

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

O. J. Briggs was a week-end visitor at Roseburg.

Fred Gombert of near Cedar Canyon was a Hillsboro business visitor Monday.

Mrs. S. W. Melhuish returned Saturday from a week's vacation at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan are enjoying a ten days' vacation at their cottage at Meacham.

Holbert Rose, who has been confined to his home with an abscessed knee for several weeks, is reported as improving.

Miss Ruby Hornecker returned last week from Ashland, where she attended the summer session of the Ashland Normal school.

Mrs. L. C. Lomax and Mrs. A. H. Busch attended a bridge party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. W. Anderson at Forest Grove.

Miss Elsie Pixner of the Tongue Bros. law offices is spending a two weeks' vacation at the home of parents in Astoria. Mrs. Elmer Wohler is substituting for her in the office.

Mrs. James Sigler and Mrs. H. Kellington and little daughter visited Mrs. Sigler's daughter, Mrs. H. Frank, at Garibaldi last week, accompanying James Wood on his trip to Rockaway.

Mrs. Anne Hornecker received word Friday of the arrival of a son to Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Yount at Spokane, Wash. Mrs. Yount was formerly Miss Alta Hornecker and is well known here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ogilvie spent several days the last of the week at Seaside, Gearhart and Cannon Beach, returning home Sunday evening. They were accompanied by their little grandson, Robert, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kearney of Astoria were week-end visitors of Mrs. Kearney's mother and sister, Mrs. William Wahlgren and Miss Agnes Wahlgren. Mrs. Wahlgren returned to Astoria with them for a few weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wismer entertained about thirty friends at their home near Bethany Monday evening, the affair being a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Jake Krause and family of Manly, Iowa, who have been visiting relatives and friends in that section.

Mrs. L. A. Long and daughter, Miss Margaret, and Miss Helen Connell are spending the week at Rockaway, where they are domiciled in one of the Krebs cottages. Jack Connell and Lester Chase took them over to the beach Sunday and returned Monday.

Mrs. L. G. White of Vancouver, B. C., was a guest over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Benn and Mr. and Mrs. C. Willis White and family. Her little son, Murray, who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. Benn, since her trip to Vancouver some time ago, returned home with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Crawford spent Sunday at Eagle Creek on the Columbia highway. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillis and son, Charles, of Portland. The gentlemen in the party walked up to the Devil's Punch Bowl, several miles off the highway.

A picnic was held at the fish hatchery on Gales Creek Sunday in celebration of the birthday of Conway Carter of Portland, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Carter of this city. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Carter and son, Earl, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Larrance and family, and little Nona Curtis of Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Carter and children, Miss Anne Shuh and Conway Carter of Portland.

Avery Crandall and daughter, Miss Gladys, of Pontiac, Michigan, arrived Friday for a few weeks' visit with Mr. Crandall's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Crandall, and his brother, Max Crandall, and family. Mr. Crandall is still carrying his arm in a sling from the effects of an accident last March, when he was knocked down by a Ford while walking near the Ford plant. Mr. Crandall says that 1000 Pontiacs and 500 Oaklands are made in a day in his town, and the same plant also makes the engines for the Willys-Knight cars. Flint, Pontiac and Detroit make 90 per cent of all automobiles manufactured in the United States, according to Mr. Crandall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Challacombe and daughter, Dorothy, visited with Mr. Challacombe's brother, Willis Challacombe, and family, at Cosmopolis several days the last of the week, returning home Monday. They were accompanied by Mr. Challacombe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Challacombe, of Cornelius, who remained for a few weeks' visit there.

Mrs. C. A. Dunham of Westington Springs, South Dakota, was a Hillsboro visitor over the week-end, a guest of her brother, Hugh Rogers, and family. Mrs. Dunham is on the staff of the Westington Springs Republican and was enroute home from a trip to California. She will visit Yellowstone National park before returning to her home.

