

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Harry Morgan has purchased the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. King at Meacham.

Mrs. John Dobbins of Beaverton was calling on Hillsboro friends on Tuesday.

Mrs. M. P. Cady returned Sunday from a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. L. Walworth, at Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Northrup of Shady Brook were Hillsboro business visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Rafferty of Mountaineers were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

J. M. Person was a St. Helens visitor Monday, speaking before the chamber of commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Whitcomb of Portland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cull.

Jack Roy, who has been quite ill for the past week, is reported as improving.

Julius Coupe of Forest Grove was transacting business in Hillsboro Friday. Mr. Coupe formerly resided near this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gardner and son of Portland are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Jones this week. They came out to spend the weekend, but have been confined to the house this week with lagrippe.

Mrs. G. N. Taggart and daughter, Miss Belle, spent last week in Portland, guests of Mrs. Taggart's son, Lawrence, who is now manager of a 20th Century grocery at 20th and Powell streets.

Word from Eugene this week tells of the illness of Miss Margaret Long and an auto accident in which Miss Helen Connell was in one of the damaged cars, although she was not injured. The young ladies are students at U. of O.

Miss Maud J. Mills of St. Helens, secretary of the Farm Loan association of Columbia county, was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday, coming over to attend the association meeting and finding that it had been held on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp of Cornelius were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Dillon. Other visitors at the Dillon home Sunday were Miss Bernice Willis and Earl Hollenbeck of Mountaineers.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Merryman of Klamath Falls are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Tongue and other Hillsboro relatives. Mr. Merryman was formerly a Hillsboro boy, but is now an attorney at Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Rae Eater, Grand Chief of Pythian Sisters of Oregon, was an official visitor at the Gaston and North Plains Temples last week. While making these visits she was a guest of Mrs. E. J. Ward of this city. Mrs. Ward is the most excellent chief of the Gaston Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Branstetter of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. William Gray of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gray of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gray, Mrs. Emma Jones and Mrs. O. C. Curry, all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. George Meacham and son, Elmer, of Meacham were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rhea.

Miss Elizabeth Forney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Forney of west of Hillsboro, who has been very ill with typhoid fever at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland for several weeks, is reported as slightly improved. Miss Forney was in training as a nurse at the hospital and lacked but twelve days of completing her course at the time of her illness. Miss Eva Simpson of Hillsboro, a graduate of Good Samaritan, is one of her nurses.

The Health club, which was organized at the North Grade school last fall, is making real progress. Ten girls have joined the sewing club and 14 boys are in a scroll saw club. The officers, who were elected for six weeks, are as follows: Georgiana Jones, president; Billy Sorenson, vice-president; Glenn Stapleton, secretary; John Briot, treasurer, and Howard Thomas, reporter. Committee members: Decoration, Myrtle Sandy, Mary Yantti, Mildred Colett; social, Ruth Austin, Louise Frank, Howard Thomas; health, Vera Frost, Clair Denham, Isabelle Boy; visit sick members, Vernon Smith, Earle Morley, Willard Newton, and program, Elpha Gossett, Rachel Brethauer, Maxine Hanna. The advisor is Mrs. Margaret Mooberry. One exhibit has been given to which the parents were invited. On Tuesday afternoon the try-out for debaters was held.

One of the largest card parties of the season was given by the Auxiliary to the American Legion at the Veterans' hall Friday night. Mrs. William Reichel and Albert Krahmer were the high point winners at "500," with Mrs. Ivan Freeman and J. L. Auld receiving consolation. Mrs. S. L. Nelson and H. R. Morgan received first prizes at bridge, with Mrs. C. A. Hande and Allan Pugh receiving consolation. After refreshments were served, dancing was enjoyed, the music being furnished by Mrs. J. L. Auld, pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rehse of Farmington entertained with a dinner Friday evening, the occasion being their fifteenth wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in cards and music. They were the recipients of many beautiful presents. Those present were: Messrs. M. and M. G. McPherson, E. Burkhalter, H. Schulmerich, Mrs. Herman Kamna, Mrs. H. W. Steinke, Mrs. Eva Bagnell, Miss Amber Hastie, Arline Kamna, Dorothy Steinke, Helen, Ruby and Arnold Bagnell, Dolores McPherson, Loren Rehse, Edgar Kamna, John Kamna, Jr., and host and hostess.

