

Local Briefs

H. C. Ruecker of near Cornelius was a business visitor here Monday. John Conzelman of below Scholls was a county seat caller Friday.

Mrs. E. M. Pray of near Reedville was a Hillsboro visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. George Corey of Roy was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday, calling on friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hatchelder of near North Plains were Hillsboro callers Monday.

Bradford Fowles of above Mountdale was transacting business in Hillsboro Saturday.

Neil Emmott and Charles Koontz left Sunday morning for a few days' fishing trip at Taft.

Mrs. Albert Root, who recently moved to Forest Grove, was a Hillsboro business visitor Monday.

M. Reeves of near the Grable school house in South Tualatin was transacting business in Hillsboro on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Carter and children of Portland were Sunday guests of Mr. Carter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carter.

Mrs. J. M. Vranon of Portland was in the city on business the last of the week. Mrs. Vranon formerly lived in this county.

Rev. E. W. Hillis is in central Oregon this week at Sisters, Madras and other places, where he will organize Sunday schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Rourke of Portland were Hillsboro visitors Saturday, enroute to their Mountdale home for a few days.

Frank Hulsman of south of Cornelius has rented his place and will move his family to Hillsboro after the sale, which takes place today.

Mrs. Frank Hulsman of near Cornelius underwent an operation at the Jones hospital Saturday, Dr. J. O. Robb and Dr. J. B. Dinamore operating.

L. K. Adams of Portland was a Hillsboro visitor Saturday. Mr. Adams is an attorney and was associated with the late W. N. Barrett in the law profession about 30 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Otnes drove to Monmouth last Sunday afternoon. They were accompanied by their daughter, LaDele Otnes, and Jessie Shattuck, who are going to normal school there.

Herman Bishop of Helvetia was a county seat visitor Monday. Mr. Bishop had the contract at the Jackson quarry this year and expects to finish up within a few days if the weather will let him.

Victor Leheyne of near Leonyville was transacting business in Hillsboro Monday. Mr. Leheyne and family moved last week from their former home near Blooming to the old Blanchard place near Leysville.

Wesley Schulerich, who has been playing professional baseball at Los Angeles, Cal., arrived home Thursday evening. He left the last of the week with a party of friends from Corvallis for a hunting trip to southern Oregon.

L. E. Walker, son and daughter, Marvel and Miss Vera May, of Portland, were visitors at the Walker ranch west of town Saturday. Miss Walker is attending the Northwestern Business college in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas are visiting at the home of Mrs. Thomas' mother, Mrs. M. Welch. Mrs. Louis Dugan, who has been at the Jones hospital for some time, is also a guest of her mother, Mrs. Welch, but will leave for Portland the last of the week. Mr. Dugan is expected home from Canada this week, and they will reside in Portland.

The Christian Gleaser Girls met at the home of Dolores Theda on September 30 and elected officers as follows: Dolores Theda, president; Agatha Hurst, vice-president; Hazel Brown, secretary and treasurer. Committees were also elected and Virginia Harader was elected social leader, Arlene Brock chairman of the look-out committee, and Agatha Hurst class reporter. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the evening.

Mrs. Leonard Brown and Mrs. John Kamna, Jr., entertained the Bridgette club Monday night at the home of Mrs. Brown. Mrs. Willeford received first prize and Mrs. McCaskie received the consolation. Those present were Mrs. Reynold Chapman, Mrs. W. W. Phillips, Mrs. Verne McKinney, Mrs. H. E. McCaskie, Mrs. Burton Willeford, Mrs. Vesta Combs, Mrs. Otto Steinke, Mrs. T. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Ralph Ireland, Miss Agnes Maltman, and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Klatt of McMinnville are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter, Joy Ann, October 9th. Mr. and Mrs. Klatt being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Goodin of near Cornelius, and Mr. Klatt being a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klatt of near Orengo.

A card from Mrs. J. W. Kelley of the Hotel Washington, who is visiting her parents at Michigan, North Dakota, says that the weather has been ideal since she arrived there, with clear, sunny, crisp days and cool nights. This is her first visit for three years, and she will remain until about the 17th.

