

Local Briefs

Albert Kehrl of Quatama was a Hillsboro caller Friday.

Mike Zahl of near North Plains was a county seat business visitor Friday.

Will Jack left this morning for St. Martin's springs for a few weeks' sojourn.

David Legler and James Murray of near Tigard were county seat visitors Friday.

Rev. L. C. Poor left Tuesday morning for Salem to attend the Methodist conference.

R. I. Johnson of near West Union was transacting business in the county seat on Friday.

Mrs. Etta Haynes and son and C. Melman and daughter of Laurel were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Clark, Mrs. J. Warner and Mrs. T. W. Wilson of near Farmington were Hillsboro visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Anderson of near the Jackson school in the North Plains section were Hillsboro visitors Monday.

J. R. Deen and A. L. Yanskey, who live down on the river road toward Scholls, were Hillsboro business visitors Saturday.

James Jackson of near Orenco was a county seat business caller Saturday. Mr. Jackson recently returned from a trip back east.

J. W. Murray of the Miller Mercantile and Elmer Bailey enjoyed a fishing trip to Pacific City over Sunday. They returned home with 20 fish.

Margaret Nagel, granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Brunson, is suffering from blood-poisoning in her foot, caused by running a tack into the foot.

Howard Armstrong, the 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Arns, strong of Laurel, fell while at school Friday and fractured his left leg in two places. Dr. J. O. Robb attended the injured lad.

Mrs. Thomas Connell and son, Reid, Miss Gladys Bentley and Miss Margaret Reed went to Eugene Sunday, taking Miss Irene Connell to that city, where she will enter the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Park and daughter, Miss Bessie, left Monday for their home in Waverly, New York, after a five weeks' visit with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Schiedel, and at the Week home.

Members of the Women's Service club met at the home of Mrs. F. C. Francis of west of Hillsboro on Tuesday afternoon and canned apples for the Children's Farm Home near Corvallis. Mrs. Francis donated the apples.

Mrs. J. A. Messinger and daughter, Mrs. Roy Fields, of Laurel, were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Bert Maling and daughter, Miss Eleanor, left Friday for LaJolla, Cal., where Miss Maling will enter Bishop college, a preparatory school for girls.

Members of the Neighborhood club enjoyed their Sunday night pot-luck supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Bentley of near Hillsboro. Members present were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shaylor, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Logan, host and hostess. Mrs. Frank Barr was a guest of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Covell and little daughter left Sunday for their home in Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Mrs. Covell and daughter have been spending the summer with Mrs. Covell's mother, Mrs. Zula Linklater, of this city, and Mr. Covell's parents, Prof. and Mrs. Covell, of Corvallis. Mr. Covell came several weeks ago to accompany his family home.

The Pythians are invited to attend the dedication of the Pythian building at St. Helens Saturday. The program furnishes an entertainment for the afternoon and evening, with a chicken dinner at 5 o'clock furnished by Ava Temple of St. Helens. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock, and all Knights and Pythian Sisters are cordially invited to attend the ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. John Freudenthal entertained with a 6 o'clock dinner Friday evening in honor of Mr. Freudenthal's birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Haase, Mr. and Mrs. John Kama, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kama, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holtz, Mr. and Mrs. H. Voges, Carl Voges, Mrs. Hulda Emrick, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tews and son, Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freudenthal, Rev. George Reule, Herman Freudenthal, and the host and hostess.

Lee McIntyre, who has been with the Pacific Power & Light company in central Oregon all summer, arrived Monday night for a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McIntyre. He left last night for Grangeville, Idaho, where he has been with the P. P. & L. Co. for several years. Young McIntyre is a graduate of Hillsboro high school.

The Past Noble Grands of the Rebekah lodge will meet at the home of Mrs. William Treglawn, on West Lincoln street, October 6. Hostesses will be Mrs. Herman Rehe, Mrs. H. I. Patten, Mrs. Grant Zumwalt, and Mrs. Treglawn.

John Freudenthal & Sons are building a large milk house of stoneware at the Freudenthal farm southeast of town. The house will be used for distributing purposes in connection with their milk route business.

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Napier will leave Saturday for Kenova, West Virginia, where they will make their future home. They will make the trip by auto. Mrs. Napier is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. McFall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Perkins and daughters, Esther and Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley Perkins of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Cornelius and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornelius.