Mrs. E. E. Bentley received a telegram this morning announcing the death of her father, P. P. Wright, in Los Angeles. Mr. Wright had made his home with Mrs. Bentley this winter, and had just been taken to Los Angeles by Mrs. Bentley. James Bettis left for Grants Pass last week in response to a letter announcing the illness of his daughter, Mrs. Howard Smith. Mrs. Smith was taken to the Medford hospital, where she underwent an operation Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Conser Rhea and children returned to their home at Freewater the last of the week, after a few weeks' visit at the home of Mr. Rhea's father, J. P. Rhea. Mrs. Dora Nelson, Mrs. Henry Johnson and little daughter, Janet, Mrs. Richard Spencer and little daughter, Peggy, of Portland were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. L. J. Rushlow is visiting in Salem this week, a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Christianson, and family. E. M. Sturdevant and his mother of Cornelius were transacting business in Hillsboro Friday. A. S. Montgomery and R. W. Montgomery of Mountaineers were Hillsboro business visitors Saturday.

J. R. McNew and family of Buxton were Hillsboro visitors Saturday. O. D. Dreezen of Banks was transacting business in Hillsboro Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vanderzanden of Cornelius were Hillsboro visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Melhuish spent the week-end with Mrs. Melhuish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaBare, at St. Helens. Mrs. Harriet Kautz of Portland has re-opened the Princess Beauty Shop at 1313 Main street, formerly conducted by Mrs. Clara Garrett.

John Richards of Post Falls, Ida., was a guest of his uncle, G. W. Hendren, and family. Mr. Richards was enroute to California. Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Bailey and Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Bailey and young son were Sunday guests of Mrs. F. A. Bailey and Miss Eva. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Payne and son spent a few days the first of the week at their summer home at Pacific City.

Fred Wolschlagel of Chehalis Mountain was in town Thursday for medical treatment. Louis Finigan of the same section was also a Hillsboro visitor Thursday. James Imbric, who has been working with a bridge construction force of the Southern Pacific, left last night for Coos Bay, where the force has been transferred.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Inkley of Banks were Hillsboro visitors yesterday. Mr. Inkley is expecting to have a sale of stock and farm implements soon. Mrs. Sophia Smith of Forest Grove and her house guest, Miss Thelma Via, of Portland were dinner guests at the McKinney home Monday evening.

Charles Deichman, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dennis of Longview, Wash., were visiting Sunday at the home of Mr. Deichman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Deichman. Alvin, the 19-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Johnson, was painfully scalded about the face, neck, chest and left arm Saturday evening, when he accidentally tipped a pan of hot water over himself.

C. L. Beck of Matson station was transacting business in Hillsboro yesterday. Mr. Beck recently leased the Cooper place at Matson station and moved down from Spokane Sunday with his wife and daughter. Robert Earl Grabel, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Grabel of this city, died Friday and funeral services were held at the George J. Limber funeral parlors Saturday. Interment was in the Hillsboro cemetery.

Mrs. E. J. Williams and children visited last week with Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Underwood, in Portland. Mr. Williams spent the week-end there and brought the family home with him Sunday night. Mrs. E. E. Bentley returned on Thursday night from Los Angeles, Calif., after making the trip to take her father, P. P. Wright, home. Mr. Wright had been visiting Mrs. Bentley and family for several months, but on account of ill health decided to return to Los Angeles. He was ill on the trip south and was immediately taken to a hospital upon arrival.

