BEAVERTON NEWS

The Beaverton Review cooking school ended last Thursday. The classes were well attended and very welcome to the women of Beaverton. The final prizes were won by the following: Eleanor Haulenbeck, Mrs. Mary Lasswell, Mrs. C. Hulett, Mrs. C. F. Deal and Mrs. P. Reghitta.

Harry Summers house caught fire May 17. Although the fire had a good start it was brought under control before much damage was done. Only the kitchen was badly burned.

Miss Christensen, teacher of history and civics at the high school, will be married at Mr. Charles Walker, June 28.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Denny and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Jannsen attended the Rotary dinner in Hillsboro Thursday evening.

Graduation exercises were held in the high school auditorium May 20. The girls' dresses were of pastel shades. The boys wore dark suits. Dr. U. G. Dubach, dean of men, O. A. C., gave the address, "Life's Adventure." Superintendent Metzler presented the scholarship to Miss Helen Stiles. Miss Stiles helped in the presentation of the diplomas.

A surprise birthday party was given in honor of William Boyd. Seven tables of five hundred were entertained. Doy Gray won first prize, J. C. Huntly, second, and Elmer Stipe consolation.

Myrtle Johnson has left for Scenic, Wash., where she intends to spend the summer with friends.

The 1927 issue of the Beaverton high school annual was distributed at the graduation exercises.

R. H. Jonas of Prineville was visiting in Beaverton last Friday. Mr. Jonas was formerly superintendent of the high school and editor of a Beaverton paper.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Huntley and Mrs. Walter Gorham attended Rose City chapter Friday evening.

Mrs. F. W. Livermore, Jr., entertained the Lady Slipper club at a luncheon Friday. Those present were Mrs. J. W. Barnes, Mrs. W. O. Roberts, Mrs. V. A. Woods, Mrs. Leslie Spencer, Mrs. Sam Lawrence of Raleigh, Mrs. Wibel of Portland, Mrs. J. R. Talbert, Mrs. W. N. Gorham, Mrs. M. C. Mc Kercher and Mrs. Frank Lassiter.

Mrs. Walter Gorham spent the week-end with friends at Eugene.

Miss Georgie Cline was taken to the hospital Friday to be operated on for appendicitis.

The funeral services of Mrs. Hickembothem were held in Pegg's mortuary Sunday at four o'clock.

Misses Anna and Hannah Young are visiting in Portland with friends for several weeks.

Miss Clarice Law has gone to Newport, where she will work this summer.

J. R. Law and family have moved to Milwaukie.

Beaverton high school won second place in the Washington county track meet Friday. The girls' team consisted of Lilly and Marie Leahy, Dorothy McMichael, Mabel McDonald, Juanita Spencer, Myrtle Johnson, Lela Hammersley and Elsie Whitworth. The mainstays of the boys' team were Clyde Edwards, Chuck Grandt, James Welch, Kenney Peterson, Adolph Kijowski, Aldon Barron, Ray Harrison and Chester Bristoe. This is the first time Beaverton has entered the county meet for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Poulson are going to Eugene for the summer. They will attend the summer school there.

Robert Johnson, age 79, died at his home in North Beaverton, May 21. Mr. Johnson was a pioneer of this district.

Mrs. Conroy of Pittsburg, Penn., was visiting at the R. B. Denny home Tuesday of this week.

J. E. Conolly, manager of the Twentieth Century store here, has been transferred to Forest Grove.

Miss Lila Germinquet, who was recently operated on for appendicitis in the Emanuel hospital at Portland, died at her home in Beaverton on Monday, May 23. Miss Germinquet was operator at the local telephone office.

Miss Noreen Nelson arrived home from Heppner, where she has been engaged in teaching the 4th grade. She surprised her friends by announcing her marriage to Mr. Lewis W. Allyn on March 27.

Miss Rhea Wilkes
Graduates O. A. C.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, May 25—Miss Rhea Wilkes of Hillsboro is a member of the 1927 graduating class. While in high school she was president of the glee club, secretary of the student body and president of the literary society.

PAINT

The Cost of Applying Poor Paint is Just as Much as Applying Good Paint.

USE ALBA PAINT

The Quality is Good, the Price is Right—
$2.98 per gallon

For $1.25 you can get enough paint to paint the interior woodwork, base boards, window and door trim, doors, etc., of the average sized bed room. It doesn't cost much to brighten up the interior of the home. We will be pleased to advise you as to the cost of your paint requirements.