The Hillsboro Concrete Brick & Tile company this week sold material for a two-story residence to Walter Hamel of Cedar Mill, who will soon begin the construction of his new home.

Joseph and Miss Anna Engledinger of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived Sunday night and are guests of their brother, Fred Engledinger, and family. They will make their home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Broeren of Prescott, Oregon, arrived Sunday for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Spiesschaert of north of Hillsboro. The ladies are sisters.

Miss Mary Quiggle of Seattle is visiting friends in Hillsboro and vicinity this week. Miss Quiggle taught school in the Leisville community last year.

Mrs. J. W. Holt of near Matson station on the highway fell down the steps at her home Friday evening, severely spraining her right wrist.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hoffman of Oregon City and John Engledinger of Portland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engledinger.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brock and family spent Sunday at Forest Grove, guests of Mr. Brock's mother, Mrs. J. T. Reynolds.

Miss Pearl Winegardner underwent an operation Monday at the Smith hospital, Dr. E. H. Smith operating.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Melhuish spent the week-end in St. Helens, guests of Mrs. Melhuish's parents.

Miss Helen Connell, who attended U. of O. for the past two years, will enter Pacific university this term.

Mrs. Herman Glaske and son, Lawrence, of near Orenco, were Hillsboro callers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gambella of near Scholls were county seat business callers Saturday.

Mrs. William Zuercher of North Plains was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday.

P. H. Vanderzanden was a business caller in Hillsboro Friday.

W. W. Brown of Orenco was a county seat caller Monday.

Mrs. John Herb and family of near Roy were Hillsboro visitors Friday.

Rev. George T. Pratt left Monday for a few days' trip to Salem and Lyons.

J. F. Kennedy of Banks was transacting business in Hillsboro the last of the week.

Mrs. O. W. Axtell of Eugene spent the week-end visiting with her son, H. B. Axtell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Daniels of Farmington were county seat business callers Wednesday.

Misses Norma and Melvie McFall left last week to enter Laurelwood academy for the winter.

Dr. Lewa Wilkes of LaGrande spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wilkes.

R. V. McFall is at Medford this week on a deer hunt. He was accompanied by Norman Wilber of Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Turner of Airtie, Oregon, were in the city on Sunday to attend the funeral of the late William Faulk.

The Misses Avis Reid and Gladys Larson were home guests for the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Brogden.

Miss Amber Hastie of Glencullen, who is teaching this year at the Fairview school near Banks, was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Helen McDaniel and H. J. Mahoney of Hillsboro and Mrs. Marjorie Smith of Cornelius enjoyed a motor trip to Kelso, Wash., Sunday.

Miss Margaret Nottingham, a recent visitor at the William Brogden home, returned to her home at Akron, Ohio, to resume her school work.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wilson of Coquille are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nosler and family. Mrs. Wilson is a sister of Mr. Nosler.

Miss Josephine Potter, a graduate of the Hillsboro high school of this year's class, will attend the North-western Business college in Portland this winter.

Samuel Paisley of Buxton was in the county seat Tuesday on his way to a big Knights of Pythias affair in Portland. Mr. Paisley has his farm up for rent.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Holtz, who make their home on the place formerly occupied by the Boys' Military school beyond West Union, were Hillsboro visitors the last of the week.

Mrs. Sophia Smith was a Hillsboro visitor Monday, enroute to her home in Forest Grove from a week-end visit with her brother, Henry Carstens, and family, at Roy, and Mr. and Mrs. Clell Carstens of Banks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Spiering have moved here from Astoria. Mr. Spiering takes over the local agency of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company on account of the illness of Tauf Charneski, who is in the Veterans' hospital in Portland.

Mrs. Lois Bohson, who underwent a serious operation at the Smith hospital several months ago, and who has been convalescing at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bobly, of South Tualatin, left Friday for her home in Nyssa, eastern Oregon.

A. H. F. Wulf was in the city Wednesday morning on his way back to Buxton, after having spent some time at Vancouver, Wash., with his daughter. Mr. Wulf says that Vancouver is enjoying considerable prosperity and that there isn't a vacant store building in the city. The prune crop there is about 50 per cent, he said.