R. H. Mitchell, who founded the Hillsboro Argus in March, 1894, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday attending the district meeting of the Federal Land Bank of Spokane. Mr. Mitchell is editor of the paper at Kalama, Wash., and secretary of the farm loan association. The late W. C. Clow was associated with Mr. Mitchell in the Argus, but sold out to his partner a few months later. Mr. Mitchell sold the Argus to L. A. Long, who was editor for so many years. Mr. Mitchell said that one wouldn't know that Hillsboro was the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Bechen of Orenco entertained friends and relatives with a card party Saturday night, five tables of "500" being played. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell, Mrs. J. C. Bechen, Carl and Haaby Bechen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imbric, all of Orenco; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Saxton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, Miss Elvora Brown, William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Braman, all of Portland, and the host and hostess. At a late hour the hostess served delicious refreshments at the close of a very enjoyable evening.

W. C. Jackson of North Plains was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday.

Mrs. H. R. Emmott is ill with lagrippe this week.

Jack Abel of Well's store is confined to his home with illness this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thornburgh of Banks were Hillsboro visitors yesterday.

A program and basket social will be held at the Helvetia school February 18.

Millard Burnett and his mother, Mrs. M. L. Burnett, of near Banks were Hillsboro callers Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ritter of Helvetia were Hillsboro business callers Tuesday.

William Metzler of Firdale was transacting business in Hillsboro on Friday.

J. S. Taylor of Laurel was a business caller in the county seat Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Heuer of near Scheflin underwent an operation Friday for appendicitis. Dr. E. H. Smith operating.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Melhuish spent the week-end with Mrs. Melhuish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaBare, at St. Helens.

Mrs. Harriet Kautz of Portland has re-opened the Princess Beauty Shop at 1313 Main street, formerly conducted by Mrs. Clara Garrett.

John Richards of Post Falls, Ida., was a guest of his uncle, G. W. Hendren, and family. Mr. Richards was enroute to California.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Bailey and Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Bailey and young son were Sunday guests of Mrs. F. A. Bailey and Miss Eva.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Payne and son spent a few days the first of the week at their summer home at Pacific City.

Fred Wolschlagel of Chehalis Mountain was in town Thursday for medical treatment. Louis Finigan of the same section was also a Hillsboro visitor Thursday.

James Imbric, who has been working with a bridge construction force of the Southern Pacific, left last night for Coos Bay, where the force has been transferred.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Inkley of Banks were Hillsboro visitors yesterday. Mr. Inkley is expecting to have a sale of stock and farm implements soon.

Mrs. Sophia Smith of Forest Grove and her house guest, Miss Thelma Via, of Portland were dinner guests at the McKinney home Monday evening.

Charles Deichman, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dennis of Longview, Wash., were visiting Sunday at the home of Mr. Deichman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Deichman.

Alvin, the 19-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Johnson, was painfully scalded about the face, neck, chest and left arm Saturday evening, when he accidentally tipped a pan of hot water over himself.

C. L. Beck of Matson station was transacting business in Hillsboro yesterday. Mr. Beck recently leased the Cooper place at Matson station and moved down from Spokane Sunday with his wife and daughter.

Robert Earl Grabel, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Grabel of this city, died Friday and funeral services were held at the George J. Limber funeral parlors Saturday. Interment was in the Hillsboro cemetery.

Mrs. E. J. Williams and children visited last week with Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Underwood, in Portland. Mr. Williams spent the week-end there and brought the family home with him Sunday night.

Mrs. E. E. Bentley returned on Thursday night from Los Angeles, Calif., after making the trip to take her father, P. P. Wright, home. Mr. Wright had been visiting Mrs. Bentley and family for several months, but on account of ill health decided to return to Los Angeles. He was ill on the trip south and was immediately taken to a hospital upon arrival.

