Rock Creek

Well, now that Labor Day is over we've got to buckle down and start to punch the old cash register again and shoot in some news. By jinx, it's hard to get started after such holidays, but we don't want to complain because just think of all the high school folks who are smiling today as they go back to the daily grind. Out here in this district school will start the 20th. That still gives the kids a chance to think up a few pranks for the first day. There's Glen and Marie Zuercher, Edna Korn and Eddie Petzold. This quartet begins to put its heads between two cardboard covers today. The first three are going to Washington high and the latter is going to Benson. Then there's Herb Scheidt. He pulled in the other day from Canada and packed his trunk and beat it for Crane, in Harney county, where he is athletic coach in the high school. His school also starts today. That's enuf about education. Now for the news.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kies moved out from Portland and are now living in Mrs. R. Kaufmann's house near Valla Vista.

Miss Marie Berger and her sister, Lillian, were home over the weekend and Labor Day visiting their brother, Henry, who is convalescing from an operation. We are glad to be able to state that Henry is slowly regaining his strength.

Hazeldale

Mrs. Herman Boge and daughter of Farmington were trading in this town and calling on friends this week.

The Hazeldale prune drier will close for the season about Saturday. R. W. Smith of Springfield was visiting with W. P. Brooks and family on Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Snider of Kinton has the loveliest asters we have seen this season and she is very generous in giving them away.

Mr. Qualley of Jacktown has rented his place and is moving to Portland for the winter.

T. E. Bledsoe is very busy plowing for fall seeding now.

Miss Anna Grabhorn has returned to her school at Echo near Pendleton, where she is principal this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith and daughter, Jean, visited friends at Maryhill, Wash., over the week-end. Miss Smith expects to stay for a week or more.

Miss Grace Ayers has returned to her school in Portland.

Frank and Veri Salee, Oscar Taylor and Mr. Homerich made the Tillamook to Seaside loop over the week-end.

Oscar and Charlie Gustafson and J. O. Henry have returned from a fishing trip at Waldport.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Cary had visitors from Washington over Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Sorenson and Mrs. Casch of Rosedale have gone to Independence hop picking.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ennis and family of Hillsboro were visiting with Mrs. Ennis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Clark, Sunday.

South Tualatin

Mr. and Mrs. S. Hyre, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Oakes and family, Miss Vada Ruef, Miss Sophia Schneider of Hillsboro and Alvin Olson of Gaston were guests at the Gillenwater home during the past week, the attraction being watermelons.

Mrs. J. A. Lynn and children of Seattle spent the past three weeks visiting with Mrs. Lela Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Burbank and son and Mrs. Woods and children visited relatives in Salem Sunday.

Fred Bowlby and family spent Sunday evening at the E. E. Rowton home.

E. E. Rowton marketed a truck load of home grown lemons in Vernonia Tuesday.

Miss Cecelia Kalsch opened school Tuesday in the South Tualatin district.

W. H. Harris and wife of Turner City and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Harris of Portland renewed old acquaintance at the Frank Newland home on Labor Day.

too—until a few minutes ago when we got notification that a carload of hair tonic destined for Valle Vista from Alberta, Canada, was nabbed at the border and will be held until Oregon goes wet, which is not very far off. It looks rather cloudy already and we'll probably have some 'er long. We were tickled to note that the wonderful Canadian hair tonic helped Herb tip the scales at close to the 200 mark.
Mr. and Mrs. G. Erickson of Portland visited at the home of Walter Wismer last Sunday.

Everybody All Wet in Ricks Comedy

"More Pay—Less Work," which will show at the Venetian Friday and Saturday is Fox Films' version of Peter B. Kyne's latest story about Cappy Ricks. Kyne has outdone all his former efforts in creating amusing situations for Cappy and his associates and in this comedy he has almost all the principal actors floundering around in San Francisco Bay at some time during the action.
