

Chehalem Mt.

The descendants of Mrs. Elizabeth Jones and their families gathered at her home Monday and celebrated her 85th birthday anniversary. An immense birthday cake decorated with 85 candles was made by a granddaughter, Mrs. Harold Moore. Thirty-six were present, including three daughters—Mrs. Ellie Ornduff, Mrs. C. M. McCormick, Mrs. Mike McKern and family of Fernwood; and five sons, Wilbur and Brad, at home, Frank and family, James and wife, Charles and wife of Newberg. Grandchildren and their families were Wallace Jones and Mrs. Harold Moore and family of Newberg, Rufus Ornduff and family on the mountain, Mrs. Chester Everest and husband of Newberg, Lon McCormick of Hillsboro, and a niece, Mrs. Fielder Wood, and her husband. Dinner was served on the lawn near the house.

L. T. Finigan went to Portland Monday to get accessories for his threshing machine, in readiness for threshing the last of the week.

Fred Wohlschlegel and Blanche Rhodes of Newberg took the trip around Mt. Hood the first of the week.

Miss Winifred Finigan is visiting at the home of Otto and Annie Ornduff near Stanfield this week.

Miss Teresa Bohman of Kelseo, and Mrs. Harold Reed of Caldwell, Idaho, were dinner guests at the I. G. McCormick home Tuesday evening of the past week. Miss Monica McCormick accompanied Miss Bohman home and remained until Saturday evening.

Miss Beryl Deford, who has been attending summer school at Eugene, returned home Tuesday.

Lon McCormick was out from Hillsboro Friday of the past week, calling on friends and relatives and receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby daughter, named Ethyl Mae. Mother and daughter are doing nicely in a Hillsboro hospital.

Mrs. Maud Messinger of McMinnville visited at the homes of her sisters, Mrs. D. M. McInnis and Mrs. W. R. Davis, and brother, I. G. McCormick, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith and daughter, Miss Helen, attended the Adventist camp meeting at Forest Grove Saturday. Miss Helen is the guest of friends at the camp meeting.

The daughters of Mrs. Ernest Smith honored her with a picnic dinner at the camp ground at the foot of the mountain Sunday, the occasion being Mrs. Smith's birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoffman and children, and Mrs. Caroline Hoffman of this place; Mr. and Mrs. George Gould and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Schmidt and children, and Edgar Hardin, of Portland; and Mrs. Sydney Bennett and baby daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Finigan and daughters, Misses Bernice and Wanda, returned home Wednesday evening of the past week from a motor trip as far south as Crescent City, California. They went by way of Government Camp on Mt. Hood where they encountered the only rains on their trip, thence south, visiting all points of interest, including East lake, Diamond lake, Crater lake, Klamath Falls, and the Oregon caves, returning from Crescent City by way of Bandon, where they visited B. W. Haynes, a well known former mountain man, now in the hardware business at Bandon. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shuck and son, Stanley, of Hillsboro, and Miss Emma Finigan of Portland, accompanied the Finigans as far as Bandon, where they remained the rest of the week.

Two enjoyable dinner parties on the mountain Sunday were at the Finigan and McInnis homes. Guests at the Finigan home were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wohlschlegel and daughters, Rhea and Enold, the Carl Wohlschlegel family, and Otto Ornduff. At the McInnis home were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McInnis of Scholls, Sydney Bennett of Portland and the Ira McCormick family.

PETERSEN-DIETRICH

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday at the Phillips Reformed church, when Miss Gertrude Dietrich of Portland became the bride of Mr. Alex Petersen. The ceremony was read by Rev. Edw. Scheidt.

At 4 o'clock the bridal procession, consisting of about thirty guests, entered the church to the wedding march played by Miss Thekla Scheidt, after which Miss Lydia Scheidt sang "At Dawning."

Miss Hanna Burghard was the bridesmaid, with Mr. Ernest Demler acting as best man. The two little nieces of the bride, Margaret Clark and Helene Herzog, were the flower girls.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. S. Floss, at Milwaukie, where a happy evening was spent.

TO '795 F.O.B. DETROIT.

HERE again in this new "52" is another one of those vivid Chrysler demonstrations of greater value which tell their own striking story at a glance.

You need only see the Chrysler "52"—contrasting it in your mind with everything offered in its field—to realize that once more Chrysler Standardized Quality has yielded more to the buyer than money has ever been able to buy before.

Here in the new Chrysler "52" is true beauty far above previous standards in its class.

Here is vigor of performance far greater than you have ever been able to buy before at this money—52 and more unvarying miles per hour, delivered with a smoothness no other low-priced car can even approach.

Here, in the new "52", are ample space and comfort with long, roomy bodies, staunchly constructed of wood and steel.

See it, and above all, drive it—for once you have experienced its performance we are confident that you, too, will agree that in the new "52" Chrysler has passed beyond all accepted limits of what $725 to $795 have been able to buy in motoring performance, comfort and luxury.