Mrs. C. W. Hall of Huber was in Hillsboro on business Monday. The Halls recently moved back to Huber from Farmington. They held a sale at Farmington early this month and Mrs. Hall says that it was more successful than they had expected. The cows brought a very good price. Mr. Hall is going to Alaska October 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gardner entertained Saturday night with a bridge party. Miss Lalande and Mr. Shute won first prizes, and Mrs. Lucas and Mr. Stohler received the consolation prizes. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stohler of Banks, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Verne McKinney, Miss Marion Lytle, Miss Clara Lalande, Miss Eva Sorenson, James Imbrie, Arthur Shute of Portland, Edward Maling, and the host and hostess.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hartman of near Witch Hazel was the scene of a delightful surprise party Saturday night, when a number of friends arrived to help Mr. Hartman celebrate his birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Anderson and daughter, Helen, Theodore Johannsen and sons, Chris and John, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson and son, Carl, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Almquist and son, Elvin, and Mr. and Mrs. Hartman.

At the R. N. A. meeting Friday night, Mrs. Grant Zumwalt was initiated into the order. The business session was followed by an entertainment by the losing side in the attendance contest, Mrs. John Johannsen, captain. The entertainment consisted of a program, dancing, and a banquet. The following program was given: Song by Mrs. Margaret Webb and Mrs. Victor Batchelar, which was acted out; a skit, "Bridget O'Flynn," by Mrs. Ada Qualls and Mrs. Maud Stanard, and a song by Mrs. W. Lornor and Mrs. Victor Batchelar. The captain of the winning side, Mrs. O. Coslett, was presented with a bouquet. About 75 were present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schulerich of near Corvallis were luncheon guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson. They were enroute to Portland where George attended the D. O. K. K. meeting Saturday night. A K. of P. picnic was held at one of the Schulerich ranches near Corvallis Sunday.

Mrs. Mary O'Brien, Mrs. Margaret Webb, Mrs. Edith Stewart, Mrs. Maud Dickson, Mrs. Miriam Brogden, Mrs. Alberta Hargrave, and Mrs. Mary Sabin were named as delegates from the W. R. C. at their meeting Friday to attend the county conventions of the Federated Women's clubs during the year.

Mrs. J. W. Kelley of the Washington hotel left Tuesday for a visit to St. Paul and other eastern cities. Upon her return she will stop in North Dakota, where she will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. English, and will also visit a sister in Montana. Mrs. Kelley expects to be gone about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Batchelar, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Batchelar and Mrs. P. A. Batchelar's father, Mr. Rhodes, went to Brooks Sunday, where Mr. Rhodes remained for a visit with his nephew, Eli Rhodes, and family. He will also visit his son, George Rhodes, at Salem, before he returns here.

Mrs. J. William Merrill returned recently from a motor trip to Seattle and way points, stopping at the Centralia, Elma and Yakima fairs. While at Sunnyside she was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Togg. She returned home Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Kuner and a party of friends.

Word has been received by Miss Eva Bailey of the birth of a son, Paul, Jr., to Dr. and Mrs. Paul Bailey at San Francisco on September 19. Dr. Paul is a former Hillsboro boy and the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bailey of this city, but now in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cox of this city and Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson of near Cornelius were Sunday visitors at Seaside. They report splendid weather at the beach resort and a large crowd there Sunday.

Mrs. William Brogden, Mrs. A. M. Carlile, Mrs. Edith Stewart and Mrs. J. P. Jarvis attended the regular meeting of the Mary Logan Tent, Daughters of Veterans, in Portland Thursday.

Miss Dorothy Howe, with the Hillsboro Power & Investment company, returned Monday from a week's vacation with friends at Pendleton and other eastern Oregon points.

Miss Dolores Page of Toppenish, Wash., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Floyd Miller, left Monday for McMinnville to enter her junior year at Linfield college.

Mrs. Beulah Harris of Portland was a Hillsboro visitor the last of the week, a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cox, and of Mrs. Clay Freeman.

Mrs. George Taylor of Seaside is a Hillsboro visitor this week, a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Vesta Combs. She is also looking after property interests here.

Miss Doris Bailey of Forest Grove, Jack King and Herbert McNutt of Portland were week-end guests. Miss Virginia Brogden, at Brogden Acres.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Bonney of Centralia, Wash., are visiting Mrs. Bonney's mother, Mrs. Lydia Bigelow, on East Main street this week.

B. Fleischauer of Gaston, who has charge of the prisoners on the market road work, was in Hillsboro yesterday, as there was no crew out.

Mr. and Mrs. George Zimmermann of Shadybrook were county seat callers yesterday. Mrs. Mary Zimmermann has moved to Thatcher.