Mrs. Emma Dierdorf received word the first of the week from her son, William, from London, telling that he made the trip from Paris in an airplane to London and would leave there for Scotland, where he would visit with his aunt. He expects to leave for home on the 16th.

The Needlecraft club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Kroeger, with a good attendance. The club voted to hold their apron and food sale on Saturday, November 26. The ladies will make a specialty of large, serviceable aprons.

Richard, the three-year-old son of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Hillis of this city, slipped on a board walk Sunday and fell against the step, sustaining a bad break of the left leg in the thigh. Dr. J. O. Robb attended the little sufferer.

E. A. Eilford and son, Maurice, of Newberg, were Hillsboro visitors Saturday. They also visited at Orengo and North Plains. Mr. Eilford broke his leg last spring and is just able to get around now without the aid of a crutch.

W. W. Jaquith of Scholls was transacting business in Hillsboro Saturday. Mr. Jaquith is an old timer in that section and is greatly interested in the early history of the county. He is compiling a history of that section.

R. Bowby of South Tualatin was a Hillsboro business visitor Monday. Mr. Bowby reports that there is a great deal of clover in that section yet to be hulled and some of the silos are not filled, on account of the rain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stangel, who have been living on Washington street, near North Range, are moving today into their new home on First street, between Lincoln and Jackson.

Mrs. C. M. Smidt and Mrs. G. A. Patterson of Portland were calling on Hillsboro friends Monday. The ladies formerly resided here.

Mrs. Otto Harttrampf spent the week-end in Portland, a guest of her sisters, Mrs. J. R. Sandford and Miss Olive Mead.

The Eastern Star will have special Hallowe'en program and games at their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Will Jack returned Saturday from a two weeks' stay at St. Martin's Springs and is greatly improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornelius were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Perkins and family in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott, formerly of Hillsboro, have moved from Portland to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. George Emmott of Portland were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Emmott.

Mrs. J. M. Mills of above Manning was a Hillsboro visitor the last of the week.

A. L. Schindler of Bethany was greeting Hillsboro friends Friday.

Mrs. W. O. Robertson left Tuesday morning for a week's visit with relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kuhnhausen of Tacoma were guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kramien.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Riggs are guests this week of their son, Charles Riggs, and family, in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin McCormick left the first of the week for Newberg, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Freeman returned Monday from Pacific City, where they enjoyed a few days fishing.

Miss Florence Lake, who is teaching at Salem, was a guest of her mother, Mrs. Maud Lake, Monday evening.

Miss Irene Connell of U. of O., Eugene, was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Connell.

O. Portwood of Fossil were week-end guests of Mrs. F. A. Bailey and daughter, Miss Eva.

The Neighborhood club was entertained at supper Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Bentley, east of Hillsboro.

W. H. Wescott and family have moved to Scoggins Valley from West Union. Their neighbors at West Union gave them a farewell party.

W. C. Taylor of near Estacada was a Hillsboro visitor the last of the week. Mr. Taylor is working on the new telephone building at Forest Grove.

The weather performed a queer freak Monday afternoon when it rained very hard in the Orengo section, amounting to a severe storm, and did not rain here or at Reedville.

Mrs. William Valandigham of Santa Rosa, Cal., who is visiting at the home of her father, Benton Bowman, went to Portland Tuesday for a few days visit with her brother, Harry, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Engledinger and family were guests Sunday of Mrs. Engledinger's sister, Mrs. E. A. Wells, and family, at West Linn. They were accompanied by Miss Anna and Joe Engledinger.

G. D. Peckenbaugh of Spokane, Wash., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. King during last week. Mr. Peckenbaugh is a train dispatcher at Spokane and has been a life-long friend of Mr. and Mrs. King.

Mrs. G. O. Gray and daughter, Evelyn, of Albany, spent the week-end with Mrs. Gray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reamy. Mr. and Mrs. Esmond Vincent were also week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Reamy.

