

Tigard

There will be a special Thanksgiving program given in the Tigard grade school and also at St. Anthony's school Wednesday afternoon. E. L. Vasbinder made a business trip to Hillsboro Monday. Miss Esther Strom represented the Tigard Evangelical Sunday school at the state convention at Salem. Harry West has returned home after making a business trip to several eastern cities and visiting the Sesqui-Centennial at Philadelphia. John B. Stone bought an Essex car from Cash-Pechen Motor company. Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hesse and family of Amity were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Moore. A large number of Grangers met at Butte Grange hall Thursday. Herman Teiderman was a business visitor at Portland Saturday. Mrs. B. Retzlaff has moved to Portland, having traded her property here for a house and lot in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Austin of Dayton spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Saling.

Hazeldale

Mr. and Mrs. Duncaif of Cornelius were recent guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills.

Mrs. Herbert Ulery entertained at her home with a delightful party last Thursday evening in honor of her birthday. Dancing was the chief pastime of the evening, excellent music being furnished by Frank Clark of Hillsboro and Mr. Hutchison of Hazeldale. Dainty refreshments were served about midnight.

Miss Lela Germijet of Beaverton spent Wednesday night with Miss Jean Smith and was a visitor at school on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Heard entertained a few friends at their home on Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. Heard's birthday.

Mrs. Ed Grabhorn and Mrs. Fred Grabhorn and son, Burton Edward, were calling on Mrs. W. P. Brooks last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Syverson, Courtney and Faye spent Sunday in Longview with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Syverson.

Mrs. Raner has bought the Potter property. She expects to move out here in the spring.

Rufie Santoro, who is attending Pacific university, has won a place on the Phi Alpha Tau sophomore debate team. The question for debate is, "Resolved: That the Prohibition Amendment Should be Modified so as to Allow Light Wines and Beers." Mr. Santoro is upholding the negative side of the question.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Griffiths spent Sunday at Willsburg with Mr. Griffith's mother, Mrs. Godman.

Asa Griffiths, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Griffiths, left on Sunday afternoon for The Dalles. He is a fireman on the O. W. R. & N. and has just been transferred from Portland.

William Meinel and Stewart Verberkamus of Gales Creek visited on Sunday at the A. Meinel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Portland visited on Sunday at the S. A. Lewis home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce and family of Portland spent Sunday at the Roy Haynes home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoogduin had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Schumacher of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Crier of Portland and Mrs. Burrow of California.

We offer an apology for the misstatement of Logan McNew's death published under Hazeldale news in the Hillsboro Argus, October 28. Friends will be glad to hear that the report of his death is incorrect.