R. H. Mitchell, who founded the Hillsboro Argus in March, 1894, was a Hillsboro visitor Monday attending the district meeting of the Federal Land Bank of Spokane. Mr. Mitchell is editor of the paper at Kalama, Wash., and secretary of the farm loan association. The late W. C. Clow was associated with Mr. Mitchell in the Argus, but sold out to his partner a few months later. Mr. Mitchell sold the Argus to L. A. Long, who was editor for so many years. Mr. Mitchell said that one wouldn't know that Hillsboro was the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Bechen of Orenco entertained friends and relatives with a card party Saturday night, five tables of "500" being played. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Connell, Mrs. J. C. Bechen, Carl and Haaby Bechen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imbric, all of Orenco; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Saxton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, Miss Elvora Brown, William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Braman, all of Portland, and the host and hostess. At a late hour the hostess served delicious refreshments at the close of a very enjoyable evening.

The Busy Bee club met at the Grange hall Tuesday with 30 members present, the hostesses being Meedames Auld, Ashahr, Aldinger and Bentley. For entertainment Mrs. Hornecker had a pie walk in which the pie was won by Mrs. Jennie Rollins. Arrangements were made for a card party next Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Grange hall; also a play, "Just Like a Woman," to be given on February 18. The ladies have a beautiful quilt, which will be auctioned off to the last bidder at Grange Saturday afternoon during the lecture hour, which is open to all.

Miss Bertha Lusty of Portland was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Auld, near Farmington, and accompanied them to the Auxiliary card party Friday night. Miss Lusty spent 16 months as a war nurse, 10 months in the United States and six months overseas. She is a member of the Portland Post and Auxiliary.

John J. Koch, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koch of Blooming, died at the Jones hospital Sunday and funeral services were held at the Glenn F. Bell Mortuary Tuesday, with Rev. L. Steube of Blooming officiating. Interment was in the Blooming cemetery. The baby was born February 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Hopkins of Carbonado, Wash., were Hillsboro visitors last week, calling on their relatives, Frank Barr and family. They were enroute to San Diego, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Arbuthnot of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bentley and Evelyn were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Walsh of Newton.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Batchelor of Battle Ground, Wash., returned home yesterday, after a few days' visit with Mr. Batchelor's brothers, Harvey and Victor Batchelor, and their families.

Mrs. John Boone of Tualatin, well known here, is ill at the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland. Her daughter, Mrs. Sagert of San Jose, Calif., was called to her bedside this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sanford and children and Miss Olive Mead of Portland and Philip Mead of North Plains were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hartrampf.

Miss Ruth Jones of Portland and Miss Faye Jones, attending Normal school at Monmouth, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tesch returned Monday from a trip to Atlantic City, N. J., where Mr. Tesch attended the National Cannery convention.

N. W. Thompson of Moro, attending the Hardware Men's convention in Portland, was a guest last night of his daughter, Mrs. A. H. Busch, and family.

Mrs. M. C. Hewitt, who was operated upon last week at the Smith hospital, is improving. Through a mistake her name appeared in last week's paper as Hult.

Word has been received here of the birth of a girl on February 8 to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson of Banks.

Miss Mary Yoder, teaching in the Durham school, was a week-end guest of Mrs. O. R. Anderson at Witch Hazel.

The February meeting of the Social Circle of the Congregational church will be postponed from February 17th to the 24th.

Wally Whitmore of Chehalis Mountain is ill with pneumonia at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Grace McCormick, in Portland.

Mrs. Max Crandall and Mrs. F. O. Wesson are reported ill this week.

F. A. Samuelson of Portland was transacting business in Hillsboro on Tuesday.

The St. Matthews young people will give a basket social and program Monday night at the hall.

Miss Gladys Van Lom of Leisyville is attending the Northwestern Business college in Portland.

Miss Ethel Linklater of Reed college was a week-end visitor at her home here.

Homer Hamock has purchased the Griffith place on Maple street and has taken possession.

Dr. George Darland is ill this week with the flu.

Alfred Stephens of Buxton was a Hillsboro business visitor Friday.

S. Wyss of Gaston was a county seat business caller Tuesday.

Dr. D. E. Wiley is confined to his bed with illness.