Fred Cornelius said that the main thing which impressed him in his visit to Seattle several weeks ago was the speed at which cars and pedestrians traveled in the northern city, the rate being much faster than Portland. He was accompanied on his trip by Mrs. Cornelius, Miss Hettie Jack and William Jack.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Alexander and Miss Hazel Bryant left on Monday for a vacation at Newport. Mr. Alexander will only remain a week, but the ladies will remain several weeks and will be joined next week by Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bryant, and Miss Lenora Bryant.

Misses Leona and Jean Rogers and Hugh Rogers, Jr., arrived home Sunday evening from a week's vacation at Rockaway in time for a short visit with their aunt, Mrs. C. A. Dunham of Westington Springs, S. D.

Mr. and Mrs. O. V. White and son, Gordon, of Stayton, are spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gates and other relatives. Mrs. White is a sister of Mrs. Gates and Mrs. James Sewell.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne McKinney, Mrs. Emma McKinney, and Mrs. K. E. McDonald and children, who are visiting here from Tacoma, were guests Sunday of H. E. McKinney at Donald.

Hans Kruse of Swift Current, Saskatchewan, and his son, Arthur, of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Benn over the week-end.

Dr. J. H. Rossman and E. W. Beckett left Sunday night for Gold Beach and vicinity, where they will enjoy a week's fishing trip.

Dr. Robert Imbrie of Prosser, Wash., was a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Imbrie, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Challacombe and daughter left Tuesday for a visit with relatives and friends in Salem.

Ray Dillon has accepted a position with the C. Willis White Motor company.

Mrs. A. H. Morgan and children are spending the week at the Morgan cottage at Meacham.

New songs by Oregon composer at Anderson's Jewelry store.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Alexander are enjoying a vacation at Rockaway. Mrs. H. T. Bruce of Reedville is spending the week with friends in Salem.

W. E. Kelley and son, Ellsworth, of Banks, were county seat business callers Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Huff of west of Hillsboro are spending the week at Newport.

Miss Edith Weik has returned to her duties in the Carnation company office, after a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Reynolds and family of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Easter.

Mrs. J. M. Goar was a house guest of Mrs. M. H. Schmeer at Ocean Park, Wash., over the week-end.

Mrs. F. L. McMahon returned home the last of the week from a six weeks' visit with her mother at Auburn, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Wilkes and little son of Corvallis were guests the last of the week of Mrs. L. E. Wilkes and daughter, Miss Rhea.

Mrs. Carl Trachsel and children of Reedville and Mrs. Trachsel's sister, Mrs. Zuercher, of Helvetia, are spending the week at Rockaway.

A. F. Zillmer and Wendell Campbell, who live on the Springville road, near Old Bethany, were business callers in the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah VanHorn, Miss Tillie Cornelius, and Mrs. Floyd Brower of Portland, were guests Monday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wiley.

Mr. Harold R. Root and family of Okanogan, Wash., have returned home, after a week's visit with Mrs. Root's brother, R. R. Easter, and family.

Jesse O. Crandall of Hysham, Montana, arrived Saturday for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Crandall, and his brother, Max Crandall, and family.

Mrs. A. B. Todd, juvenile officer of this county, has been appointed as a delegate to the National Conference of Prison and Social Workers, to be held in Tacoma, Wash., next week.

Harold Wismer, who is with the Newport Construction company, and working on the Mt. Hood loop road near Rhododendron, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wismer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Miller, Mrs. Earl Truman of Portland, and Miss Esther Miller of Alameda, California, were guests of relatives at the McKinney home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koontz, Miss Valine Underwood, Miss Frances Gnos, Erma Jean and Elmer Williams, Jr., all of this city, and Mrs. E. J. Underwood of Portland are spending the week at Rockaway.

About 35 members of the Episcopal Mission motored to LaFayette locks Sunday and enjoyed the open-air services and picnic dinner with the congregations of McMinnville and Newberg. About 125 people were present.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bentley and family and their guest, Miss Ruth Sharpe, of New York, made the Columbia river highway trip Friday. Miss Sharpe left Sunday for Seattle, where she expected to visit Floyd Bentley for a short time on her way east.