Henry Steinke and W. C. Gifford left Sunday morning for Yakima, Wash., to assist Otto Harttrampf with the fruit grader manufactured by the Harttrampf brothers, and which is being demonstrated in that section.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walters and Roy Hills of North Plains are attending the Pythian Grand Lodge at The Dalles this week. Mrs. Walters is the delegate for Friendship Temple of that place and the gentlemen are representing Glencoe lodge.

Ray Emmott of Vernonia returned last week from a two weeks' hunting trip to Vale and Ontario. Mrs. Emmott and little daughter, who were guests at the home of Mrs. Emmott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. King, during his absence, returned home with him.

Mrs. Victor Batchelar, Mrs. W. O. Morley, Mrs. R. V. Thomas and Mrs. Ross Munkers went to Forest Grove Monday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Winifred Aldrich of that city. Mrs. Aldrich had been pianist of the Rebekah lodge of Forest Grove for 16 years.

Charles Deichman of Longview was a guest over the week-end of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Deichman. He was enroute home from Moravia, Cal., where he attended the wedding of John Goldthwait and Miss Helen Whitehead, former O. A. C. friends. While south he visited Vincent Engledinger at Los Angeles.

The Woman's Church Service League of All Saints Mission will meet with Mrs. Myron Willis of Forest Grove on Wednesday, October 19. This will be the regular meeting and all members are requested to meet at the chapel at 2 o'clock p. m., as there will be cars to accommodate all. Committees have been appointed and are working hard for the fall bazaar, which will be held at the mission house on December 7 and 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Connell of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cypher of North Plains went to Molalla Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Connell and Mrs. Cypher's uncle, Robert Bagby, who died there the last of the week. Mr. Bagby was an old pioneer, having come to this country by wagon train when two years of age. He was 77 years old at the time of his death, and had resided in Clackamas county since coming to Oregon. He had often visited here.

Mrs. Amy Altman returned last Thursday from a few weeks' visit at Seattle with her niece, Mrs. Bessie Nelson, and her son, Fred Altman, whose ship, the Lurline, was in Seattle at the time. While on her trip Mrs. Altman went as far as the Canadian border, going over the famous Chuckanut drive. Another interesting place visited was the government locks, the second largest in the world, where she saw boats and also a large boom of logs taken through. The locks are surrounded by beautiful grounds, kept up by the government. She especially admired the fine theater buildings in Seattle, such as the new Orpheum, the Fifth Avenue, and United Artists.

Peter Grossen of Helvetia was a Hillsboro visitor Wednesday. Mr. Grossen had a snapshot of a wild grouse which he adopted his place as his home. Mr. Grossen has been around the Grossen place for several months, going into the chicken house, yard and barn. While Mrs. Grossen was sitting under a tree in the yard recently the grouse came and sat beside her just like any tame pet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bowman and daughter, Grace, of this city, Dr. Fannie Graffis of Portland, and Mrs. Fred Beach of near North Plains were guests Sunday of D. B. Reasoner at Vernonia. Mrs. Beach and Mrs. Bowman are daughters of Mrs. Reasoner, and Dr. Graffis is a sister.

W. A. Tupper arrived home Saturday morning from Corvallis, where he has been assisting Max Crandall in expediting the books of the county officers. Mr. Tupper left Tuesday morning for St. Helens, where he will also do some expert accounting.

E. F. Dahlheim has been transferred from the Portland division of the Portland Electric Power company to Hillsboro, where he will act as a merchandising representative in an endeavor to put more load-building apparatus on the company's lines.

The Pythian Sisters of North Plains will give a series of card parties in the K. P. hall, starting Saturday evening, October 15. Five hundred will be played. Admission, 25 cents, including supper. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Elwood Johnson had the misfortune to fall Saturday morning at her home, breaking her left arm just above the wrist. Dr. J. O. Robb attended the injured lady and she is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Case of Tillamook returned to their home yesterday after a visit of several days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. C. G. Reiter.

George Hawley of Orengo was in town on business Wednesday. The Hawley family just returned from Hood River, where they have been picking fruit.

The ladies of St. Matthew's parish will give a social entertainment at the school hall this Friday evening. Good music. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Lenore Irmier and son, Paul, of Portland, were Hillsboro visitors Wednesday, attending the funeral services of the late John L. Crow.