J. E. Yunker of near Gaston was in the county seat on business yesterday. Mr. Yunker is advertising grapes for sale.

Miss Agnes Maltman was a visitor at Government Camp Sunday, making the trip with Portland friends.

Mrs. S. H. Rockwell of Vancouver, Wash., is a guest of her brother, J. H. Garrett, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pinkerton of Portland were calling on Hillsboro friends Monday evening.

Mrs. George Wann, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is reported as improving.

Mrs. J. J. Nussbaumer of Bethany was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday. William Waibel of near Laurel was a Hillsboro business visitor on Wednesday.

James Perkins of Portland was a guest of his mother, Mrs. A. J. Perkins, Wednesday.

Mrs. Melissa Jackson of this city visited Wednesday with Mrs. Bess Jackson, east of town.

Max Berger and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Taylor of Hazeldeale were callers in the county seat Wednesday.

Mrs. R. O. Hoberg of the North Plains road was a guest yesterday of her sister, Mrs. A. J. Jackson.

Miss Emma Toghill of Bellingham, Wash., is a guest of her nephew, Glen Stapleton, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Taggart and daughters, Misses Belle and Floy were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Jones at Orenco.

Mrs. Wayne Patterson, who was operated upon several weeks ago in a Portland hospital, has returned home and is convalescing nicely.

Hallie Ireland and Oscar Jacobs killed a big three-point buck Sunday, while on a hunting trip in the Blue Canyon district on Dairy creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodwin of Salem were week-end guests of Mrs. Goodwin's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Estep, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Greer will leave Sunday for Salem, where they will attend the Methodist conference and will also remain for the State Fair.

Mrs. John L. Woodward and children and Mrs. John Schifer of Salem were visiting Hillsboro friends the first of the week, returning home last night.

C. W. Hergert of the Withycombe farm south of Hillsboro was transacting business in Hillsboro Tuesday. Mr. Hergert says all the farmers of that section are busy cutting corn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Owen of McMinnville were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McCaskie. Their sons, who had been spending the week here, returned home with them.

Henry S. Miller of Portland and Miss Marion I. Rose of King county, Washington, were married at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. S. McMinis, on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip G. Putnam of near Farmington left Saturday for Eugene, where Mr. Putnam has the chair of biology in the University of Oregon, and Mrs. Putnam will enter the university for her junior year.

The teachers of the Hillsboro schools and the Union high school will be given a reception on Wednesday night, October 7, at the Veterans' hall, the Coffee club and the chamber of commerce acting as hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Watson of Portland were Sunday guests of Mr. Watson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Watson. I. N. Watson of Portland, an uncle of M. E. Watson, was also a guest at the Watson home over the week-end.

J. M. Person returned Wednesday from a hunting trip to Curry county. He was accompanied by some Portland friends, and the party brought back three bucks. Mr. Person says the report is that deer are not so plentiful down there this year.

The Junior Bible class of the Methodist church entertained the Senior class and the official church board at a melon feast Monday evening. The Junior Bible class elected J. R. Forsythe as president and Mrs. Phillips as secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ensminger and son, Phillip, and Mrs. Horton of Vancouver, Wash., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boge of near Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Ensminger and Mrs. Horton were schoolmates of Mr. Boge back in Illinois.

Miss Irene Connell was given a farewell surprise party by a number of friends Thursday evening of last week before she left for Eugene, where she will enter U. of O. Those present were the Misses Connell, Margaret Tucker, Ruth Gilmore, Patty Lomax, Erma Pasley, Ethel Linklater, Iola Robb, Dorothy Tongue, Gladys Bentley, Margaret Rood, Dorothy Sherman, Ruth Julien and Eugenia Cypher.

Miss Helen Wilcox and Mrs. L. G. Seifridge attended the concert given at the Portland auditorium Monday night by Marion Talley, the young vocalist who has gained national fame. Miss Wilcox reports that Miss Talley was very enthusiastically received by the capacity house which greeted her, and that her wonderful voice and charming personality captivated the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eischen and sons, who have been living at Salado in Lincoln county for the past three months, arrived yesterday for a few days' visit with Mr. Eischen's mother and sister, Mrs. M. Eischen and Mrs. Frank Waibel, of this city, and his brothers in this county. Mr. Eischen and family will leave the last of this week for their former home in Fresno, California.