Mrs. J. Walter Holt entertained in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Conn B. Williams, of Kansas City, Mo., with a bridge luncheon on Friday of last week. Honors were won by Mrs. T. L. Dill of Portland and Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell, Jr. Four tables were played.

Miss Cora Smith of Grants Pass is a guest this week of her aunt, Mrs. A. D. Smith, and on Tuesday the ladies were guests of Mrs. Mel Barnes of Beaverton, another niece of Mrs. Smith. Miss Smith is a daughter of the late Tip Smith, formerly in the flour milling business in this city.

Mrs. Winifred Gunton spent the week-end with friends at Rockaway. Mrs. Gunton reports that Rockaway had the largest crowd of its history on Sunday. The Southern Pacific had an excursion from Portland to Rockaway for its employees, and a large number of people were there from other places.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shuck and son, Stanley, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Finigan and daughters returned the last of the week from an auto trip which included the Mt. Hood loop, Maupin, Bend, East lake, Diamond lake, Crater lake, Klamath Falls, Ashland, the Oregon caves, Crescent City, California, and then back to Bandon and home. They were gone two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Krause and family of Manly, Iowa, left Tuesday for Bandon, after a visit with Mr. Krause's mother, Mrs. Andrew Lou, at Bethany, and at the homes of Walter Wismer and Ben Lou. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krause at Bandon, Charles Krause being a brother of the visiting Mr. Krause. Charles Krause and family are well known here, Mr. Krause having been with the Weir department store for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Phillips are planning a trip to the east and south, and expect to leave about the middle of the month. They will first visit with Mrs. Phillips' uncle in Illinois, and from there will go to Knoxville, Tennessee, where they will visit relatives. They will also visit at Bristol, East Tennessee, and other places enroute. Returning they will visit friends in Oklahoma, at Claude, Texas, at Los Angeles, Cal., where Mrs. Phillips has two brothers, and at Long Beach, where Mr. Phillips has two sisters, and then home. They expect to be gone until the last of October.

H. R. and L. F. Emmott went to Shelton, Wash., Monday to attend the funeral of their half-brother, Watt Hunter. Neil Emmott and family had seen him on Saturday, and he appeared to be in good health. They left there Sunday morning and upon their arrival here learned that a telegram had been received telling of his death. He had expected to visit here this week.

C. L. Son of Corvallis was a guest of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Lepeschat, while attending the freshmen's convention in Portland. Mrs. Lepeschat accompanied her father on the trip to Longview and the Mt. Hood loop trip, these trips being part of the entertainment for the visiting delegates and their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Emmott and daughter, Miss Joyce, returned Friday from a visit with relatives and friends at Tacoma, Seattle, Hood's Canal, and other places in Washington. They also made the trip to Mt. Rainier. Miss Dorothy Wehnes of Tacoma accompanied them home for a visit with relatives here.

O. B. Gates was at Seaside over the week-end visiting with Mrs. Gates and daughter, Mrs. Francis Wade, of Wasco. Miss Eleanor Kindt of Portland is a guest at the Gates cottage, and Mr. Wade is at the beach for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stangel and daughter, Catherine, enjoyed a picnic Sunday above Soda Springs. Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boos and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wirtz and daughter, of Forest Grove.

Miss DeEtte Johnston, who came up from Oakland, Cal., several weeks ago to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnston, returned to Oakland last Friday to attend school during the coming year.

Lloyd Tupper took his family over to Seaside for a month Friday, and returned Sunday evening. Mrs. Tupper and son are spending the month with her mother, Mrs. John Jeffcott, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peters and family, Mrs. Sarah Harvey, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dumis of near Mountaineer, left this morning for a week's outing at Netarts.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Harms and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Morley and family spent Saturday night and Sunday at Balm Grove.