The Congregational Social Circle will meet at 2:30 o'clock next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. V. Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Mobley moved to Corvallis last week, where Mr. Mobley will be employed in the Buick garage.

Mrs. R. M. Wridge and Mrs. A. W. Wridge went to Portland today for a few days' visit with relatives.

Mrs. A. Maes and Mrs. Ben Coats visited Tuesday.

The estate of Henry Becker has been admitted to probate.

Hard time dance at Gales Creek community hall, Saturday night, October 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Skeen, abstracters of Oregon City, were Hillsboro business visitors Tuesday.

The Busy Bees of the Grange will hold a variety sale on November 19. Watch papers for further announcement.

Mrs. Ralph Deaville and children of Gresham are spending the week with Mrs. Deaville's mother, Mrs. Herman Rehe, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reiling and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Patterson attended a party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Layman in Portland.

Little Anita May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morgan, had her tonsils removed Monday morning at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, Dr. W. B. Hare operating.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Purdin of Portland came out Tuesday for a visit with their mother, Mrs. P. M. Jackson. Mr. Purdin returned to Portland that evening, but Mrs. Purdin remained for a few days' visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Purdin was formerly Miss Nellie Jackson.

The ladies of the Congregational church will hold a big rummage sale this week. Come and buy. There will be things you will want, and cheap, too. Winter clothing, hats, shoes, fancy articles, and other things too numerous to mention. Sale will be held at 1151 Third street, between Main and Washington, on west side of street, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Mrs. Len B. Fishback entertained the Christian church Missionary societies of this city and Forest Grove at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Coulter, secretary for district No. 1, of Portland, was present and gave an interesting talk on the convention and rally to be held in Portland on October 20 and 21. Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Attend Poets Meeting
Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Blasing attended the meeting of the Northwestern Poetry association Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Steele in Portland. Mrs. Blasing gave two original readings and a talk on poetry markets. Col. Hofer and many others from Salem were present, about 75 being present from all points. These meetings are held once a month and are very enjoyable affairs.

G. R. Cabinet Meets
The members of the Girl Reserve cabinet met at the home of the president, Dorothy Tongue, on Tuesday night, instead of at the school as usual. Miss Simms, the secretary of the Portland Federation, was present to talk over the year's work with them. Further plans for the interest groups were made and also for the wearing of rings. A pot-luck supper was an interesting feature of the meeting.

Will Award Prizes
O. T. McWhorter, county agent, will award the prizes at the Polk county fair tomorrow on farm crops and horticultural exhibits.

W. H. M. S. Meets

The Woman's Home Missionary Society met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Fred Pearson, two miles east of town, with 14 members and four visitors present. The lark into the country of G. N. Taggart, who gave his time and the use of his bus graciously, taking the ladies both ways. Mr. Taggart says it afforded him pleasure in doing this little deed, especially because of the good work of the women who are endeavoring to help those less fortunate. The president, Mrs. Doughty, presided. Mrs. H. Huff led devotionals and solicited five light bearers. Mrs. Maynard read an interesting letter describing the Methodist Old People's Home located at Salem. The presence of Mrs. Lockhart, the new minister's wife, was greatly enjoyed. After an interesting business session, the ladies were served dainty refreshments. Mrs. J. R. Forsythe invited the ladies to meet at her home for the next session.

Attend Grand Lodge
James Wood and A. W. Havens represented Phoenix lodge at the Grand Lodge session in The Dalles this week, and Mrs. L. F. Emmott represented Phoenicia Temple in the Grand Temple session in that city. Others attending from here were Mrs. Henrietta Morgan, Mrs. James Wood, Mrs. Lloyd Brown and Mrs. Harry Morgan. They were accompanied by Mrs. Dora Nelson of Portland and Mrs. Sharp, representative of Lakeview Temple of Gaston Pythian Sisters.