J. L. Anderson received a telegram yesterday telling of the death of his brother, Theodore Anderson, aged 58, at Warren, Pennsylvania, the home town of the Anderson family. This is the second brother Mr. Anderson has lost within the past few weeks, the other one being Rev. Anderson of Astoria. Mr. Anderson has but one sister living now.

Mrs. Kate Dell Marden, prominent Portland musician and normal teacher of the Danzing System, gave a most interesting lecture at the home of Mrs. Vesta Combs, Friday evening. Miss Helen Wilcox, graduate teacher, arranged for the lecture.

Mrs. Ben Layman is a guest today of her mother, Mrs. Winifred Gunton. Mr. and Mrs. Layman and Mrs. Gunton were visitors at Longview Sunday, making the loop trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Luck of Portland spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Luck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Shaner. Mrs. Luck remained until Wednesday.

Mrs. G. A. Patterson of Portland was a Hillsboro visitor the first of the week, a guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Patterson.

Mrs. Maud Milne's sale yesterday at the Milne farm near North Plains, is reported as a very successful sale, with a record crowd in attendance.

Dan Burkhalter and J. B. Stewart went to Salem the first of the week, where they will be night watchmen in the Agricultural pavilion.

Mrs. W. H. Taylor entertained the Ladies' Aid of the Christian church at her home Wednesday afternoon, with a tea.

Esping's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-2f

Dr. Glutsch of the Thompson-Glutsch Optical Co., of Salem, may be consulted at the Hotel Washington on September 28th. 29-30

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hartwick attended the Round-up at Pendleton last week, making the trip up and back at night.

Dr. and Mrs. Glen Taylor of The Dalles were week-end guests of Dr. Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor. (Other Locals on Page Four)

Piano Students, Attention!
Mrs. George T. Pratt, an experienced teacher in the art of piano playing, will accept a few additional pupils. Mrs. Pratt graduated from Albany College Conservatory and did two years post graduate work in New England Conservatory in Boston. She was a special pupil of Herr Stasny, who was a favored pupil of Liszt. Mrs. Pratt is well known in Oregon and in Seattle for her careful, conscientious work, as well as the rapid progress made by her pupils. High school credits given. No pupil will be accepted who is not willing to work. Harmony classes will begin later. Telephone 791.

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701.

Josephine Uppenkamp, teacher of piano forte; high school credits given.—Call at 1121 Second street, or Verboort high school. 26-29

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-1f

Dance at North Plains
W. O. W. at North Plains will hold their opening dance of the season at their hall, Saturday evening, September 24. Clark's orchestra. 30

Dance at Banks
The R. N. A. of Banks will give a dance on Saturday night, September 24, at Parnley hall. Good music. Tickets, $1.00. 29-30

PARENTS
Have your children's eyes scientifically examined for the coming school work. Eye strain will hinder them in their studies. And don't neglect your own eyes. See Dr. Luzader at Hillsboro Pharmacy every Saturday for more than five years. Hours 10 to 4. 27-1f

The Commercial National Bank
Hillsboro, Oregon

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS — $100,000.00
RESOURCES — $1,199,000.00

Member Federal Reserve System

Our stockholders number fifty of the leading farmers and business men of Washington County.

Edward Schulmerich, President
Glenn T. Stapleton, First Vice-President
E. L. Kurath, Second Vice-President
William C. Christensen, Cashier
James A. Wood, Assistant Cashier
F. J. Sewell, Assistant Cashier

The Commercial National Bank is the largest bank in Washington County.

Don't Run Downstairs

Are you always upstairs when the telephone rings on the floor below?

An extension telephone, costing only a few cents a day, will save miles of walking and hours of time.

Oregon Telephone Co.

Green Cartouche
14k solid gold
case, $40

A new Green Cartouche in solid gold $40!

Here is truly remarkable watch value! A dainty wrist-let, newly created by Green, with an adjusted movement, cased in 14k solid white gold — at half the price you'd expect to pay for such a watch. See these remarkable timepieces at our store — today!

J. L. Anderson
Jeweler
1211 Main Street

Beaver Brand Feeds
Poultry Supplies
Dr. Hess Products

HAY - - GRAIN - - SEEDS

Feed Grinding Grain Cleaning
Truck Weighing

Dairy Feeds Bran Mill Feeds

We Will Buy, Sell, or Trade

Imperial Feed & Grain Co.
Successors to
BUCHANAN GRAIN & FEED CO.

Foot of Second Street :: Opposite S. P. Freight Depot