Golden Opportunities In Classified Columns

Further evidence of the real value of the classified columns of the Argus was shown the last of the week by the answers received to an ad run by Manager Richard E. Wiley of the Oregon-Washington Water Service Corporation in the Argus of July 28.

Ten persons answered the call of the water company for a part time typist-bookkeeper. Argus readers realize the value of the large amount of classified advertising in the Argus each week, and take advantage of them. A golden opportunity may be found on the next to the last page of the Argus.

EISCHEM-FRANCIS

Mr. Alexander C. Eischen of Cornelius and Miss Ida Marion Francis of Hillsboro were united in marriage at high noon at the home of the bride's uncle, L. J. Francis, at Tualatin. L. J. Francis officiated at the wedding, being a justice of the peace.

After the ceremony a dinner was served to the wedding party.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Francis of near this city, and is well known here, having attended Hillsboro high school. The groom is a son of Mrs. M. Eischen of Cornelius, and both young people are popular in their communities.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home at the farm of the groom near Cornelius.

The Most Amazing Quality in Chevrolet History

Offering the most amazing quality in Chevrolet history, today's Chevrolet is the most popular gear-shift car the world has ever known.

Quality in design! Quality in construction! Quality in appearance and performance! Never before has a low-priced car possessed them to such an amazing degree—

—because no other low-priced car combines the progressiveness of Chevrolet and the diversified experience, the vast resources and marvelous facilities of General Motors.

Go with the crowds and study today's Chevrolet. Mark well the aristocratic beauty of its lines—the superbly executed details of its bodies by Fisher.

Then go for a ride! Revel in the thrilling spurt that results when you "step on the gas." Delight in the smooth operation—the swift sweep of the passing miles. Marvel at the way the car hugs the road, the ease with which it obeys the steering wheel, the promptness with which it responds to the brakes!

Here is quality obtainable at prices which reflect the savings of tremendous production and which emphasizes the willingness to share these savings with the public.

Here is the most desired object of American life today; a car of amazing quality—for everybody, everywhere!
