

Over 200 Members Attend Convention

More than 200 members were in attendance at the Willamette Convention No. 15 of the Royal Neighbors of America, which met in the Commercial hall here Wednesday last week in an all-day and evening session.

The different camps represented were Haley, Hazel Dell, Oregon Rose, Margaretta and Lents of Portland, Oregon City, Molalla, Tualatin, Beaverton, Forest Grove and Banks. Three visitors were present from Idaho and one from Washington.

The morning session opened with the officers of Hillsboro camp in the chairs. Their dresses were of beautiful pastel shades, and received many compliments.

The officers of the different camps exemplified the work for the school of instruction in the afternoon, after which officers were elected for the coming year. The officers are Mrs. Mabel Batchelar, president; Mrs. Flynn of Margaretta camp, Portland, vice-president; Mrs. Mary Rovee of Banks, second vice-president; and Mrs. Eva Jones of Margaretta camp, secretary-treasurer. The convention will be held at Banks next year.

Oregon Rose camp of Portland put on the initiatory work in the evening, at which time ten new candidates were initiated, five of them going into the Hillsboro camp. Just before the close, Mrs. Mabel Batchelar, with the assistance of the marshals, Mrs. Freda Frost and Mrs. Ada Qualls, and Neighbors, Mrs. Iona Larmor and Mrs. Lillian Brown, presented the convention officers, Supreme Chancellor Mary Gray, State Deputy Ida Hamblin, District Deputy Mrs. Stallsmith, President Elinor Cooper, Secretary Eva Jones, and Captain Maud Stannard, with lovely bouquets of purple and white chrysanthemums.

At the close of the session, Hillsboro camp furnished the entertainment, which was open to the public. The program consisted of a comic drill to the tune of "Irish Washerwoman," an address by Mrs. Ida Hamblin, and a one-act comedy, "No Men Wanted." The characters in the play were Elizabeth Rawley, by Esther Brown; Isabella Granger, by Mabel Batchelar, and Fynella Abercrombie, by Ada Qualls. The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing.

The ladies of the Baptist church served luncheon at 12 and dinner at 6 in the Veterans' hall.

Changes Are Made In School Boards

Mrs. Emma Bryant, county school superintendent, has appointed Mr. Ream school director at Metzger to succeed O. D. Martin, who is moving away. The union high school board of district No. 2 elected Mrs. Clara Smith to the board to succeed Mr. Martin. Mrs. Bryant has named John Jepson at Fern Hill to succeed Frank Hulsman, who has moved away. Edward Anderson has been elected to serve out the unexpired term of E. Hamlin in the Mason Hill district. Page Patton, chairman of the school board at Shady Brook, has resigned.

Gun Club Will Have a Shoot on December 18

The Washington County Rod and Gun club will hold a turkey and goose shoot at the club grounds near Cornelius Sunday, December 18, at 10 o'clock. The club shoot committee is in charge.

Judge and Mrs. E. J. Ward Surprised

Judge and Mrs. E. J. Ward were completely surprised at their home on Oak street Sunday, when all their children, grandchildren and relatives met to celebrate their 38th wedding anniversary.

The marriage vows were again renewed, J. T. Lieuallen, a deacon in the Baptist church of Adams, Oregon, officiating. Mrs. Ward was greatly admired by all the grandchildren when she appeared in a wedding gown, veil with orange blossoms, and shower bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums. The dress and veil were loaned for the occasion by a niece, Mrs. Clarence Klatt, of McMinnville.

After the ceremony a bountiful dinner was served by the self-invited guests. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Ben Ward and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McBurney and family of Gaston, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lung and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Schofield of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schofield of Portland, J. T. Lieuallen of Adams, Mrs. Harriet Yoder and daughter, Mary, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Klatt and little daughter of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gordin of Cornelius, Judge and Mrs. Ward.

Sunday School Rally Sunday Afternoon

A district Sunday school rally will be held Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2:30, at the Hillsboro Methodist church. Talks and features for the program will carry out the thought, "Worship."

James Price, general secretary for the Oregon Council of Religious Education, Mrs. Nyra Nash, and Miss Dulcine Brown of Portland will take part on the program. Elements of worship will be discussed by local Sunday school workers.

The district includes Orengo, Reedville and Aloha, as well as the Sunday schools in Hillsboro.
