop, every day, always as brimful of life and action as gasoline can be made.

Drive up to the Green and White sign—fill up with General. If you have never used it before you have a new thrill coming. "Fill up your tank and let your engine decide." The man who serves you with General Products owns his own station, it is his own investment—he is an Independent.