Mrs. Ray Forney of Toledo arrived yesterday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. William Winegardner, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sewell and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Donelson attended the fair at Gresham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Donelson and Miss Evelyn Sewell returned Friday from their trip to Yellowstone National park.

Mrs. A. W. Havens and family returned Saturday night from a two weeks' vacation at Rockaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Weik of Portland spent the week-end at the Weik home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kerr and family of near Laurel were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Mrs. J. T. MacKay left Saturday for a few weeks' visit at Murreyville, B. C.

O. S. Dallman of Kinton was a Hillsboro business visitor Monday. Neil Stangel spent the week-end at Woodburn.

G. V. Payne and family are at their cottage at Pacific City for a week.

John VanLom of Cornelius was transacting business in Hillsboro Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cull will leave Sunday for a week's vacation at Seaside.

Mrs. W. G. Hare returned Sunday night from the Hare cottage at Pacific City.

Mrs. Eugene H. Blake of Kansas City, Missouri, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George T. McGrath.

M. H. Stevenson attended the realtors' meeting at Eugene the last of the week.

Mrs. J. B. Dinmore, Robert and Dorothy Dinmore left Tuesday for a short visit with friends in Seattle.

The ladies of the Christian church will have a food sale at the Reynolds' Grocery store on Saturday, August 20th.

Mrs. William Reichel, who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. Garthofner, for some time, is reported as improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Person and children picnicked Sunday with a number of Multnomah friends at Grant's park on the Clackamas river.

John Ibach, Jr., of Banks, was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday. He was accompanied by his father, John Ibach, Sr., and his little son, John, making three generations of Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shinaberger had as their guests Sunday at Scoggins camp, Mrs. Bessie James, the Misses Mildred and Martha James, Mr. and Mrs. George Tompkins of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Humburg of Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caldwell and daughters, Elaine, Katherine and Mary, and Mrs. Christenden and children, went to Rockaway Sunday on the S. P. excursion. Mr. Caldwell returned Sunday night, but the rest of the party remained for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heim and sons of Terre Bonne left Friday for home, after a few days' visit with Mrs. Heim's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gates. Mr. Heim and youngest son underwent operations in Portland last week for eye trouble.

Homer Baldwin of Laurel was called to the bedside of his mother, Mrs. William Baldwin, of Marengo, Iowa, Saturday night. Mrs. Baldwin has been in poor health for several years, but has been seriously ill for the past three months and cannot recover.

Fred Sewell went to Seattle Friday with the Artisan band of Portland to play at the Artisan convention in that city, and returned home Sunday morning. The Artisan band includes members of the former D. O. K. K. band of Portland of which Fred was a member.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boyce of Hood River and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Swick of Monument, eastern Oregon, were guests Sunday at the homes of M. M. Brierly, J. H. Garrett and William Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boyce is a sister of Mrs. Garrett and Mrs. Bowman, and Mr. Brierly is her father.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bailey and children will leave Monday for a two weeks' visit at San Francisco and Oakland, California, where they will be guests of relatives. In San Francisco they will visit with a brother of Mr. Bailey's, where a family reunion will take place, as the parents will also be there on their return trip from Michigan. Mr. Bailey's parents will return home with them.

Mrs. M. McParland and son, Alfred, went to Portland Sunday to spend several hours between trains with Mrs. McParland's aunt, Mrs. M. Donnelly, of Saskatchewan, Canada, who was enroute to Los Angeles, Cal., to make her home with her sons, who are in the dairy business in the southern state. Mrs. Donnelly was accompanied by her grandson, Jack Lee.

R. H. Greer received a letter this week from Mrs. Verne Currey of Knoxville, Tennessee, saying that they were on their way to Oregon to make their home. They will visit in different places enroute and expect to arrive here in two or three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Greer visited the Currey family when they were on their tour of the United States last year.

Mrs. E. M. Adams of this city and her brother, A. Withers, of Hiawatha, Kansas, are spending the week at Newport and Neskonin. They were accompanied by their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons, of Salem.