Charles D. Jones was on the sick list the first of the week.

The estate of W. J. R. Beach, who died at Forest Grove February 7, has been admitted to probate.

Ray Emmott, prominent Vernonia business man, was here the last of the week visiting relatives.

George Johnson of Buxton was in the county seat on business Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. James of near Reedville were Hillsboro callers on Thursday of last week.

G. D. Faris and son of near Orenco were Hillsboro business visitors Saturday.

Mrs. A. M. Hart of near Reedville was a Hillsboro caller Saturday.

A building permit was granted to Charles Stevens Tuesday to construct a $3500 residence at Oak and Moran streets.

Douglas, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix O'Donnell, is very ill at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rushlow.

The Congregational church services Sunday will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 and preaching service at 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Olson of Beaverton were Hillsboro callers Saturday. Mr. Olson has the garage at Progress.

L. M. Miller and Fred McCann of Scholls were in the county seat on business Saturday. Mr. Miller runs the chop mill at Scholls.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Solberger and son, and the Misses Ruth and Josephine Lewis of Mason Hill were county seat visitors Saturday.

Web Phillips of Yamhill was a Hillsboro visitor the last of the week, a guest of his sister, Mrs. P. M. Jackson.

The Coffee club will give a Valentine card party Saturday afternoon at the chamber of commerce rooms. Everybody invited.

C. M. Tupper left Tuesday for his home in Yakima, Wash., after an extended visit with his brother, William Tupper, and family.

Roy Rice, former Hillsboro resident, has been appointed manager of the Lincoln county territory for the Nosler Motor Co. Mr. Rice and family have been living in Tillamook for several months and they left for Toledo the first of the week.

L. E. Boy, brother of Charles Boy of Bethany, was in town Thursday of last week. He was in the Jones hospital for several weeks suffering from a broken knee cap sustained in a logging accident in the camp near Yachats.

The Busy Bees club of the Grange will give a card party at the Grange hall on next Wednesday afternoon, February 16, instead of Tuesday afternoon as first announced. Refreshments and prizes. Admission, 25c. Everybody invited.

Dr. J. H. Rossman received an old piece of music from his sister, Miss F. A. Rossman, from New York last week. Miss Rossman, who is well known here, is now studying in the eastern metropolis. The music was painted in four bars on heavy parchment some time in the 15th century.

Robert William Vandehy, son of Mrs. Roger Mahoney, of Yamhill, wrote a letter to the Topsy Turvy Times club in care of the Portland News and he is entitled to join the club, according to word broadcast over the radio February 1. Robert's age is 12 and he is in the sixth grade. They formerly lived here.

Other local news on page four.

Grand Chief Visits Friday

Mrs. Rae Bater, Grand Chief of Pythian Sisters of Oregon, will make an official visit to the local Temple Friday night. All members are requested to be in attendance.

K. P. Lodge Will Entertain

The Knights of Pythias will entertain the Pythian Sisters at a card party Friday night, February 18. Members of the two orders and their families will be the guests.

A basket social will be held at the Grabel school house Saturday night, February 12. A play, "The Day Express," will be presented and everybody is invited.

Make your eyes more useful than they are. Our perfect fitting glasses will help you to better vision. Phone 1631, the Thompson-Glutch Optical Co., for appointment. 49-1f

The Ladies Aid of the Christian church will have a food sale at Greer-Powers Store on Saturday, February 19. Open at 9:30 a. m. 61

Firesmen Give Dance

Members of the Hillsboro fire department will give a public dance at the Commercial hall Friday night. Good music. A charge of 75c will be made to the gentlemen. Also special Valentine dance on Monday night. 50

Hard Times Dance

Given by the Grange Busy Bees at the M. W. A. hall on Saturday night, February 12. Modern and old time dancing. Prizes will be given. Admission, ladies, 25c; gentlemen, 25c. Good music. Everybody welcome. 49-50