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701. 30-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

James Wood and A. W. Havens represented Phoenix lodge at the Grand Lodge session in The Dalles this week, and Mrs. L. F. Emmott represented Phoenicia Temple in the Grand Temple session in that city. Others attending from here were Mrs. Henrietta Morgan, Mrs. James Wood, Mrs. Lloyd Brown and Mrs. Harry Morgan. They were accompanied by Mrs. Dora Nelson of Portland and Mrs. Sharp, representative of Lakeview Temple of Gaston Pythian Sisters.

(Other Locals on Page Four)

AUXILIARY CARD PARTY
The American Legion Auxiliary will give the first of a series of card parties at the Veterans' hall on Friday evening, October 21, at 8 o'clock. Bridge and "500" will be played, and card playing will begin promptly at 8:15. Everybody invited. Admission, 25 cents.

Get the Columbia record, "Two Black Crows," at J. L. Anderson's Jewelry Store. 33

Good music, good floor, good management, and a good supper. Come and bring your friends to hard time dance, October 22, Gales Creek Community hall. 33

R. N. A. Dance
The Royal Neighbors will give a dance in the M. W. A. hall on Saturday night, October 22. Modern and old time dances. Admission 50 cents and 25 cents. Good music. Everybody invited. 33-34

Turn in your news items by Monday or Tuesday if possible, or as soon as they happen. 11-12

Be sure to attend Hard Time dance at Gales Creek Community hall, October 22. 33

The best optical service need not be expensive. Kryptok lenses for far and near vision, $12.50; Toric reading lenses, $5. Consult Dr. Glutsch about your eyes next visit, Wednesday, October 26, at the Washington Hotel.

Come in out of the cold; a good place to spend the winter is the Hotel Washington, "The House of Hospitality." Plenty of steam heat and oodles of hot water at all times. Special winter rates. 32-33

OPENING DANCE
The Grange Busy Bees will have their opening dance at the M. W. A. hall on Saturday night, October 15. Modern and old time dances. Prices, 50c and 25c. 32-33

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701. 30-31

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701. 30-31

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701. 30-31

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701. 30-31

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701. 30-31

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701. 30-31

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701. 30-31

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701. 30-31

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

WOOD! Because of mill shut-downs Tualatin Valley Fuel Co. regrets to notify patrons of their inability to furnish block wood for a couple of weeks. But can deliver slab, dry forest, and planer wood.—J. E. Blazer & Sons, 659 Third St., Hillsboro; telephone 701. 30-31

Spicing's quality candies, pure and delicious, home-made.—1311 Main street. 29-31

Miss Dee Darling, a credited teacher of piano.—Studio at the residence of Mrs. Cave. 26-29

Better let Andy fix your watch. He knows how.—J. L. Anderson, Jeweler, 1211 Main street. 16-17

4722 Fleets Back Your Choice-

of a 3/4 Ton GRAHAM BROTHERS COMMERCIAL CAR

No Matter what your business—regardless of weather or road conditions—if you need 3/4-ton transportation, a Graham Brothers Commercial Car will serve you faithfully and economically.

Somewhere—probably in your own neighborhood—transportation problems similar to yours have been solved.

Everywhere leaders in every line of business have staked their reputation for fast, dependable service on Graham Brothers 3/4-ton Commercial Cars—4722 fleets in daily operation.

You Owe it to Yourself to know the facts before buying.

Cady Motor Co.

Hillsboro :::: Oregon

GRAHAM BROTHERS TRUCKS

CHASSIS EQB. DETROIT

Built by Truck Division of Dodge Brothers, Inc.

Keep on the Right Road "SAVE"

A Dollar every now and then is the basis of many fortunes. Make it a habit to put away a few dollars whenever you have them to spare. It is surprising how your account will grow, and give you the basis of a good investment.

LET US TALK TO YOU ABOUT THIS SAVINGS IDEA

Edward Schulmerich, President
Glenn T. Stapleton, First Vice-President
E. I. Kuratli, Second Vice-President
William C. Christensen, Cashier
James A. Wood, Assistant Cashier

The Commercial National Bank
Hillsboro, Oregon

TRY US

When in the Market — for —

+++

Egg Mash

+++

Scratch

+++

Dairy Feed

+++