Mrs. George Sheppard went to Forest Grove Tuesday.

Mrs. Dorothy Seymour, Mrs. Lena Higby and William Hammond of Forest Grove and Frank Olmsted of York, Neb., dropped in to the Sheppard home Monday in time for supper. Forty-five years ago Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Sheppard and Mr. Olmsted were schoolmates in York, so had a pleasant visit reviewing old time events. Mr. Olmsted has spent his life on the level prairies of Nebraska, where one can see in every direction as far as the eyesight can reach, so was amazed at the beauties and wonders of our fair land; the scenery, the trees, the fruit, the vegetables, the flowers, the soil all were wonderful to him. His good bye remark was, "I am coming to Oregon to live."

Mrs. S. Reynolds' daughter, Mrs. Jessie Beatty, who has been living at Bandon for several years, is opening a beauty shop in Forest Grove.

A. K. Reynolds, accompanied by his mother and uncle were visitors in Forest Grove on Tuesday.