The Oregon State Veterans' association will hold their annual picnic at the Oaks, Portland, Saturday, August 13, to which General Ransom Post and corps are cordially invited. Bring your basket lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller of McMinnville have moved to this city and are now domiciled in one of the new homes recently built by Bert C. Shipley on Lincoln Street, near Fifth.

Mrs. J. H. Riggs returned the last of the week from Netarts, where she was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. N. Taggart, at her summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Everest of Bunker Hill, near St. Helens, were guests of Mrs. Everest's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Blaser, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Bergen and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Applegate were Sunday visitors at Cloud Cap Inn. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Blasing were picnickers at the fish hatchery on Gales Creek Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walker and daughter, Miss May, spent the week-end at Meacham.

Miss Johnetta Riggs is a guest this week of Mrs. John Gardner in Portland.

Peter Grossen of Helvetia was a county seat caller Saturday.

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

If you are having trouble with your eyes consult Dr. Glutach of the Thompson-Glutach Optical Co., now in his new location, Room 10, Commercial Bldg. For appointment, telephone 1656. 21-17

Miss Norma Baker of Laurel spent the week with Miss Alice May Strubb.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Marlin and son, Tommy, of Portland, are spending their vacation at the Marlin farm near Newton.

Mrs. Lester Ireland and daughters and Miss Angie Harrington are spending the week at the Ireland cottage at Rockaway.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hancock and children returned Sunday from a week's visit with Mr. Hancock's mother in eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Nosler and little daughter, Daphne, of Portland were guests the first of the week of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Powers.

George Roy of Seefeld was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday, coming down to celebrate his birthday anniversary with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roy.

Mrs. George Newton left Tuesday for Eugene to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Scott, who was killed in an automobile accident. Margaret Newton is spending a few days in Portland.

Henry Fogel of Forest Grove has rented the meat market in the City Market from Mrs. Strachan, and will take possession next week. Mr. Fogel and family moved to this city this week, and are living at 934 Ninth street.

Additional local will be found on page four.

H. J. Mahoney has opened a plumbing repair shop in Hillsboro. All work guaranteed. Telephone 223. 1213 Third street. 24-27

Have your eyes examined by a specialist. See Dr. Luzader at the Hillsboro Pharmacy every Saturday. Hours 10 to 4 o'clock. 36-17

Lumber Screen Doors
Window Screens
Screen Wire
Fuller Paints
FAIR PRICES

V. W. GARDNER
Lumber Company
The Lumber Store
Block West of Postoffice
Phones: Yard 2731; Res. 1531X

The Commercial National Bank

Hillsboro, Oregon

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS — $100,000.00

RESOURCES — $1,199,000.00

Member Federal Reserve System

Our stockholders number fifty of the leading farmers and business men of Washington County.

Edward Schulmerich, President
Glenn T. Stapleton, First Vice-President
E. I. Kuratli, Second Vice-President
William C. Christensen, Cashier
James A. Wood, Assistant Cashier
F. J. Sewell, Assistant Cashier

The Commercial National Bank is the largest bank in Washington County.

Green Cartouche
white reinforced
gold case, $35

At $35
A Gruen Cartouche

The impression is widespread that a Gruen is necessarily expensive.

We have, however, a wide selection of reliable Gruen wristlets in sturdy reinforced white gold cases moderately priced at only $35.

Come and see these fine watches.

J. L. Anderson
Jeweler
1211 Main Street

When

you want either Feed or Hay let us figure with you.

We can mill to any formula if you need something special or can supply ordinary requirements from our regular stock.

When you buy here you get the best of concentrates and uniform mixes—not once but always.

We also carry a complete line of Dr. Hess Tonics, Condition Powders, Fly Chaser etc.—all sold under a guarantee by the Manufacturer to give satisfactory results or money refunded.

GIVE US A TRIAL

Beaver Brand Feeds Are Good Feeds

Imperial Feed & Grain Co.

Successors to Buchanan Grain & Feed Co.
HILLSBORO, OREGON