Lodene Beauty Shoppe, 1442 3rd St., Hillsboro, Marcel, 75 cents. Colonial Dames' preparations.—Bessie Hanley. 48-1f

Have your eyes examined by a specialist. See Dr. Luzader at the Hillsboro Pharmacy every Saturday. Hours 10 to 4 o'clock. 36-1f

Lodge Directory

TUALATIN CHAPTER No. 31, O. E. S. Meets third Tuesday each month, at 8 p. m. Visitors Welcome Bertha Deck, Worthy Matron Rose Cave, Secretary

HILLSBORO POST NO. 6 Meets every 2nd and 4th Tuesday in Veterans' Memorial Hall Charles Jones, Ivan Freeman, Commander, Adjutant

AUXILIARY TO POST NO. 6 American Legion Meets first Tuesday in each month at 8 p. m. in Veterans' Hall Emma McKinney, Marie Hoffman, President, Secretary

Professional Cards

ELMER H. SMITH, M. D. D. O. X-Ray Diagnosis and Treatments L. B. SMITH, D. O. Osteopathic Physician

Offices over Hillsboro National Bank Office Phone 872 - Res. Phone 872 Hillsboro - Oregon

DR. J. O. ROBB, M. D. Physician and Surgeon District Surgeon: S. P. and P. R. & N

Office—Telephone Bldg. Second St. Res.—Corner of 6th and Washington Phones: Office 2921 - Res. 2923 Hillsboro - Oregon

DR. D. E. WILEY, M. D. Physician and Surgeon Commercial Bank Building Phone: Office, 2681 - Res., 2682 Hillsboro, Oregon

Business Cards Real Estate - All Kinds of Insurance K'RA FLI & WISMER Auctioneer Phone 1391 1236 Second St. Hillsboro

BERT C. HUNTINGTON Realtor City Property - Farms - Rentals Loans - Insurance 1213 Third St. Hillsboro Office Phone, 223 - Res. Phone, 2047

MARK EVERY GRAVE NOW, before the spring rush begins, is the time to select memorials. Orders placed with us now can be completed and erected in May if so desired.

LATEST DESIGNS Fine Lettering a Specialty MRS. M. N. LEWIS & CO. Hillsboro - Oregon

The great popularity of Gruen Guild Watches is well deserved

They have that rare quality of style and distinction that has made the name Gruen famous in the world of watches.

We invite you to come and see our display. J. L. Anderson JEWELER 1211 Main St. Hillsboro

Do Your Indoor Painting, Tinting, Varnishing NOW

Because: Painters are not so busy now as they will be later; hence you will get Better service at less cost!

Your home will be brighter when brightness is needed—gloomy days of late winter—and You will be helping to keep men busy, who otherwise would be idle.

Remember: We are Exclusive Distributors for FULLER'S Paints, Varnishes, Enamels and Kalsomines.

V. W. GARDNER LUMBER CO. Block West of Post Office Phone 2731

The Commercial National Bank Hillsboro, Oregon

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS — $100,000.00 RESOURCES — $1,199,000.00

Member Federal Reserve System

Our stockholders number fifty of the leading farmers and business men of Washington County.

Edward Schulmerich, President Glenn T. Stapleton, First Vice-President E. I. Kuratli, Second Vice-President William C. Christensen, Cashier James A. Wood, Assistant Cashier F. J. Sewell, Assistant Cashier

The Commercial National Bank is the largest bank in Washington County.

BEAUTIFUL HAND MADE GIFTS

These gifts and novelties made by disabled Veterans are on display and offered for sale at very reasonable prices.

The display, consisting of all manner of brass and silver work, leather goods, bath mats and fancy work, was made by the Occupational Therapy Department of the U. S. Naval Hospital at Chelsea, Mass.

The boys have some wonderful things here. COME IN AND LOOK THEM OVER

THE BOOK AND GIFT SHOP Commercial Building MR. AND MRS. GERALD A. BARR, Proprietors